

Acerca de este libro

Esta es una copia digital de un libro que, durante generaciones, se ha conservado en las estanterías de una biblioteca, hasta que Google ha decidido escanearlo como parte de un proyecto que pretende que sea posible descubrir en línea libros de todo el mundo.

Ha sobrevivido tantos años como para que los derechos de autor hayan expirado y el libro pase a ser de dominio público. El que un libro sea de dominio público significa que nunca ha estado protegido por derechos de autor, o bien que el período legal de estos derechos ya ha expirado. Es posible que una misma obra sea de dominio público en unos países y, sin embargo, no lo sea en otros. Los libros de dominio público son nuestras puertas hacia el pasado, suponen un patrimonio histórico, cultural y de conocimientos que, a menudo, resulta difícil de descubrir.

Todas las anotaciones, marcas y otras señales en los márgenes que estén presentes en el volumen original aparecerán también en este archivo como testimonio del largo viaje que el libro ha recorrido desde el editor hasta la biblioteca y, finalmente, hasta usted.

Normas de uso

Google se enorgullece de poder colaborar con distintas bibliotecas para digitalizar los materiales de dominio público a fin de hacerlos accesibles a todo el mundo. Los libros de dominio público son patrimonio de todos, nosotros somos sus humildes guardianes. No obstante, se trata de un trabajo caro. Por este motivo, y para poder ofrecer este recurso, hemos tomado medidas para evitar que se produzca un abuso por parte de terceros con fines comerciales, y hemos incluido restricciones técnicas sobre las solicitudes automatizadas.

Asimismo, le pedimos que:

- + Haga un uso exclusivamente no comercial de estos archivos Hemos diseñado la Búsqueda de libros de Google para el uso de particulares; como tal, le pedimos que utilice estos archivos con fines personales, y no comerciales.
- + No envíe solicitudes automatizadas Por favor, no envíe solicitudes automatizadas de ningún tipo al sistema de Google. Si está llevando a cabo una investigación sobre traducción automática, reconocimiento óptico de caracteres u otros campos para los que resulte útil disfrutar de acceso a una gran cantidad de texto, por favor, envíenos un mensaje. Fomentamos el uso de materiales de dominio público con estos propósitos y seguro que podremos ayudarle.
- + Conserve la atribución La filigrana de Google que verá en todos los archivos es fundamental para informar a los usuarios sobre este proyecto y ayudarles a encontrar materiales adicionales en la Búsqueda de libros de Google. Por favor, no la elimine.
- + Manténgase siempre dentro de la legalidad Sea cual sea el uso que haga de estos materiales, recuerde que es responsable de asegurarse de que todo lo que hace es legal. No dé por sentado que, por el hecho de que una obra se considere de dominio público para los usuarios de los Estados Unidos, lo será también para los usuarios de otros países. La legislación sobre derechos de autor varía de un país a otro, y no podemos facilitar información sobre si está permitido un uso específico de algún libro. Por favor, no suponga que la aparición de un libro en nuestro programa significa que se puede utilizar de igual manera en todo el mundo. La responsabilidad ante la infracción de los derechos de autor puede ser muy grave.

Acerca de la Búsqueda de libros de Google

El objetivo de Google consiste en organizar información procedente de todo el mundo y hacerla accesible y útil de forma universal. El programa de Búsqueda de libros de Google ayuda a los lectores a descubrir los libros de todo el mundo a la vez que ayuda a autores y editores a llegar a nuevas audiencias. Podrá realizar búsquedas en el texto completo de este libro en la web, en la página http://books.google.com

This is a reproduction of a library book that was digitized by Google as part of an ongoing effort to preserve the information in books and make it universally accessible.

https://books.google.com

828 L357ee 1869

L357se

828 L357ee 1869

English Reprints.

MASTER HUGH LATIMER, Ex-Bifhop of Worcefter.

Seven Sermons before Edward VI,

On each Friday in Lent, 1549.

CAREFULLY EDITED BY

EDWARD ARBER,

Affociate, King's College, London, F.R.G.S., &c.

LONDON:

5, QUEEN SQUARE, BLOOMSBURY, W.C.

Ent. Stat. Hall.]

1 February, 1869.

[All Rights referved.

CUIVIEIVIS.

CONTENTS, including a rough Analysis of the Sermons,	2
Some events in the Life &c. of Bp. Latimer,	8
Introduction,	11
Bibliography,	16
SEVEN SERMONS BEFORE EDWARD. VI.
1. The fyrste Bermon. 8 March, 1549.
	17
1. Thomas Some's dedication of the feries of feven	_
fermons, to Lady Katherine, Duchess of Suffolk	18
2. The argument of the Sermon	21
3. ARGUMENTS, SAYINGS, &c In this world God has two swords; a temporal in the hands of	23
Kings, magistrates, rulers; and a spiritual in the hands of ministers and preachers. The king corrects transgressors, yea and the preacher also, if he be an offender. The preacher corrects and reproves the King, fearing no man, setting God only before his eyes THE TEXT. Deuteronomy xvii. 14—17.	23
i. 'The godly election' of a king	25 27
Story of the two friends and the horse
'Who goeth plainly, goeth difely'	27 28
It hath pleased God to grant us a natural liege King and Lord, of our ownnation, an English man, one of our own religion. God has given him to us and he is a most precious treasure, and yet many of us do him to us and he is a most precious treasure, and yet many of us do desire a stranger to be King over us The King's grace hath sisters, my Lady Mary, and my Lady Elizabeth, which by succession and course are inheritors to the crown, who if they should marry with strangers, what should ensue GOD knoweth. But God grant they neuer come unto coursing nor succeeding	30
ii. The King must not have too many horses. &c.	32
'What meaneth it, that God hath to do with the Kings stable; but only that he would be Master of his horses. God is great grand only that he would be Master of his horses. God is great grand master of the King's house, and will take account of every one that beareth rule therein, for the executing of their offices, whether they have justly and truly served the king in their offices or no. Yea God looketh upon the king himself, if he work well or not.'
'I was once offended with the King's horses [ which were then stabled	32
in the Abbeys] and therefore took occasion to speak' to Henry VIII.	33
iii. The King must not have too many wives	33
It is a great thing for a man to rule one wife rightly and regularly. For a woman is frail and inclined unto all evil: a woman is a very weak vessel, and may soon deceive a man, and bring him into evil .	34
'We have now a pretty little shilling, indeed a very pretty one. I have but one I think in my purse, and the last day I had put it away almost for an old groat, and so I trust some will take them.
The fineness of the silver I cannot see: but thereon is printed a fine sentence, Timor Domini fons vitæ vel sapientiæ.'.	35
A notable history of the French king Louis [IX.]  This king did well, and had the fear of God before his eyes. He	35 would not walk in by-walks, where are many balks [i. e. ridges]
Amongst many balks is much stumbling, and by stumbling it chanceth many times to fall down to the ground. [A saying, see p. 56]
many times to fall down to the ground. [A saying, see p. 56]	36
iv. The King shall not multiply to kimself TOO MUCH gold and silver If there he sufficient treasures, and the king ask his subjects for more.	38 it is too much. Who shall see this too much? The king himself, with
If there be sufficient treasures, and the king ask his subjects for more, it is too much. Who shall see this too much? The king himself, with spiritual Eyes: a pair of spectacles, viz, Faith; not a seasonable faith, which shall last but a while, but a faith which continues in God:
taith, which shall last but a while, but a faith which continues in God:  and Charity, which is fervent towards his Christian brother.	38
Chrysostom's saying. 'I marvel if any ruler can be saved'	38
If God will not allow the King too much, he will not allow a subject	•
too much	38
A description of the King's honour. In that (1) his subjects be led in the crue religion: in (2) a wealthy commonwealth: and in (3) the great multitude of the people great multitude of the people	39

CONTENTS.	3
The Clergy had too much, but now have too little The Yeomanry is made slavery. Latimer's father was a farmer.	40
His position and that of the present holder of the farm contrasted .	40
By yeomen's sons the faith of Christ is and has been maintained chiefly. Is this realm taught by rich men's sons?
A redress God grant. For surely, surely, but that two things do	41
-comfort me I would despair of redress in these matters. One is, that the King's majesty when he comes to age: will see a redress of these things so out of frame. The second hope I have is, I believe that the general accounting day is at hand, the dreadful Day of Judgement } mean, which shall make an end of all these calamities and miseries'.	43
2. The seconds sermon. 15 March, 1549.	45
1. Thomas Some's address To The READER	40
2. Arguments, Sayings, &c	55
THE TEXT. Deuteronomy xvii. 18-20.  Before I enter into this place I would repeat the place I was in last, and furnish it with a story or two which I left out in my last sermon'  Episode in this sermon. The revolt against Solomon and death of	55
Episode in this sermon. The revolt against Solomon and death of	••• Adonijah. (a startling parallel to the case of Lord Seymour of Sude- leye, High Admiral of England, then in the Tower, attainted for high treason] r Kings ch. i. and ii	56
Story of the Cardinal Beaufort, Bp. of Winchester and the good Duke Humphrey	6.
i. As God set an order in the King's stable so will he appoint	63
what pastime the king shall have	64
He must be a student, he must write God's book him selfe The Holy Bible, God's book, that we have among us, has been	64
preserved hitherto by a wonderful miracle of God What a bishop of this realme once said to me' about the Bible	65
'What a bishop of this realme once said to me' about the Bible	65
The Homilies are called 'homlyes, and in dede they maye be well called, for they are homely handeled'	66
The Scala cali, the true ladder that bringeth a man to heaven.
The top. Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved and step. How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?
3rd step. How shall they beleue in him of whom they have not believed?
off seed. How shall they hear without a preaches?
Foot of the ladder. How shall they preach, except they be sent.  [Rom. x. 13—15] Take away preaching, take away salvation is. The King must not be proud above his brethren.  Wherefore shall a king fear God? That he may reign long, he and lightlighten.	. 67
ii . The King must not be proud above his brethren	63
Wherefore shall a king fear God? That he may reign long, he and his children	60
Solomon's prayer, and the trial of his wisdom narrated	69 69
I must desire my Lord protectors grace to hear me in this matter,	_
that your grace would hear poor mens suits yourself' Poor folk come to Latimer to get their causes heard	72 72
The unjust judge that Christ speaks of	73
'The poor woman that lieth in the Fleet'	74
3. The thurde Sermon. 22 March, 1549.
ARGUMENTS, SAYINGS, &c.	75
CONFUTATIONS.—A digression.—The preacher hath two offices  By sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers  This day I must somewhat do in the second office. I must be a	7.5
'This day I must somewhat do in the second office. I must be a	7.3
gainsayer, and I must stop their mouthes and confute that they	-0
speak slanderously of me'	78 7 8
'Now to my confutation. (a) There is a certain man that shortly	• after my first sermon, being asked—before the King's majesty, $. 78—if he had be at the sermon that day, answered Yea. I pray you, said he, how liked you him? Marry said he, euen as I lyked him always,	_ a seditious fellow'	82
(b) How Latimer was accused of sedition to Henry VIII.	82

CONTENTS.

(c) Howen giving up his bishopric [1] July 1539] he sent his commissary to collect a Pentecostal due of £55: but he could not be suffered, 'a sedition would rise upon it. Thus they burdened me euer with sedition.

(d) So this gentleman commeth up now with sedition. And wot ye what? I chanced in my last Sermon to speak a merry word of the new shilling, to refresh my audience, how I was like to put away my new shilling for an old groat [£35], I was herein noted to speake seditiously.

(d) When I was in trouble, it was objected and said unto me, that I was singular, that no man thought as I thought, that I loved a singularity in all that I did... Marry sir this was a sore thunderbolt I thought it was possible it might not be true that they told me' as of Christ in John. ch. vii. "I thought I was not alone. I have now gotten one fellow lisain the Prophet [i. 22.] Ah seditious wretch what had he to do with the Mint?" Here he meddleth also with vintners? (I must tell you more news yet. I hear say, there is a certain cunning come up in mixing of wares. The clothmakers have become apothecaries.) Isaiah goeth yet on. He calls magistrates unfaithful and fellows of thieves. There are two kinds of thieving. Golbery is a gross kind and Bribery a princely kind of thieving. 'Giff gaff was a good fellow. This Giff gaff led them clean from justice."

Story of the good fellow and the pudding 'Bribing magistrates and judges follow gifts faster, than the fellow would follow the pudding.'

The same man that laid sedition thus to my charge, was asked another time, whether he were at the sermon at Paul's Cross. He answered he was there. And being asked what news there. Marry, quoth he, wonderful news, we were there clean absolved, my mue and all had full absolution. Ye may see by this, that he was such a one that rode on a mule and that he was a gentleman. Indeed, his mue was wiser than he, for I dare say the mule never slandered the Preacher. Oh what an unhappy chance had this mule to carry such an ass on his back. I was there at th

I did not mean so, but that some noblemen's children had set forth God's word Howbeit the poor men's sons have done it always for the most part.

John Alasco. Melancthon. Peter Martyr. Bernard Ochin.

Now I wil to my place again. In the later end of my sermon I exhorted judges to hear the small as well as the great. The delaying of matters of the poor folk, is a sinful before the face of God as wrong judgement.

THE TEXT. The parable of the unjust judge. Luke xviii. 1—8.

i. Why our Saviour Christ, rather used the example of a wicked Judge than a good Bylyke good judges were rare at that time, and trow ye the devil has been asleep ever since?

ii. It is good and lawful for God's people to use the laws of the realm as an ordinary help against their adversaries: so they do it not of malice

'The greatest man in the realm cannot so hurt a Judge as the poor widow. And with what armour I pray you? She can bring the Judges' skin over his ears, and never lay hands upon him Story of Cambyses and the Judge whom he flayed alive

The sign of the Judge's Skin.

God has two visitations. The first is, when he reveals his word by preachers, the second comes not

Man's heart is unsearchable. Story of the prisoner executed at Oxford

95 95 96

97

CONTENTS.	5
'I will leave here, for I think you know what I mean well enough' [an allusion to the Lord Admiral, that day sentenced to die in that week]	101
4. The fourth Bermon. 29 March, 1549.
Arguments, Sayings, &c	102
Rehearsal of previous sermon.  The Text. Conclusion of the parable of the unjust judge. Luke	102
Episode in this Sermon. 500 Anabaptists in a single town in Eng-	103
land, where the bishop of the diocese is an unpreaching prelate Good pastors are worthy of double honour; to be reverenced of the	103
people, and to have all things necessary for their state The merry monk in Latimer's college, at Cambridge	105
'A vengeance of that Bene, quoth the monk'	106
Unpreaching prelates worthy of double dishonour to be cast out, 'make them quondams'; and not to be esteemed.	•
A chaplain complains to his Bishop, of Latimer's second sermon. (2.66)	107
The Bishop answers, 'Well, I did wisely to-day, for as I was going to his sermon, I remembered that I had neither said mass nor matins,
And homeward I got as fast as I could, and I thank God I have said
both, and let his unfruitful Sermon alone'.	108
Latimer adds, 'Unfruitful says one, another says seditious. Well unfruitful is the best, and whether it be unfruitful or no, I cannot tell. It lieth not in me to make it fruitful. I am God's instrument	_
but for a time  i. Judges and magistrates should look to their offices	103
The Devil, the great magistrate is very busy now	112
He goeth about as much as he can to corrupt the men of law.  Oh that a man might have the contemplation of hell, that the devil	113 would allow a man to look into hell to see the state of it, as he showed all the world when he tempted Christ in the wilderness	113
ii. The unjust did not think himself as he said: but our Saviour Christ puts him to say that thing, which was bid unto himself
Learn therefore, How unsearchable a man's heart is	114
'A man seemeth not to fear death, therefore his cause is good.' is not a good argument. The Anabaptists died intrepidly. Christ was afraid of death	116
The last acts of the Lord Admiral were seditious.  Lord Darcy's speech (in 1537) in the Tower, to Latimer	7-119
'All Traitors pretend nothing against the King, but against others'	119
Story of the two men hanged at Oxford for robbing a priest, 'twenty	- years ago' iii. The end and purpose of the parable is That we should be con-	119 tinually in prayer	122
'Call upon me in the day of trouble' is as much a commandment as 'Thou sholt not steal'	123
Why would God have us so diligent in prayer. Prayer is not lip- labouring, babling, or monkery. What makes our prayer acceptable?
Our prayer pleases God, because Christ pleases God. When we	124 pray, we come unto him in the confidence of Christ's merits, and thus offering up our prayers, they will be heard for Christ's sake'  A poor woman in the belfry hath as good authority to offer up the sac-	125
rifice of prayer through Christ, as a Bishop in bontificalibus	125
"This must be done with a constant faith and a sure confidence in Christ. Faith! faith! We are undone for lack of faith! This faith is a great state, a Lady, a Duchess, a great woman. She
This faith is a great state, a Lady, a Duchess, a great woman. She	125 hath ever a great company and train about her (as a noble state ought to have). First she hath a Gentleman-Usher that goes before her. Where he is not, there is not Lady Faith. This Gentleman-Usher is called Knowledge of sin, So she hath a train that come behind, and yet though they come behind, they be all of Faith's company, her whole household, and these are The works of our vocation'	126
"I have troubled you long, partly being out of my matter, partly heme in	120

CONTENTS

D	CONT	21V 1 S	•
5.	The Jufte Berm	on.	April.	1540.
	SAYINGS, &C.			-2430	130
	revious sermon .	•.	• •	•	. 130
Eulogium of	Cardinal Pole, 'the k	ing's tr	aitor,' who	might hav	ve been Archbishor	of York, if he had ke	pt his a	llegiance		. 133
tis de ensione	Cardinal sent Henry	V111.	Pro ecclesi	asticæ imit
'The Cardinal	said in it that 'a ky	nge is	an odiouse	word.' Ti	. 135 he memory of this	determines THE ST	BJECT	of this d	ay's sermo	n.
	people may be governe	ed by a	governor,	that bears t
name of a king of THE TEXT.	or not!) 1 Sam. viii. 1—3, and 1	:	. •	•	. 132
The unlearne	d (although I am sure	here b	e a great m	anv lcarned	); 134 134
Story of Samu	el			•	. 134
	his old age took his son	ıs as he	lpers and c	coadjutors, have his office w	en asscnargea.dness of his sons	•	•	•	. 135
	is Scala inferni, [the	ladder	of hell.	130 the rig	ht way to hell: to	be covetous, to take b	ribes, ar	nd to perve	rt justice.	If a judge should a	isk me the way to hel	l, I wou	ild show h	im this wa	y.
take bribes and	a covetous man, then lastly pervert justice.	There	go a nui	e luriner a	na ke up the mess. He	engum tuum, a Tybu	n tippe	t .	•	. 141
The innocent	widow executed, wit	hin the	se thirty ye	ars "	. 141
Story of the r	ich Pretor of Rome, is for a man to answer at	Pope	Julius' time	e come of la	. 142 and yet have w	rong done to him: and	to be	attainted i	n his absen	ce.
and yet have rig	ht done to him .				. 143
Men may be o	ondemned in their abs	ence, b	ut not ofter	n: so that it	be
Some liken	domly, for avoiding dis ne to Doctor Shaw, th	sturbano	ched at Par	ommonwea	lth 143
King Edward	IV. ]'s sons were basta	rds '			. 145
The Council	IV.]'s sons were basta need not my lie for th	e defen	ce of that w	vhich they d	lo' 145
	usaess is a fruitful v	voman,	ever child	ing, and e	vet . 146 bringing forth h	er iruits atron and the priest w	rith the	golden app	oles .	. 140
iii. The people	le offended God not in	asking	a King, b	ut in doing	30
to the wrong an	ed deposition of Samu	el.		•	. 150
You judges o	f the world, bribes will e touch none. No M	make y	you pervert	justice w	ny rife hath a fine fing	er. She touches it for	vou or e	lse you ha	ve a servani	2
Muneribus .		•	•	•	. 151
Story of the l	Merchant that killed that we will ave the second average with the second are second as the secon	ie Searc	cher .		. 152 crowns.' If the	aved by bribery. In	ere was ven to i	the should	ers. they w	ere served well eno	ugh		•		· 153
The mother	guilty of infanticide, a	cquitted	l by friends	and bribin	g; 153
An innocent	gentleman 'a profess r for that ye may be	or or th	e word of	God (ne sj	to.
which another	man afterwards confes	sed and	was hange	ed.	. 154
iv. Samuel	cleared himself, at th	e King	s feet. He	did not be	tar'
with his sons	:·	•		•	. 155
	The strie Hern	non.	12 April	, 1549.
	s, Sayings, &c.	•	• •		. 158
Kehearsal of	previous sermon .		A Spanias	d that killed	. 158 lan
Englishman .	d say since of another i	's savin	a Spainar De vera	religione, x	iv.) 161
The excellen	cv of archery .	٠. ١		•	. 161
'In my time	, my poor father, was The miraculous draw	diligen	to teach n	ne to shoot	16:
The Text.	The miraculous drau is expounded and appl	ignt of 1	unes. Lu	KC V. 1-7	. 16:
Dr. N. Gora	ham (Nicholas de Gorr	ain, b. 1	235—d. 120	5] says 'Th	ere '
la more devotis	on in law folk and old	rives th	on in the c	erov 1	. 16

CONTENTS.	7
Story of the gentiewoman that went to St. Thomas of Acres (in Cheapside), to steep in sermon time	166
Latimer reproves the noisiness of his audience.  Why did Christ go in the boat That he might sit more commodi-	169
ously and that he might not be thrust in the water. Why, he was stronger than they all? He might have stood on the water as well as he walked on the water. 'Truth it is, so might he have done indeed.
he walked on the water. Truth it is, so might he have done indeed.
But as it was sometimes his pleasure to show the power of his Godhead, so he declared now the infirmity and weakness of his manhood'	170
Why rather comes he to Simon's boat than another? Just as I came hither to-day from Lambeth in a wherry, I chose that one next me.	170
Christ taught sitting. A godly pulpit, - an old rotten boat. And yet he preached his Father's will out of this pulpit.	172
Story of the Bishop 'and the broken bell-clapper'	172
Latimer, when a bishop, riding homeward, is fain in a town to give place to Robin Hood's men Robin Hood 'a traytour and a thief.' [Apparently, neither Lati-	173
mer nor his audience doubted his existence]	274
'A joly text by Dyonisius   de Leuwis de Rickel. b 1394-d 12 Mar.	• • •
1471] I chanced to mete with his book in my Lord of Canterbury's library. He was a monk of the Charterhouse'.
The speech to Peter did not make him a great man, any more than	175
that to Judas afterwards	176
There is never a wherryman at Westminster Bridge but can give a natural reason why Christ spoke in the singular to Peter Launch out into the deep, and in the plural, Loose your nets. He knows that one into the deep, and in the plural, Loose your nets. He knows that one man is able to shove the boat; but that one man was not able to cast out the nets	176
Christ will have all Christian men to work for their living The blessing of God maketh a man rich.	177 179
220 0000-5 0. 000	-/9
7. The seventh Sermon. Good Friday, 19 April, 1549.
ARGUMENTS, SAYINGS, &c	182
Summary of the previous six sermons	188
THE TEXT. Christ's Agony at Gethsemane. Matt. xxvi. 36-44, &c.	183 183
The narrative expounded in narration  The ugsome and horrible Image of hell, which is death. Men have	103
been afraid of this 'horrible Image of death,' as Ahithophel, Job, David,	_
The ugsome and horrible Image of hell, which is death. Men have been afraid of this 'horrible Image of death,' as Ahithophel, Job, David, Jonah, Hezekiah, Peter, 'little Bilney, that blessed martyr of God.' If ever you come to prison for God's quarrel, I will advise you first	187
and above all things to abjute your friends, leave not one unabjuted.	189
A similitude of what Christ did for us .	191
You have many goodly gardens, I would you would in the midst of them consider what agony our Saviour suffered in his garden'.  There is a difference between being tempted and entering into temp-	198 tation. To be tempted is no evil thing. For what is it? No more than when the flesh, the devil, and the world do solicit and move us against God. To give place to these suggestions, to yield ourselves, and to suffer ourselves to be overcome of them: this is to enter into temptation	194
The Lord Admiral a contemner of common [i. e. family] prayer.	197
O Lord! what a wonderful thing is this, this horror of death is	- worse then death itself: more ugsome, more bitter than any bodily death	300
What a do was it to bring the blood of Hales of the king's [Henry VIII.] mind	201
A great man's advice to Latimer on his first coming to court	201
Latimer's argument for his belief, That our Saviour suffered not only bodily in the garden and on the cross, but that his soul suffered proportionately the pains of hell, corresponding to the sin of the whole world	203
'The life of a Christian man is nothing but a readiness to die, and	206
a remembrance of death' Mix your pleasures with the remembrance of Christ's bitter passion'	206
Conclusion	207

Digitized by Google

Some

circumstances in the Life, &c.

Master HUGH LATIMER,

chiefly referring to or illustrated by these

SERMONS.

* Probable or approximate dates.

1465. Aug. 22. Menry WH. becomes Sing.

Eb. Bug. 22. genty but. occumes using.

Hugh Latimer is born at Thurcaston. A house near the church—built in 1568, on the site of a more ancient one—is usually called Latimer's house. J. Nickol. Hist. of Co. of Leicester. iii. 1056, 1061-70.

His account of his parentage, p 40.

How they called pigs in his country (Leicestershire), p 98.

His father carefully trains him in archery, p 162.

He goes to Cambridge.

1509. Apr. 22. Menry WHH. begins to reign.

The merry monk of his college, $\rho$ to6.

Graduates B.A. Univ. Regr.

There were several Latimers at Cambridge about this time. This professor of Greek there was William Latimer, not Hugh Latimer; as stated in The Ploughers, Ed. 1868. 1510. Jan.

1868.
Graduates M.A. Univ. Regr.
When a priest, his anxiety to mix sufficient water with the wine in the Sacrament, $ 86.
'Litle Bilney, $ 189, converts him to Protestantism.
The robbery at Oxford, $ 129.
Preaches his first sermon before Henry VIII. æt. 22.

Comes to court, as a chaplain. The advice a great man

Comes to court, as a chaptain. The advice a great man gave him then  $\rho$  zor.

As he afterwards tells the king, 'I never thought my self worthy, nor I never sued to be a preacher before your Grace, but I was called to it.'  $\rho$  83.

What a Bishop said once to him,  $\rho$  65.

Cardinal Pole publishes at Rome, his letter to the King. in 4 books, Pro exclesiastice imitatis defensione: see  $\rho$ . 133.

cardinal Pole publishes at Rome, instetter to the Kings in 4 books, Pro ecclesiastica similatis defensione: see p. 133.

5. Latimer becomes Bishop of Worcester.

—June. His conversation in the Tower with Lord Darcy [who was beheaded June 20], p. 219.

T. Dorset, Curate of St. Margaret's, Lothbury, thus writes to his friends:—

o. 'On Sunday last the byshope of Worcestre preched at Paulis Crosses, and he saide that byshopis, abbatis, prioris, parsonis, cannonis resident, pristis, and all, were stronge thevis, ye dukis, lordis, and all; the kyng, quod he, made a marvelles good acte of parliament that certayne men should sowe euery of them ij. acres of hempe, but it were all to litle were it so moche more, to hange the thevis that be in England. Byshopis, abbatis, with soche other, shold not haue so many servauntes, nor so many dysshes, but to goo to their first foundacion, and kepe hospitalytie to fede the nedye people, not jolye felowis with golden chaynes and veluet gownys, ne let theym not onis come into the howses of religioun for repaste; let them call, knaue bysshope, knaue abbat, knaue prior, yet fed non of theym all, nor their horses, nor their doggis, nor ye[t] sett men at Childhood.

*1491.

1514. July.

*1521 OF 1522.

1538.Mar.10.

At Cambridge. *1529. 1530.Mar.12.

At Court. 1535-

Bishop of Worcester.

libertye; also to ete fleshe and whit mete in Lent, so that it be don without hurtyng of weke consciences, and without sedition, and lykewise on Fridaye and all dayes.—
Cottonian M.S. Cleop. E. iv. fol. 110. [See Letters relating to Suppression of Monasteries, Ed. by T. Wright, 938. Ed. 1843.]
I was once at Oxford . . . I lay there a night. The ? May z.

"I was once at Oxford . . . I lay there a night." The execution there, $101.

Riding home from London, he intends preaching in a town on his way, 'because it was a holy day' [Feast of the Apostles Philip and Yames] He expects to find 'a greate company' in the church: but is forced to give way to Robin Hood, $173.

Is accused of sedition in presence of the king, $83.

Is accused of a syngularity in all that he dyd, $84.

He resigns his bishopric. 'As for my quondamshyp I thancke God that he gaue me ye grace to come by it by so honest a meanes as I dyd, $188.

1539. June 2.

In ward.

most part enery Sonday two Sermons '-Bernher.

ş

Preaching for

Feb. 23.

Is defrauded of his Pentecostal due of £55, $83.

Is in ward with Bp. of Chichester, and in daily expectation of death, $120. For nearly the next eight years he is 'commanded to silence.'

1547. San. 29. @bbarb DI. ascends the threne.

1547. San. 29. Edward VI. ascends the threne.

1548. Jan. 1. In the 1. of Ianuary doctor Latimer preached at Paules act. 57. crosse, which was the first sermon by him preached in almost eight yeeres before, for at the making of the sixe articles, he being bishop of Worcester would not consent vnto them, and therfore was commanded to silence, and gaue up his bishoprike: he also preached at Pauls crosses on the 8. of Ianuary; where he affirmed, that whatsoener the cleargie commanded, ought to be obeyed, but he also declared that the cleargie are such as sit in Moyars chaire, and breake not their masters commission: adding nothing thereto, nor taking any thing there from: and such a cleargy must be obeied of all men, both high and lowe. He also preached at Paules on the 15. and on the 29. of Ianuary. J. Stow, Chronicles, $1002. Ed. 1605.

Mar. 7. The 7. of March, being Wednesday was a pulpit set vp in the kings prime garden at Westminster, and there in doctor Latimer preached before the king, where he mought be heard of more than foure times so manie people as could haue stod in the kings chappel: and this was the first sermon preached there. Idem.

[The Literary Remains of Ed. VI. Edited by J. S. Nichols. Roxburghe Club, 1857, and Burghley State Papers, Edited by Rev. S. Haynes, 1740, are recommended for full details as to the following.]

(Palm Sunday) Latimer preached before the King: and receives the usual sos for his labour.

1549. Jan. 17. The 5. of Ianuarie, Sir The. Seimer knight of the garact. 58.

Jan. 18. Latimer preaches in St. Paul's 'shrouds,' the sermon on The Ploughers.

He lives with Crammer at Lambeth Palace. Poor people come to him in the garden to have their suits heard, $72.

He lives with Cranmer at Lambeth Palace. Poor people come to him in the garden to have their suits heard, $72.

Attends a sermon at Paul's Cross, $80.

The council go in a body to the Tower to examine the Lord Admiral on 33 articles. He refuses to answer, except on arraignment. on arraignment.

The King consents to his prosecution.

24.

famous fryday sermons, p 19.

Ě

acts. public 1550. Lent.

```
    A deputation from both houses of Parliament also go to the Tower. Lord Seymour replies to 3 articles, and refuses to answer the rest.
    —Mar. 6. A Bill of Attainder of the Lord Admiral passes through both Houses of Parliament.

                                                                                                      through both Houses of Parliament.

(Friday) The first sermon, in Lent, before the King at Westminster. 'The duty of a King.'

'I have no cause to complaine, for I thanke God and the King I have sufficient,' $\rho_{\pmathcal{4}}\epsilon$.

A genteman, 'suche an one that rode on a mule,' accuses him of sedition to the king, $\rho_{\pmathcal{7}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\end{arg.} accuses him of sedition to the king, $\rho_{\pmathcal{8}}\epsilon_{\pmathcal{8}}\eta_{\pmathcal{8}}\end{arg.} he king assents to the Bill of Attainder of Lord Seymour. Rev. John Joseph, D.D., Rector of Mary-le-Bow, preaches before the King.

(Friday) Goodrich Bp of Ely sent to prepare the Lord Admiral for death.

The second sermon. 'The duty of a King'
Mar. 5.
                                                    10.
                                                    25.
```

Mary-le-Bow, preaches before the King.

(Friday) Goodrich Bp of Ely sent to prepare the Lord Admiral for death.

The second sermon. 'The duty of a King'
The above bishop's chaplain complains of what he says at $66: see $p.08.

(Sunday) The Lord Admiral's execution is fixed by the Council for the following Wednesday. The Rev. Giles Eyre, D.D., preaches before the King.

(Wednesday) The Lord Admiral is beheaded; see $117.

(Friday) The third sermon. 'The unjust Judge.'

(Sunday) Rev. Matthew Parker, afterwards Primate, preaches before the King.

(Thursday) "xxxiii. Martij.—This day sir Michael Stanhope knt. by commandment and order of the lorde protector's grace and counsaile, received of mr. Latymer, of such the King's money as came of concelement, and now delivered by th' exhortation of the said mr. Latymer, the summe of ijickxiijii. [£32] whereof they appointed presently Lli. [£50] by way of the King's reward to be given to the said mr Latymer in respect of his attendance at court this Lent, and the rest to be used for payments in his charge." Privy-council Register, M.S. Addit. Brit. Mss. 14,044: [61. to]. See Lit. Rem. of Ed. VI. & exxviii. Latimer—for his defence of the Government—is likened to Dr. Ralph Shaw, who on 22 June, 1483, at Paul's Cross, preached that Edward IV's sons were bastards, $145.

(Friday) The fifth sermon. 'The unjust Judge.'

(Sunday) Rev. James Curthop, Dean of Peterborough, preaches before the King: "The lawfulness of Kings. (Sunday) Name of preacher on this day not known (Friday) The fifth sermon. 'The miraculous draught of Fishes.'

(Sunday) Rev. Richard Coxe, D.D., the Kings' almoner, preaches before the King.

31. Apr. 5. 7. 12.

(Sunday) Rev. Richard Coxe, D.D., the Kings' almoner, reaches before the King.
(Good Friday) The seventh sermon. 'The Agony in the 14. 10.

"And here I would be a Suter vnto your Maiestie, for I come now to take my leaue, and to take my vitimum vale, at least wise in this place, for I have not long to live, so that I thinke I shall never come here into this place againe, and therefore I will aske a petition of your highnes. For the love of God take an order for marriages here in England." Last sermon before Ed. VI. Ed. 1571, $ 106.

Thomas Lever preaches before the King.

Latimer named a commissioner on the Ecclesiastical Law. 1550. Lent. 1551.

Seben Sermons before Edward UK.

INTRODUCTION.

N a time of feething change, of not a little uncertainty, and of exciting conflict in religious and focial life; the Great Preacher of England once more comes forth to preach. Not on this occasion chiefly to citizens, as in the four fermons upon God's feed and God's ploughers, to the Londoners in the 'Shrouds at paules churche' two months ago; but now, he stands in the presence of the young King, of the Lord Protector and the Council, of the Court, and—in so far as any spontaneous affembly could represent it—of the Nation at large.

From the 1st July, 1539, when Latimer laid down his bishophood rather than accept 'The Act of the Six Articles,' until the accession of Edward VI.,—nearly eight years—he, John Stow tells us, had been 'commanded to silence.' He had signalized his resumption of the office of a preacher, with a sermon at Paul's Cross on 1st January, 1548; and Augustine Bernher, his Swiss servant, tessises 'he continued all Kyng Edwardes tyme, preaching for the most part euery Sonday two Sermons.' So that his same increased yet more and more, and the knowledge that he was about to preach attracted a large audience.

This was the third time he had preached Lenten fermons before his Sovereign. In 1534, fifteen years previous, he had preached every Wednesday in Lent before Henry VIII. But a year ago, John Stow tells us,—

The 7 of March, being Wednesday, was a pulpit set vp in the King's privile garden at Westminster, and therein doctor Latimer preached before the King, where he mought be heard of more then soure times so manie people as could have stood in the King's chappell: and this was the first sermon preached there. And now once more he is summoned to like duty, unexpectedly and upon short notice.

The time apparently is in the forenoon. He comes from Lambeth Palace, sometimes on horseback, or—when he has a purpose to serve—in a wherry down the river. Here is his own picture of himself:-

'I... whyche am thoroughe age, boethe weake in body and obliuious, vnapte I am, not only because of paynful study, but also for the short warning,' p 26.

He pictures his audience in thus reproving them:—
'He [Chryfoftom] meanes they hard hym [Christ] quietelye with out any shoulynge of seete, or walkynge vp and downe. Sueily it is an yl mysorder, that solke shalbe walkyng vp and downe in the sermon tyme (as I haue sene in this place thys Lente) and there shalbe suche bussyinge and bussyinge in the preachers eare, that it, maketh hym often tymes to forget hys matter. O let vs consider the Kynges Maiestyes goodnes, Thys place was prepared for banketynge of the bodye, and hys Maiestye hath made it a place for the comforte of the soule, and to haue the worde of God preached in it, shewynge hereby that he would haue all hys subjectes at it, if it myghte be possible. Consider what the Kynges Maiestye hathe done for you, he alloweth you all to heare wyth him. Consider where ye be, syrst ye oughte to haue a reuerence to Godds word and thoughe it be preached by pore men, yet it is the same worde that oure Sauioure spake. Consider also the presence of the Kynges Maiestie Gods highe wycare in earth, hauyng a respect to his personag, ye ought to haue reuerence to it, and consider that he is goddes hyghe minister, and yet alloweth you all to be partakers with him of ye heryng of gods word. This benefit of his would be thankefully taken, and it would be highly estemed. Heare in silence, as Chrisostom sayeth. It maye chaunce that sume in the companye may sall sicke, or be diseased, if therebe any suche, let them go away with silence, let them leaue their salutacions tyll they come in the courte, let them departe with silence. I toke occasion of Chrisostomes wordes to admonyshe you of thys thynge.' p 169. From which it would seem that the assembly met within doors, in a banqueting room of the Palace.

Preaching extempore, with hardly any specific preparation (the subject of the fifth sermon was determined upon, while riding from one Palace to the other), one guiding duty directed his thoughts, viz., to adapt his subject to his audience.

'If he [a preacher] preache before a kyng, let hys matter be concernynge the offyce of a kinge.' p 25.

'I comminge ridinge in my way, and calling to remembraunce wherfore I was fent, that I must preach, and preach afore ye kyngs maiesti I thought it mete to frame my preching according to a king.' p 133.

But he remembers others as well; and following his praifeworthy habit of fummarizing at the beginning of each fermon the teaching of the previous one, we have in his own opening words of the Seventh, the defign and purpose worked out by him in this Lenten series.

Al thynges vat be written, thei be written to be our doctrine. By occasion of thys texte (most honorable audience) I have walked-thys Lente in the brode filde of scripture and vsed my libertie, and intreated of fuch matters as I thought, mete for thys auditory. I have had a do wyth many estates, even with the highest of all, I have entreated of the dutye of Kynges, of the dutye of maiestrates, and Iudges, of the dutye of prelates, allowing that yat is good and disalowing the contrary. I have taught that we ar all fynners, I thinke there is none of vs al, neither precher, nor hearer but we maye be amended, and redreffe oure lyues. We maye all faye, yea all the packe of vs, peccauimus cum patribus nostris. We have offended and synned with our forefathers. In multis offendimus omnes. There is none of vs al, but we have in fondry thinges greuously offended almyghtie God. I here intreated of many fautes and rebuked manye kyndes of fynnes. I intende to daye by Goddes grace, to thew you the remedy of fynne. We be in the place of repentaunce, nowe is the tyme to cal for mercy, whyles we be in this worlde. We be all fynners, euen the best of vs all. Therefore it is good to here the remedy of fynne. This day is commonlye called good Fryday, although eueri day ought to be with vs good fryday, Yet this day we ar accustomed specially to haue a commemoration and remembraunce of the passion of our fauiour Iesu Chrift This daye we have in memory hys bytter Passion and death, which is the remedy of our syn. Therefore I intende to intreat of a pece of the story of hys passion. I am not able to intreate of all. That I may do that the better, and that it maye bee to the honour of God and edification of youre foules and myne both, I shal defyre you to praye etc.'

This, then, is what he had to fay. How he faid it must be seen in the discursive discourses themselves.

The fermons of Latimer, T. Lever, and others, preached in king Edward's reign are endued with interest, partly as revealing the reforming spirit of the Resormers, their honesty, courage, and desence of the poor; and partly showing us how the Protestants thought and purposed in the new sunshine of savour that gleamed for a while over them and their works. We must forget all we know since the date of these sermons; and anticipate, as Latimer anticipated, a long life to the King, and the progressive but uninterrupted establishment of the Protestant saith in the land.

The manhood of the champions on both fides of religious belief is most striking. Men staked their lives upon the truth of their credence, yet equally were they ready to exact the lives of others for what they considered to be heresies of faith. So Anabaptists intrepidly dying, only for their belief, extort from Latimer but a cold admiration. Such frightful mistakes have good men committed, thinking they were 'doing God service.'

Of the body of Latiner's fermons; the Eight before the King conflitute, as it were, the official portion, dealing with national affairs. The Seven on The Lord's Prayer, and those preached 'in Lincolnshire',' deal more with devotional exposition and the personal religious life of man.

Besides a number of autographical reminiscences of the Preacher, these fermons contain most important data towards the history of England at this juncture. They must be read in constant remembrance of the great Attainder for High Treason just concluding as they began, and which refulted in the beheading on Tower Hill—on the Wednesday morning between the Third and Fourth fermons—of the king's uncle, the Lord Admiral, Lord Seymour of Sudely—brother to the Lord Protector, the Duke of Somerfet. Hence the otherwife hardly necessary episode at the beginning of the fecond fermon. Latimer there narrates the revolt and death of Adonijah, to an audience who could not but apply the startling parallel to the great prisoner in the Further on in these fermons he gives us hints and details as to the death and character of this man: fome of which were omitted in subsequent editions.

These fermons for the times also bear witness of the times. Sir Thomas More, in his Utopia, forty years previously, had complained of the 'great dearth of victualles' in England. Everything had since become, and was becoming, dearer. These economic changes, everything being of more value—now accepted as a test of growing prosperity—were looked upon at the time as an unmitigated evil. So that from facts narrated in such bewailings, we now can approximately measure the growth of wealth in England, subsequent to the wars of the Roses.

But the Preacher has not simply to do with earthly things. Hisfermons are interpenetrated with Scripture; his whole thought is Biblical. To Thomas Some and others he was more than a preacher, he was to them a prophet like unto Elijah.

'Whome God hath appoynted a prophet, vnto our most noble Kyng, and vnto our Realme of England, to declare the message of the lyuynge God, to supplante and rote out al sinnes and vice, to plante and grafte in mens hartes the plenteousnes of al spiritual bliffynges in Iefus Chryft our Lorde?" p 19.

These 'playn Pasquyls . . . . that kepeth nothing back,' these unsparing denunciations of wrong-doing and good-omission, these merry or shocking tales, this homely but abundant eloquence: these, all these, were not all Latimer. He had a vivid, though it may be a rough grasp of the unseen, of the spiritual. He equals Luther in his conception of the Evil one; and 'the Contemplation of Hell,' the ugsome and horrible 'Image of death,' the noble Duchess Faith,' and her attendants, are all most striking realizations.

Truly Latimer did what he could with all his might; and a lasting same is but due to his consistent life, his noble deeds, his martyr's death.

Finally, the Preacher takes leave of King, Court, and People in words of mingled hope and warning: words worthy of him, and as true now as when, with their last found, closed 'the famous Friday fermons of Lent,' 1549.

'Loke where remission of sin is, ther is acknowledging of sin also. Fayth is a noble duches, she hath euer her gentleman vsher going before her, the consessing of sinnes, she hath a trayne after her, the frutes of good workes, the walking in the commaundementes of good. He yat beleueth, wyll no[t] be idle, he wyl walke, he wil do his busines, haue euer the gentleman vsher with you. So if ye wil trye fayth, remember this rule, consider whether the trayne be waytinge vpon her. Yf you haue another fayth then thys, a whoremonkers sayth, you are lyke to go [to] ye Scalding house, and ther you shal haue two dishes, wepynge and gnashinge of teeth, muche good do it you, you se your sare. If ye wil beleue and acknowledge your synnes, you shall come to ye blessed communion of the bitter passion of Christ, worthily, and so attayne to euerlastynge lyse, to the whiche the father of heauen bringe you and me. Amen.'

BIBLIOGRAPHY.

Seven Sermons before Edward VL

• Editions not seen.

(a) Essues in the Author's lifetime.

I. As a separate publication.

1. 2549 London. 2 vols, 12mo.

١.

As a separate publication.

Editiones principes. These sermons were originally printed in two separate small volumes. The first sermon alone, of which see the title on the opposite page and the Imprint at p 44; and the other six sermons together, with a somewhat misleading title, as at p 45; the address to his second volume being dated 21 June [1549], p 54. Whether these two works were separately published I do not know. It is possible that the first may have been issued in advance; as an instalment towards satisfying the readers' patience. In all subsequent editions in 4to, the seven sermons are treated as one series.

(b) Essues since the Author's Death. I. As a separate publication.

5. 2Feb. 2869. London. English Repri 2 vol. 8vo. II. With other works.

English Reprints: see title at page z.

2. *1562. London.

27 Sermons preached by . . . . Maister Hugh Latimer. 1 Hys sermon Ad Clerum. 2 Hys fourth sermon on the Plough. 3 Hys 7 sermons before Kyng Edward. Ames Typ. Amt. iv. 94. Ed. 1819.

Fryteful Sermons preached by the Right reuerend father, and constant Martyr of Iesus Christ. M. Hugh Latymer &c. Printed by JOHN

3. 2571. London. vol. 4to.

4. 1575. London

Christ. M. 110ga — DAY.

The edition of 1571; with a fresh title-page dated 1575, and a new imprint dated 1571.

The same title as No. 3. Printed by JOHN

1 vol. 4to. London. 5. 1578. I voi. 4to. London.

DAY.
The same title as No. 3. Printed by John 2584. I vol. 4to. Longon. 7. 1596.

The same title as No. 3. Printed by John Day.
The same title as No. 3. Reprinted by Valentine Sims.

I voi. 4to. London. 8. 1635.

I vol. 4to. London. 9. 1758. 10. z788.

tine Sims.

The same title as No. 3. Printed by Thomas Coates for the Companie of STATIONERS.

The Sermons of . . . Maister Hugh Latimer.
The present seven sermons are in vol. i.

Sermons on various subjects by Hugh Latimer.

2 vols. 8vo. London. 2 vols. 8vo. London. 19. zfi24. vols. 8vo.

13, 1830. London. z vol. 8vo.  Sermons on various subjects by Hugh Latimer. The Present sermons are in vol. i.

The Sermons . . . of Hugh Latimer &c Ed. by JOHN WATKINS LL.D. The present sermons are in vol. i.

British Reformers. Select sermons and Letters of Dr. Hugh Latimer. Includes the seventh of the present sermons only.

Parker Society. The works of Hugh Latimer &c. Ed. by G. E. Corrie, B.D. The present sermons are in vol. i.

14. 1845. Cambridge. 2 vols. 8vo.

Abridgments, Extracts, &c.

11. 1808. London.

The Fathers of the English Church. Ed. by Rev. LEGH RICHMOND. The seventh sermin is in vol. ii. 419-445, and Extracts from second and fourth at # 550-655.

A The fyrste

Sermon of May=

ster Hughe Latimer, whis the he preached before the Kynges Maiest.

> wythin his graces palayce at Westmynster M.

D. FLH. the bill. of Marche.

(,,)

Cum gratia et Priuilegio ad imprimendum folum.

To the ryghte ver-

tuous and gracious Lady Katheryn Douchesse of Suffolk, Thomas Some, her humble and faith ful Oratour, wysheth Godly fauour and euerlafling faluation from God the father through Iefus Christ our mercyfull Lorde.

Han man is borne for man, that one to another should be a God, and not a deuyl, an helper, no hynderer, vnto whom also ye vie of the tonge is only geuen, wherby they do both expresse and shewe the affections of their mindes, there is no man which can fay,

I have no nede of any man.

But amonges infinite mischiefes and euvls of mans pouertie and anguysh, by which he hath nede of other mens helpe, is the instruction of prudence or vertue and of science. For mankynde in this do pre[ex]cel chiefli brute beaftes because thei helpe one another by mutual communication.

In learnying good and vertuous maners, the vse of commonyng is required chiefly, that men erryng and ignoraunte should be taught, for there is none which shall euer lerne of hym selfe, all thoughe he be neuer fo happily borne.

Therfore, it shal become euery man, which do intende to lyue godly, to here and learne godly bookes, to prynte heauenly documentes in their hertes. For as euyll doctrine, deuilysh bokes, and sylthye talke do corrupt good maners, fo faithful preceptes, godly bokes, chast commonynge and honest shal edifie, and confirme.

Wherfore, intending to do good vnto al men and namely vnto such, as erre and be ignorant, I haue gathered, writ, and brought into lyght the samous sryday sermons of Mayster Hugh Latimer, which he preached in Lente last past, before oure most noble King Edward the syxt, at the new Palaice of Westminster, the third yeare of hys reigne. Whiche Sermons (most vertuous Lady) I dedicate vnto your honorable grace, nothyng doubtyng but yat you wyl gladly imbrace them, not onlye because of their excellencie, but chiefly for the profyte whych shall ensue thorough them vnto the ignorante.

For in them are frutefull and godlye documentes, directing ordinatly not only the steps, conuersacyon, and lyuing of kynges: but also of other mynisters and subjectes vinder him. And let no man be greued though it be not so exactlye done as he did speake it, for in very dede I am not able so to do, to write word for word as he dyd speake, yat passeth my capacyte thoughe I had. xx. mens wittes, and no sewer handes to wryte with all. As it is vinpossyble that a litel ryuer should receive ye recourse of ye mayne sea with in his brymmes, so yat no water should ouer whelme the sides theros. In lyke manner is it more vinlyke my symple witte to comprehende absolutly the abundante eloquence and learning which sloweth most abundantly out of godly Latymers mouth.

Notwithstandyng, yet had I rather with shamefastnes declare charitably thys parte of his godly documentes, and counsel, then with slowthfulnes forget or kepe close folishly, that thyng which may profete many.

Who is that wyl not be glad to heare and beleue the doctryne of godly Latymer? Whome God hath appoynted a prophet, vnto our most noble Kyng, and vnto our Realme of England, to declare the message of the lyuynge God, to supplante and rote out al sinnes and vice, to plante and graffe in mens hartes the plenteousnes of al spiritual bliffynges in Iesus Chryst our Lorde?

Moses, Ieremyas, Helias, did neuer declare ye true message of god vnto their rulers and people, wyth a more fyncere spirite, faythful mynde and godly zeale, then godlye Latymer doth now in oure daies vnto our most noble Kyng and vnto the whole realme. iiij. Kyng xxij thermore, also Iosia receyued neuer the boke of gods wyl at the handes of Helkia the hye preft. or ye admonicion of Hulda ye prophetesse, with a more perfect and godly feare, then our most noble King dothe most faithfully, geue credyte vnto the wordes of good father Latimer. And I have no doubt but al godly men wil lykewife receive gladly his godly Sermons and geue credit vnto the fame. Therfore this my rude laboure of another mans fwet (most vertuous lady) I offer most humbli vnto iour grace, mouid there vnto of godli zeale, thorough the godly fame, that is disperst vnyuerfally of your most godly disposicion, and vnfayned loue towards the lyuynge, almyghte, eternall God and hys holye word, practyfed dayly both in your graces most vertuous behauour, and also godly charitie towards the edification of euery membre graffed in Chryste Iesu, most humbly desiring your grace to accept fauorably thys my temerous interprise. your most humble and faythful Oratour shall praye vnto Iehouah, the God which is of him felf, by whom, and in whome, all thyngs lyue, moue, and be, that, that good worke whych he hath begonne in you he may performe it vnto your last endynge, thorough our Lorde

Iefu Chryst, who preserue and kepe your grace now and euer. So be it.

The argument of the Sermon.

N this fryst Sermon is declared, and taught the godlye election of a Kyng, and a rule of godly lyuynge as touchynge hys owne person. Where he proueth oure moost excellent King Edward, to be our most lawful king both by natiuitie, and contry, yea, and now appoynted in these our dayes to delyuer vs from the daunger and captiuitie of Egypt and wicked Pharao, that is from, errour and ignorance and the deuelishe antichrist the Pope of Rome. The forme of his godly rule also he deuyded here in this fermon in thre partes. he shuld not truste to muche vnto his owne strength and policy, but only to walke ordinatly with God and to make him his lodes man and chief guyde. Secondarily that he lyue not lassyuyously and wantonly, folowyng venerial affections, but to lyue chaftly. And whan time shal require, to leade a pure lyfe, vnder the yoke of matrimonye, admonishing both his grace, and al other Maiestrates to be circumspecte in chosvnge a wyfe, eyther for them felues or for theyr children. having this alwaies in minde, that she be, of a faythfull house, godlye broght vp, and of a pure life. Thirdly he admonyshed the kynges grace, that he should not desvre gold and fyluer to muche, prouynge by many argumentes that kynd of vice wyth the other forfaid, to be destruction not only vnto the kynges grace: but also vnto the whole realme and people. In these thinges confystith the whole summe of this fermon.

[The equivalent passages in the authorized English version, of the Latin quotations of Scripture, are given in the sootnotes.]

Of M. Latimer.

Væcunque scripta sunt: ad nostram doctrinam scripta funt.* What soeuer thynges are written a Rom. xv. a. fore tyme, are wrytten for our learnynge, that we through pacience and comforte of scripturs, might haue In takynge thys parte of hope. scripture (most nobill audience) I playe as a trowant, which when he is at schole, wyl chose a lesson, wherin he is perfight, because he is loth to take payne in studienge a newe leasson, or elles feareth strypes for his flothfulnes. In lyke maner, I might feme now in my olde age to fum men, to take this parte of scripture, because I woulde wade easilye awaye there wyth, and dryue my matter at my pleafure and not to be bounde vnto a certayne theame. ye shall consyder, yat the forsayd words of Paul speketh Paul are not to be vnderstande of all of gods wor-

god, written in goddes boke, and all thynges whiche are therein, are wrytten for our learnynge, The ex[c]ellencye of thys worde is so greate, and of hye dignitie, that there is no earthly thynge to be compared vnto it The authour therof is great that is God Gen. i. a. and fcriptures, but only of those, which are of vnto hys holy worde in directynge their xvij. a. Deut. iiij. a. Isa. xxvi. a. Prou. viij. c. Daniel vij. c.

him selse, eternal, almightie, euerlastynge. The scripture because of hym, is also greate, eternal, moste mightie, and holy. Ther is no kyng, Emperour, maiestrate, and ruler, of what state so euer they be, but are bounde to obey this God, and to geue credence

A! men ought to obay god, to beleue hys word, and to fo-steppes ordinative according vnto the fame word, yea truly they are not only bound to obey

* Whatsoever things vere witten comfort of the scriptures might have aforetime were written for our learn-hope.—Rom. zv. 4. ing, that we through patience and gods boke, but also the minister of the same, for the wordes sake, so fer as he speaketh syttynge in moses chayre, that is, if hys doctryne be taken out of Moyses lawe. For in thys world this world with God hath, ii. swerdes the one is a temporal swerdes. swerde the other a spiritual, The temporal swerdes treates, and rulers vnder hym, where vnto al ral swerde. subjectes, as wel the Cleargy as the laite be subject, and punisheable, for anye offence contarye to the same boke.

The spiritual swerde is in the handes The spiritual of the ministers and preachers, wher vnto all swerde. Kynges, Maiestrates, Rulers oug[h]te to be obediente, that is, to here, and solowe, so longe as the ministers syt in Christes chayre, that is speakynge Math. xxiii. out of Christes boke.

The kynge correctyth transgressours wyth the temporall swerd ye and the preacher also yf he be an offender, But the preacher can not correct the Kynge if he be a transgressor of goddes word, wyth the temporal swerde But he muste correcte and reproue him wyth the spyrytuall swerde, fearynge no man, settinge God only before hys eyes, vnder whom he his a minister to supplante and roote vp all vice and myschyese by Goddes worde, where vnto all menne oughte to bee obedyente, as is mencyoned in many places of scripture, and amonges many thys is one.

Math. xxiii. a.

What so euer they byd you observe, that i. Timo. iij. a. observe and doo Therefore let ye preacher ii. Petr. i. a. teach, improue, amende, an[d] instructe in rightwesnes, wyth the spyrytuall swearde, fearynge no man though death shoulde insue Thus Moyses fearynge no man wyth thys swerde, dyd reproue Kyng Exod. v. vi. Pharao, at Goddes commandement.

Micheas the prophet also dyd not spare to blame King Achab for hys wyckednes, accordinge iij. Reg. xxij.

• All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do.—Matt. xxiii. 3.

to goddes wil and to prophefye of his destruction contrary vnto manye false prophetes.* These forsayde kynges beinge admonished by the ministers of gods worde, because they woulde not follow their godly doctryne and correcte their lyues, came vnto vtter destruction. Pharao geuynge no credit Kyng Pharo punyshed. vnto Moyfes the prophet of God, but applyant vnto the lustes of his owne herte, what tyme he hard of the passage of Goddes people, hauving no feare or remembraunce of gods worke, he did profecute after entendyng to destroye them and was drowned in ye red sea. Acab. iij. Reg. xxi. Acab also because he wold not herken vnto Micheas was kilde with an arrowe. Likewise also the house of Iereboam with other many, came vnto destruction, because he woulde not heare the ministers of Goddes worde, and correcte hys lyfe according vnto his wyl, and pleafure. Let the preacher therefore neuer feare to declare The preacher must haue the message of God vnto all men. And if God before the king wyll not heare them then the his eyes chefly. preachers may admonyshe and charge them wyth their dewties, and so leave them vnto God and praye for them. But if the Euell preachers are to preachers digresse out of Christes chaire. be refused, and and shal speake their owne phantasyes, not to be belethen in stede of, Quacunque insferint vos facere, facite, et feruate. What so euer the[y] byd you observe that observe and do. Change it into these wordes folowynge: Cauete vero vobis a pseudo Prophetis qui veniunt ad vos etc. † Be ware of false Math. vii. g. Prophetes which come vnto you in shepes clothing, but inwardly, they are rauenyng woulffes, ye shall knowe them by their frutes: Yea, change Quacunque iufferint, (yf their doctryne be euel) into Cauete a fer-Luke. xij. a. mento phariseorum, etc. That is: Take

Ahab.—t Kings xxii-+ Beware of false prophets, which the Beware of the leaven of the Phacome to you in sheep's clothing, but risees and of the Sadducees.—Matt. inwardly they are ravening wolves .- xvi. 6.

Matt. vii. 15. Beware of the leaven of the Phahede and beware of the, leauen of the Pharifeis, and In teaching euel doctryne, all of the Saduces. preachers are to be eschewed, and in no wyse to be harkened vnto. In fpeakyng trueth: thei are to be hard. All thynges wrytten in goddes boke, are mooft certayne true, and profitable for all men. For in it, is contayned mete matter for Kynges, In gods boke Prynces, Rulers, Byshops, and for alle is matter for Wherfore, it behoueth euerye all estatis. states. preacher, fum what to appoynt and accomodate hym felfe, and hys matter a greeable vnto the comforte, and amendemente of the audience, vnto the which he declareth the message of God. If he preache before a kyng, let hys matter be concernynge the offyce of a kinge, if before a byshoppe, then lette hym treate of byshoplye dutyes and orders, and so forthe in other matters, as time and audience shal require.

I have thoughte it good, to intreate vpon these wordes solowynge whyche are wrytten in the xvii. Chapter of Deuteronomye. Cum ueneris in terram quam Dominus Deus dat tibi possedirsque eam. Deut. xvii. et ceter.* That is. When thou arte come vnto the Lande whiche the Lorde thy God geueth the, and enioyeste it, and dwelleste therin: If thou shalt say, I wil set a kynge ouer me: lyke vnto al the nacions that are aboute me: Then thou shalt make him kynge ouer the, whome the Lorde thy God shall chose.

One of thy brethren muste thou make Kynge ouer the, and mayste not set a stranger ouer the, whiche is not of thy brethren. But in any wyse, let him not holde to manye horsses, that he bringe not the people

*When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

nations that are about me;
Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the Lord thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the Lord hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away; neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.—Deut. xvii. 14—17.

agayne to Egypt, thorowe the multitude of horses, for as muche as the Lorde hath fayd vnto you: ye shall hence forth go no more agayne that waye. Also he shal not have to many wyues, leste hys herte turne awaye, neyther shall he gether hym syluer and gould As in dyuerfe other places of scripture is to much. mete matter for al estates. So in thys forsayede place is described cheyfly the doctryne syt for a kynge. who is worthye to vtter thys doctryne before oure moste noble kynge? Not I God knoweth, whyche am thoroughe age, boethe weake in body and oblinious, vnapte I am, not only because of paynful study, but also for the short warning. Well vnto God I wyll make my mone, who neuer fayled me. Auxiliator in necessitatibus.*

God is my helper in all my necessities. To hym alone wyl I make my peticion. To praye vnto sayntes departed I am not taught, to desyre like grace of god as they had (right godly it is) or to beleue God to be no lesse mercyfull vnto vs (beinge faythful) then he was vnto them, greately comfortable it is. Therfore only vnto God let vs lyste vp our hertes and say the Lordes prayer.

Thynges touched moste chiefly in the hole sermon.

um veneris, etc.† When thou art come vnto ye land which the lord. etc. Thou shalt appoint him king. etc. One of thi brethren must thou make king ouer the, and must not set a straunger ouer ye which is not of thy brethren.

ii. But in any wyfe let not fuche one prepare vnto him felfe many horfes that he bryng not. etc.

iii. Furthermore let hym not prepare vnto hym felfe manye wyues, least his herte recede frome God.

much golde, and fyluer. As the text doeth ryfe, I wyl touche and go a lyttle in euery place, vntyl I come vnto to much. I wyl touche al the forfayd thynges, but not to muche. The texte is, when thou shalt come into the land, etc.

God is mine helper.—Ps. liv. 4. † See text on previous page.

To have a kyng the Israelites dyd wyth muche importunity call vnto God, and God longe before promised theim a kynge and were full certified thereof, that God hadde promised that thynge. For vnto Abraham hesayed: Ego crescere tesaciam vehementer ponamque te in gentes, sed et reges ex te prodibunt.*

That is, I wil multipli the excedingly, and wil make nations of the, yea and kings shal spring out of the. These wordes were spoken long before the chyldren of Ifrael had any king, Notwithstandyng, yet God prefcrybid vnto them an order, howe the[y] shulde chose their kyng, and what manner a man he shoulde be, where he faith: whan thou shalt come in to the lande, etc. As who should say. O ye children of Israel I knowe your nature ryght well, whiche is euyl, and inclined vnto al euyls. I know that thou wilt chose a kyng to raygne ouer the and to apere glorious in the face of the world, after the manner of gentyles, But because thou art stiffe necked, wilde, and art geuen to walke without a brydell, and lyne. Therfore now I wyll preuente thy euyl and bestly manners I will hedge strongly thy waye, I wyll make a durable lawe, whyche shal compell the to walke ordinatlye, and in a plain way, that is thou shalt not chose the a kynge after thy wyll and fantayle but after me thy Lord and God. Thus, god condycioned wyth the Iewes, that theyr king should be fuche a one as he hym felf wold chofe them. was not much vnlyke [t]he bargayne that I A notable faherd of late shulde be betwixte two fryndes for a horse, the owner promysed the other shuld have the horse yf he wold, the other axed ye price, he fayed: xx. nobles The other wold geue hym but iiii. pound: ye owner faid he shuld not have hym then, The other claymed the horsse bycause he sayd, he

I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee;
 Gen. xvii. 6.

shoulde have hym if he wold, Thus thys bargayne became a westminster matter, the lawyers gote twyfe the valure of the horse, and when all came to all, two fooles made an ende of the matter. Howbeit, the Ifraelites coulde not go to lawe wyth God, for chofynge theyr kynge, for would they, nyl they, theyr kinge shold be of his chofynge, left they should walke inordinatly, in a deceyuable way, vnto theyr vtter loffe and destruction. For as they say commonely Qui vadit plane, vadit fane. that is. He that walketh A comon sayinge. playnly, walketh fafely. As the Iewes were flyfnecked, and were euer ready to walke inordinatelye, no lesse are we Englyshe men geuen to vntowardnes, and inordinate walkynge after oure owne fantasies and braynes. We wyll walke wythoute the limites of Goddes worde, we wyll chose a kyng at our owne pleafure.

i. Reg. xix. a. But let vs learne to frame our lyues after the noble king Dauid whych when he had manye occasions, geuen of kyng Saul to worke euyl, for euyl, yea, and hauvnge manye tymes oportunity to peri. Reg. xxiiij. a. fourme mischief and to slay king Saule. Red ye stories they be verye Neuerthelesse yet fearyng, would not followe hys fleshly affections and walke pleasaunt and profytable. inordinatelye, wythoute the wyll of Gods worde, whych he confessed alwayes to be hys direction, favinge. Lucerna pedibus meis verbum tuum et lumen femitis meis.* Thy worde, O Gods worde is oure lyght. Lorde is a Lanterne vnto my feete, and a lyght vnto my steppes. Thus hauvnge in mynde, to walke ordinatly he did alwaies auoyde to do euvll. For whan kyng Saul was in a caue without anye man. Dauid and hys men fytting by the fydes of the caue, yea and Dauids men mouyng hym to kyl Saul, Dauid made answer and sayd vuto them: Dauid dyd walke ordy Seruet me dominus, ne rem istam. etc. contra natly. dominum meum Messiam etc. † That is The Lord kepe me from doyng this thing vnto my maister yat is the lordes anointed. At another tyme also, moued by Abifay to kyl Saul sleping, Dauid said: Ne interficias eum, quis enim impune manum fuum inferret i. Reg. xxvi. b. uncto domino etc.* That is: Destroye hym not, for who can laye hys handes on the Lordes anounted and be gyltlesse. etc. I wold God we wolde solowe King Dauid, and then we shuld walke ordinatly, and yet do but yat we are bounde of dutye to do, for God fayth: Quod ego præcipiv, hoc tantum facito.

* Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psa. cxix. do this thing unto my master, the Lord's anointed.—I Sam. xxiv. 6.

That thing which I commande that only Phantastical bravns are redo. There is a greate errour risen now a daies among many of vs, which are dinative. vayne and new fangled men clymbyng beyond the lymites of our capacitye and wytte, in wrenching thys text of scrypture, hereafter following, after their owne phantafie and brayne, their erroure is vpon this text: Audi vocem populi in omnibus quæ i. Reg. viij. dicunt tibi, non enim te reprobant sed me reprobarunt ne regnem super eos. t

That is: Heare the voyce of the people in all that they fay vnto the, for they have not caste the a way but me. Thei wrench these wordes a wrye after their owne fantasies, and make much doubte as touchynge a kynge, and hys Godlye name. They that fo do walketh inordinatly, they walk not directely and playnly, but delite in balkes, and stubble way.

It maketh no matter by what name the God calleth rulers be named, if so be they shall walke by dyuerse ordinately with god, and derect their steps names. with god. For both patriarkes Iudges, and kynges, had, and haue their authorytie of God, and therfore Godli. But this ought to be confidered which God saieth. Non præficere tibi potest hominem alienum. Thou must not set a straunger ouer the.

• Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LOKD's anointed, and be guiltless?-

# Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee; for they have not rejected thee, but 1 Sam. xxvi. 9.

+ What thing soever I command you, observe to do it.—Deut. xii. 32.

§ Deut. xvii. 15; see text at p. 25.

It hath pleased God to graunt vs a Kyng Edwa. ye vi. is our nanaturall liege kynge and Lorde, of oure turall kynge owne nation an Englysh man, one of our and a most precious treasure. owne religion. God hath geuen hym vnto vs, and is a mooste precious treasure, and yet mani of vs do defyre a straunger to be kynge ouer Let vs no more defyre to be bankers, but lett vs endeuoure to walke ordinately and plainely, after the word of God Let vs folow Daniel, let vs not feke the death of oure moste noble and ryghtfull Kynge, oure owne brother, boeth by natyuyty, and Let vs praye for hys lyfe. Godly relygion. Let vs pray for hys good state, that he may lyue long among vs.

Oh what a plage were it, that a straunge kinge of a straunge land, and of a straung religion should raygne A stranger ouer vs. Where nowe we be gouerned in wold rote out the true relygion, he should extirpe and al godlynes and plante aplucke away all to gether, and then plante gayn al hypoagayn all abomynacyon, and popery, GOD kepe fuche a kynge from vs. Well the kynges grace hath fysters, my Ladye Mary, and my Lady Elizabeth, whych by fuccession and course are inheritours to the crowne. Who yf they shulde mary with straungers, what should ensue GOD knoweth. But god graunt they neuer come vnto courfyng nor fuccedynge. fore to auoyd thys plage, let vs amende oure lyues and put awaye all pryde, whyche dothe drowne meh in thys realme at these dayes, all couetousnes where in the magistrates and ryche men of thys realme are ouerwhelmed, all lechery and other excessyue vyces, prouokynge gods wrath, were he not mercyful, euen to take from vs oure naturall kynge and leyge Lorde, yea, and to plage vs wyth a straunge kynge for oure vnrepentaunte herte. Wherfore (yf as They that loue God or ye faye) ye loue the kynge, amende your the kyng wyl lyues, and then ye shalbe a meane that amende theyr GOD shall lende hym vs longe to raygne ouer vs., for vndowtedlye fynnes prouoke muche goddes wrath scripture saith: Dabo tibi regem in furore meo, * I gave thee a king in mine anger.-Hos. xiii. 11.

That is: I will geue a kinge in my wrathe. Now we haue a lawfull kyng, a godly kynge, neuertheles vet many eugls do raygne. Longe tyme the mynisters appoynted, hath studied to amende, and redres al euyles, long time before thys greate laboure hathe bene about this matter, great crakes hath bene made that al shoulde be well. But when all came to all for theyr boftes, lyttle or nothynge was done, in whome these words of Horace mai wel be veri- Horacius fied favinge. Parturiunt montes, nascitur ridiculus The mountaines swelleth vp, the pore mouse is brought out, long before thys tyme, many hath taken in hande to brynge manye thynges vnto paste, but finally theyr worckes came vnto fmall effect and pro-Now I here fay all thinges are ended after a Godly maner, or els shortelye shall be. Make hast, make haft, and let vs learne to converte, to repente. and amende our lyues. If we do not, I feare, I feare, lest for our fynnes and vnthankefulnes, an Hipocrit fhal raigne ouer vs. ! Long we have bene The pope feruantes and in bondage, feruyng the hath longe pope in Egypte. God hath geuen vs a raigned. deliuerer, a natural kynge. Let vs feke no stranger of another nacion, no hypocrite whiche shall brynge in agayne al papistrie, hipo- sente vs a decricie, and Idolatrye. No diabolicall lyuerer. minister whyche shall mayntayne all deuelishe worckes But let vs pray Let vs no and euvll exercifes. that God mayntayne and continue oure more seke to serue a straummost excellente kynge here presente, ger. inheritoure of thys our realme, true natyuytye, and also by the special gift and Let vs pray ordinaunce of God. He doth vs rectify for our king. in the libertie of the gospel, in that therefore let vs fland. State ergo in libertate, qua Chri/lus Gala, v. a. nos liberauit.* Stande ye in the libertye, wherwyth Chryste hath made vs free. In Chrystes lybertye, we shall stande. If we so lyue that we profyte. we cast away all euyl, fraude, and deceyte, with such other vices, contrary to Gods word. And in fo doing we shal not onely prolonge and mayntayne our most noble kynges dayes in prosperitie: but also we shal prosper our owne lyues, to lyue not onelye prosperoufly, but also godly.

* Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free.

—Gal. v. 1.

In any wyfe, let no fuche a wone pre-The seconde pare vnto him felf manye horsfes. etc. In parte of hys sermon. fpeakynge these wordes, ye shal vnderstand, that I do not entend to speake agaynste the strengthe, polyfye, and prouision of a kyng, but agaynst excesse, and vayne truste that kynges have in them felues, more then in the liuing god the authour of al goodnes, and geuer of all victory. Many horses are requifite for a king, but he maye not excede in them, nor triumphe in them, more then is nedeful, for the necessary affayres and defence of the realme: what meaneth it, that god hath to do wyth the kynges stable? But only he would be mayster of hys horsses. the Scripture fayeth, In altis habitat. He dwelleth on hye, it foloweth. Humilia respicit.* He Psal. cxii. loketh on lowe thynges, yea, vpon the God is grand mayster in ye Kynges stables, and vpon al the offyces in kynges house hys house. God is great grand mayster of the Kynges house, and wil take accoumpt of every one that beareth rule therin, for the executing of their offices, Whether they have justly and truely ferued the kyng in their offices or no. Yea god loketh vpon the kynge hym felfe, if he worketh well or not. Euery kyng is fubiecte vnto God, and all other men are subjectes vnto ye In a king god requireth faith, not exces of Horsfes for a kynge be good and necessarye, if thei be wel vsed. But horses are not to be preferred aboue pore men. I was ones offended with the kynges horses, and therfore toke occasion to speake in the presens of the kynges maiestye that dead is, whan Abbeis stode. Abbeis were ordeyned for the comforte of the pore, Wherfore I fayde it was not decent that the kings horses shuld be kept in them (as manye were at that tyme) the lyuynge of poore men therby minished and taken a way: But after ward a certayne noble man fayd to me, what hast thou to do with ye kinges horsses? I answered, and sayd, I speake my conscience as goddes word directeth me. He faid horses be ye mayntenaunces and parte of a kynges honoure, and also of hys realme, wherefore in speakyng againste them ye are against the kynges honoure. I answered. God teacheth what honoure is decente for the kynge and for al other Ananswer demen accordynge vnto their vocations. God clarynge the true honoure apoynteth euery king a fufficient lyuinge of a kynge. for hys state and degre boeth by landes and other customes. And it is lawfull for every kyng to enjoye the same goodes and possessivons. But to extorte and take awaye the ryghte of the poore, is agaynste the honoure of the kinge. And you do moue the kinge to do after that manner, then you speake agaynste the honoure of the kynge. For I ful certifye He describeth you, extorcioners, violent opressers, in ye dyshonors of a kynge groffers of tenamentes landes, playnely and and villages most truelye. throughe whose couetouines. decaye and fall downe, the kinges leige people for lacke of fustinaunce are famished and decayed. They be those whyche speke a gainst the honour of the kynge. God requireth in the king and al magistrates a good herte, to walke directlye in hys god requireth And in all fubiectes, an obedi- a good herte. waves. ence dewe vnto a kynge. Therefore I pray god both the king and also we his people maye endeuer diligen[t]ly to walke in his wayes, to hys greate honoure and our profite. Let hym not prepare The iii. parte Al of his sermon vnto him felfe to many wyues. etc. thoughe we reade heare that the kinges amongest the Iewes, had libertye to take more wyues then one, we maye not therfore atempte to walke in ordinatly

* Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly.—Psa. exxxviii. 6.

Digitized by Google

and to thinke that we may take also many Kinges of the Lewes had a wiues. dispensacion to haue mo For Christe hath for byden thys vnto wyues then vs Christians. And lette vs not impute fynne vnto the Iewes because they hadde many For they hadde a dispensation so to do. Christe limiteth on wyfe vnto vs only And it is a greate thynge for a man to rule one wyfe ryghtly, and ordinatly. For a woman is frayll and procline vnto all euels, a woman is a very weake veffel, and maye fone deceyue a man, and brynge hym vnto euell. Many examples we have in holy scripture. Adam had but one wyfe, called Eue, and howe fone had On[e] wyfe is fhe brought hym to confent vnto euell, hard to be wel ruled. and to come to destruction, How dyd wycked Iefabell preuente kynge Hachabs herte from god and al godlines, and finally vnto destruction. It is a very hard thynge for a man to rule wel one woman.\ Therfore let oure kynge, what A godly wotyme hys grace shalbe so mynded to take man is to be a wyfe to chofe hym one whych is of god, that is, whyche is of the housholde of fayth. all estates be no lesse circumspect in chosynge her, takynge great deliberation, and then shal not need dyuorsementes, and such myscheues to the euel example and sclaunder of our realm, And that she be one as the kyng can fynd in hys hert to loue Loue whych and leade hys life in pure and chafte is godly is to be preferred esposage, and then shall he be the more aboue al erthprone and redy to advance gods glorye, lye thinges in maryage. punishe, and extirpe, the great lecherye vsed in this realme. Therefore we ought to make a continual prayer vnto god, for to graunt oure kynges grace fuche a mate as maye knyt hys hert and heres, according to goddes ordinaunce and lawe, and not to confider and cleaue onely to a politike matter or coniunction, for the enlargynge of dominions, for fuertye and defence of contres, fettyng apart the institution and ordinaunce of God. We have nowe a prety litle shilling, in dede a very pretye one. I haue but one I think in my pursse, and the laste daye Notable say-I had put it awaye almoste for an olde ing. grote, and so I truste some wyll take them. The But therin is fynes of the filuer I can not fe. prynted a fyne fentence: that is. Timor Domini fons vitæ vel fapientiæ.* The feare of Prouer. xvi. the Lorde is the fountayne of lyfe or Wysdome. wolde god this fentence were alwaies printed in the herte of the kyng in chosynge hys The well of wyfe, and in al hys officers. For lyke as life or wisdom. the feare of God is fons fapientiæ or vitæ, so the forgetting of god is fons stulticiæ the fontayne of folishnes or of death, althoughe it be Polisi if it be neuer fo politike, for vpon fuch politike matters death doth enfue and followe. All death. their deuorcementes and other lyke condiciones to the greate displeasure of all myghtye God, whiche euvlles I feare me, is much vsed at these daies in the mariage of noble mens children, for io[i]ning landes to landes, possessions, to possessions, neither the vertuous educacion, nor liuinge being regarded, but in the infancy fuch mariages be made, to the displeasuer of god and breach of espousals. Let the king therfor chose vnto him a godly wyfe, wherby he shal the better liue chast, and in so liuyng all godlines shal encrease and ryghtewesnes be maynteyned. Notwithstandyng, I knowe here after, some wyll come and moue your grace towardes wantonnes and to the inclinacyon of the fleshe and vayne affections. would your grace should beare in memorye, an hystorye of a good king called storye of a frensh kyng. Lewes, that trauelled towardes the holye lande (whiche was a greate matter in those dayes) and by the wave fyckyned, beynge longe absente from hys wyfe. And vpon thys matter the phisitians dyd agre, yat it was for lacke of a counsell of woman. And dyd confulte with the Byshops.

The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life. - Prov. xiv. 27.

bishops therein, who dyd conclude that because of the distance of hys wyse (beyng in an other contrye) he should take a wenche. Thys good kyng hering their conclusion would not affent there vnto, but sayde, he had rather be sycke euen vnto death then he wold breake his espousals. Wo worth such consellers, bishops, nay rather bussardes. Neuertheles if the king shoulde haue consented to their conclusion, and accomplished the same, yf he had not chansed well, they wolde haue executed the matter as I haue harde of two yat haue consulted together, and according to the aduyse of his friend the one of them wroght where the succession was not good.

The other imputed a pele of reproche to hym for hys fuch counfell geuen. He excused the matter sayeinge: that he gaue hym none other counsel, but if it had byne hys cause he woulde have done likewise. So I thinke the bishops wolde have excused the matter, yf the king should have reproved them for their counsell. I do not rede that the King did rebuke them for their councel, but yf he had, I knowe what woulde haue ben their aunswere. They would have fayde, we geue you no worsse councel, then we wolde haue followed oure felues, yf we had ben in like cafe. Wel fir, thys Kyng dyd wel, and had the feare of god before The kynge hys eyes. He wold not walke in byfearynge god walkes, where are many balkes. Amongest many balkinges, is much stumbling and by stombling it chaunceth many tymes to fal downe to the ground. And therfore, let vs not take any biwalkes, but let gods word directe vs, let vs not walke after, nor leane to our owne iudgementes and procedynges of oure forfathers, nor feke not what they dyd, but what th[e]y shoulde have done, of which thyng scrypture admonysheth vs saying: Ne inclinemus præceptis et traditionibus patrum neque faciamus quod videtur rectum in oculis nostris.*

• Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers.—Ezek. xx. 18.
Ye shall not do after all the things

The statutes of that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

—Deut. xii. 8.

Let vs not inclyne our felues vnto the preceptes and tradycyons of oure fathers, nor let vs do that femeth ryght in our eyes. But fuerlye, we wyll not exchange oure fathers doynges and tradicions, with scripture, but cheifely lene vnto them and to theyr prescription, and do that femeth good in oure owne eyes. But fuerly that is goynge downe the ladder, Scala cæli as it was made by the Pope came to be a Masse, but that is a false ladder to bringe men to heauen. ladder to brynge a man to heauen is the knowledge and followynge of scripture. Let the kyng therfore chose a wyfe whych feareth god, let hym not seke a proude, wanton and one ful of rich trea- The. iij. parte fures and worldelye pompe. He shall not of the sermon multyplye vnto hym felfe to muche gold and filuer. Is ther to muche thynke you for a kynge? God doeth alowe muche, vnto a kynge, and it is expediente that he should haue muche, for he hath great expenses, and many occasions to spende have muche, for his expensions and fuertie of hys ces are great. realme and fubiectes.

And necessary it is that a kyng haue a treasure all wayeys in a redines, for that, and fuch other affayres, as be dayly in hys handes. The which treasure, if it be not fufficiente, he maye lawfully and wyth a falue conscience, take taxis of hys subjectes. For it were not mete, the treasure, shoulde be in the subjectes purses whan the money shoulde be occupied, nor it were not best for themselves, for the lacke there of, it myght cause both it, and all the rest that they have shold not long be theirs, And so for a necessarye and expedyent occacion, it is warranted by goddes word Note whan to take of the subjectes But if there be the king hath sufficyente treasures, and the burdenynge hys commens. of subjectes be for a vayne thyng, so yat he wyl require thus much, or fo much of his fubiects, whyche perchaunce are in great necessitie, and penurye. Then this couetous intent, and the request thereof, is to muche, whych god forbiddeth the king her in this place of scripture to haue. But who shal Who shall se thys to much fe this to much, or tell ye king of this to None that be Thinke you anye of the Kynges much. sernauntes to preuve chamber? No. For feare of losse the Kynge. Shall any of his fworne chapelins? of fauer. Thei bee of the clausset and kepe close such matters. But the Kynge him selfe must se this to Co[r]poral eyes much, and yat shal he do by no meanes can not se to much. with the corporal eyes: Wherfore, he must haue a paier of spectacles, whiche shall haue two cleare fyghtes in them, yat is, ye one is fayth, Spirytuall eyes are to be had, fayeth not a feafonable fayeth, which shall laste but a whyle, but a fayeth, whiche is concharytye. tinuynge in God. The seconde cleare sighte is charitie, whych is feruente towardes hys Chrysten brother. them two, must the Kynge se euer whan he hath to But fewe therbe that vieth these spectacles, muche. the more is theyr dampnacion, Not wythoute cause Chrisostome wyth admiracion sayeth. Miror si aliquis reclorum potest saluari.

Chrysostoms sayinge. The vnderstandynge of possibilitie, but of a great difficultie For that their charge is maruelous great, and that none aboute them dare shew them the truth of the thing how it goth. Wel: then, if God wyl not

If God wyll not graunte to much vnto a kyng much lesse vnto the subjecte.

Who is not fauty in taking to much learne.

Physicions 1 -Marchantes

Landlordes

alowe a king to much. Whither wyl he alowe a subject to much? no, yat he wil not Whether haue any man here in England to much? I doubte most riche men haue to muche, for wythout to muche, we can get nothynge. As for example. The Phisicion. If the pore man be dyseased, he can have no helpe without to much? and of ye lawier, the pore man can get no counfell, expedicion, nor helpe in his matter, except he geue him to much. At marchandes handes, no kynd of wares can be had, except we geue for it to muche. You landelordes, you rentreisers,

I maruell if anye ruler can be faued.

Whyche wordes he speaketh not of an im-

I maye faye you steplordes, you vnnaturall steplordes. Vnnatural lordes, you have for your possessions yerely Lordes. to much. For that herebefore went for, xx. or. xl. pound by yere, (which is an honest porcion to be had gratis in one Lordeshyp, of a nother mannes sweat and laboure) now is it let for. l. [fifty] or a. C. [hundred] pound by yeare. Of thys to muche commeth Of thys to thys monsterous and portentious dearth-muche comis made by man, not with standynge God this and scarcitie doeth fende vs plentifullye the fruites of the earth, mercyfullye, contrarye vnto oure defertes, Not wythstandynge to muche, whyche these riche menne haue, causeth suche dearth, that poore menne (whyche liue of theyr laboure) can not wyth the sweate of their face haue a liuinge, all kinde of victales is fo deare, pigges, gefe, capons, chickens, egges. etc.

These thinges with other are so vnre- Note the cofonably enhansed. And I thinke verely, uetous men. that if it this continewe, we shal at length: be constrayned to paye for a pygge a pounde. I wyl tel you my lordes and maysters, thys is not for the This to much kynges honoure, Yet fome wyl faye, is not for the knowest thou what belongeth vnto the kinges honoure better then we? I answere, that the true honoure of a Kinge, is mooft perfectly mencioned and painted furth in the scriptures, of which, if ye be ignoraunt, for lacke of tyme yat ye cannot reade it, albeit, that your counsaile be neuer so politike, yet is What his honoure it not for the kynges honoure. meaneth ye canot tel. It is the kynges A description honoure yat his subjectes bee led in the of the kyages true religion. That all hys prelates and Cleargie be fet about their worcke in Fyrste in true preching and studieng, and not to be interrupted from their charge. Also it is ye Kinges honour that the commen wealth be auij. a welthy aunsed, that the dearth of these forsaied comminaltie. thynges be prouided for, and the commodities of thys

Realme so emploied, as it may be to the setting his fubiectes on worke, and kepyng them from idlenes. And herin resteth the kinges honour and hys office, So doynge, his accompte before God shalbe alowed, and rewarded. Furder more, if the kinges honour (as fum men fay) flandeth in the great multitude of people. Then these grasiers, inclosers, and renterearers, are hinderers of the kings honour. For wher as haue bene a great meany of householders and inhabitauntes, ther is nowe but a shepherd and his dogge, so thei hynder the kinges honour most of al. My lordes and maisters, I fay also, that all suche procedynges which are agaynste the Kynges honoure (as I haue a part declared before) and as far as I can perceiue, do intend plainly, to make the yomanry flauery and the Cleargye shauery. For fuche worckes are al fyngular, private welth and com-We of the cleargye had to much, but that is moditye. Clargy had to muche, but nowe to lytle.

Thyrdly the kynges honnure standeth in the multitude of people.

Thys to much wyl make yomanry slauery, and the shauery, clargy.

taken away, and nowe we have to little. But for myne owne part, I have no cause to complaine, for I thanke God and the kyng.

I have fufficient, and God is my judge I came not to craue of anye man, any thyng, but I knowe theim that haue to litle. There lyeth. a greate matter by these appropriacions, greate reformacions is to of the clargy. be had in them. I know wher is a great market Towne with divers hamelets and inhabitauntes, wher do rife yereli of their labours to the value of. 1. [fifty] pounde, and the vicar that ferueth (being fo great a cure) hath but. xii. or. xiiii. markes by yere, fo that of thys pension he is not able to by him bokes, nor geue hys neyghboure dryncke, al the great gaine goeth another way. My father was a Yoman, of ye yomanry. and had no landes of his owne, onlye he had a farme of. iii. or iiii. pound by yere at the vttermost, and here vpon he tilled so much as kepte halfe a doien men. He had walke for a hundred shepe, and my mother mylked. xxx. kyne, He was able and horse, whyle he came to ye place that he should receyue the kynges wages. I can remembre, yat I buckled hys harnes, when he went vnto Blacke heeath felde. kept me to schole, or elles I had not beneable to haue preached before the kinges maiestie nowe. He maryed my fysters with v. pounde or. xx. nobles a pece, so that he broughte them vp in godlines, and feare of God.

did find the king a harnesse, wyth hym selfe, and hys

He kept hospitalitie for his pore neighbours. And fum almess he gaue to the poore, and all thys did he of the fayd farme. Wher he that now hath it, paieth, xvi. pounde by yere or more, and is not able to do any thing for his Prynce, for himselfe, nor for his children, or geue a cup of drincke to the pore. Thus al the enhansinge and rearing goth to your private commoditie and wealth. So that where ve had a fingle to much, you have that: and fyns the fame, ye have enhanfed the rente, and so have encreased an other to much. So now ye have doble to muche, whyche is to to much. But let No preaching the preacher preach til his tong be worne can healpe to the stompes, nothing is amended. We thys eucl. haue good statutes made for the commen welth as touching comeners, enclosers, many Many statumetinges and Sessions, but in the end of tes but smale the matter their commeth nothing forth. Wel, well, thys is one thynge I wyll faye vnto you, from whens it commeth I knowe, euen, The deuell is from the deuill. I knowe his intent in it. the auctoure of to muche. For if ye bryng it to passe, that the yo manry be not able to put their fonnes to schole (as in dede vniuerlities do wonderoully decaye To decaye of all redy) and that they be not able to and puritie of mary their daughters to the auoidyng of lyfe. whoredome, I fay ye plucke faluation from Saluacion resteth in them. the people and vtterly distroy the realme. Yomens son-For by yomans fonnes, the fayth of Christ is, nes be teaand hath bene mayntained chefely. this realme taught by rich mens fonnes.

Is chers of god. No no, reade. the Cronicles ye shall fynde sumtime noble mennes fonnes, which have bene vnpreaching byshoppes and prelates, but ye, shall finde none of them A notable thyng. learned men. But verilye, they that shoulde loke to the redresse of these thinges, be the greatest against them. In thys realme are a great meany of folkes, and amongest many, I knowe but one of tender zeale. at the mocion of his poore tennauntes, hath let downe his landes to the olde rentes for their reliefe. For goddes loue, let not him be a Phenix, let him not be alone, Let hym not be an Hermite closed in a wall, fum good man follow him and do as he geueth example. Surueiers there be, vat Surveiers gredyly gorge vp their couetouse, guttes hande makers, I meane (honest men I touch not) but al fuche as furuei thei make vp their mouthes but the commens be vtterlye vndone by them. Whose bitter cry ascendyng vp to the The crve of the poore. eares of the god of Sabaoth, the gredy pyt of hel burning fire (without great repentaunce) do tary and loke for them. A redresse God graunt. For fuerly, fuerly, but yat ii. thynges do comfort me I wold despaire of the redresse in these maters. that the kinges maiestie whan he commeth to age: wyll fe a redreffe of these thinges so out of frame. Geuing example by letting doune his owne landes first and then enjoyne hys subjectes to solowe him. fecond hope I have is, I believe that the general accomptyng daye is at hande, the dreadfull day of judgement I meane, whiche shall make an end of al these calamities and miseries. For as the scryptures be Cum dixerint pax pax,* When they shal say peace, peace: Omnia tuta, all thynges are fure: Then is the day at hand, a mery day I faye, for al fuch as do in this worlde studye to serue and please god and continue in his fayth, feare and loue: and a dreadful, horrible day for them that decline from God walking in ther owne wayes, to whom as it is wrytten in the xxv of punyshment. Wher shalbe waylinge and gnashing of teeth. But vnto ye other he shal saye: The blesse of Venite benedisti. † come ye blessed chyld-the godly. ren of my father, possesse ye the kyngdome prepared for you from the beginninge of the worlde, of the which god make vs al partakers.

* Saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. - Jer. vi. 14.

Mathew is fayd: Ite maledisti in ignem of wycked eternum.* Go ye cursied into euerlastynge men.

Amen.

* Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire.—Matt. xxv. 41. * Come, ye blessed of my Father.—ver. 34.

Imprinted at ## London by Thon Day

dwellynge at Aldersgate, and Mylliam Seres, dwelling in Peter Colledge. Chese bokes are to be sold at the new shop by the lytle Condupte in Chepesyde.

d Cum gratia et Prinilegio ab imprimendum solum.

The seconde

Dermon of Master Hughe Latemer, whych he preached before the Kynges maiestie, within hps gracces Palapre at Ma stminster pe, rv dap of Marche. M.cccc.rlir.

Cum gracia et priuilegio ad imprimendum folum.

To the Reader.

Ven as in tymes past, al men whych were honestly bent to the promotinge of vertue and learnynge, found meanes, that the workes of worthye oratours, of famous and renoumed Philosophers, shold be by ye benefit, of publy shing redemed from the tyrannye of obliuion to the great and hygh profyte of countryes, of common wealthes, of empyres, and of assemblies of men: lykewyse oughte we to setche our prefydente from those men, and suffre no worthi monument to perish, wherby any good may grow. either to the more godly admynistration of polytyke and cyuyl affayres, or elles to the better establyshyng of christian judgement. Numa Pompilus, who was inaugured and created king [of] the Romaynes next after Romulus, was far more careful and bufier in groundyng of Idolatrus religion, as vpon rytes, ceremonies, facrifices and supersticions, then we are in promotyng of christian religion, to the advauncement of the glorye, due, to the omnipotent maiestie of God hymselfe, who hath reuealed and vttered hys worde vnto vs by hys Prophetes, and last of all, by hys onely begotten sonne Iesus Christ wherby he hath confyrmed our consciences in a more perfect certentie of the truth, then euer they were before. This Numa instituted an Archbyshop for the preservinge of the Commentaries, containing the folemnities of their religion with manye other appendixes, vnited to the office of the high What do we? We have suppressed. have wrastled with fyre, and sword, not onely to deface the wrytynges of fuch learned men as haue paynefully traueiled to publysh Gods word: but also we have sturred every stone, and sought al develish devises, to deteine yat fame word of god it felfe from his people.

May not we (and not vnwortheli) be accompted far vnder ye Ethenickes, who wrought onely by naturall mocion and anticipations, wythout breathyng and inspirying of the holy gost, if we woulde not (I meane not be equall wyth them) but be farre more zelous in promotyng good learning and religion then euer thei Thei, when thei had fuche noble and worthy clearkes (as Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle) with al diligence, caused ye fruites of those most rare and profound wyttes, to be preserved for their posteritie, that the eyes of al generations myght enjoye the fruicion and vse of them, thinking that such wonderful vertues shuld not be buried in the same grave that theyr bodyes were. After fo manifold and daungerous shyp wrackes of religion, as in oure tymes we may well remember, wheras the ambitious and blynde prelates (some of wyly wilfulnes, some of grose ignoraunce) ruleth the sterne and euermore blemished the true knowledge of Goddes worde, and dyd theyr indeuoure to obscure the same with their politycke and decente ceremonies and trompery of fuperflicions, how oft hath religion bene toft on the flormy fourgis and daungerous rockes of the Romyshe seas? Howe oft hath it bene in fuch a desperate state, that the true mynysters have bene inforsed (as you woulde say) to hoyse vp ancker (the tackling of the shyp beyng broken) and destytute of all other helpe and succoures. to geue ouer the rulynge of the shyppe to God hymselfe, who is only able to saue, when al the world by mannes reason judgeth it past cure. Such O Lorde is thy mercie and ineffable power, what cristen hert yat fauoureth the glory of God, did not even lament and bewaile the flate of religion, and thought verely the vtter ruine of Christes church to be at hand, seing the late martyrdome of those that suffered? Yet didest thou lord flurre vp thousandes out of their ashes. and what was done of a popysh polycye to suppresse and kepe vnder thy truth, that, of al other, dyd most set fourth the same. Thou hast deliuered Danyel out of the denne of the liones, and he hath fet fourth thy worde abroade. But now countreemen, whom God hath bleffed by deliuerynge you from the tirranny of the liones and her whelpes, (which went thorow the whole realme fuckyng the innocent bloude) how vnthanckfull are you vnto God fo greatly eneglectynge fo specyall a benefyte, fallyng into fuch a loufenes of lacyuyoufe lyuing as the lyke Euen as ye are hath neuer bene hard of hereto fore. growne to a perfeccion in knowledge, fo are ve come to a perfeccyon in al mischyese. The Heathen, whyche had no other gyde but the law of nature, grauen in the tables of their hart, were neuer fo poisoned with the contagion of most horryble herefies, as some of vs Christians which are not ashamed to brag and boste of the fpirite. But 'it is a phanaticke spirite, a braincicke spirite a sedicious and a malingnante Christ breath his spirite vpon you yat ye fpirite. may rede ye scriptur with al humblenes and reuerence, to fetch from thence comforte for youre wounded consciences, not to make that lyuely fountayne of lyfe to ferue for the fedynge of your idle braines, to dyspute more subtelly thereby, or else by myfunderstandynge of the same to consciue pernitious and annabaptifical opinions. Remember that the feruaunte whiche knoweth hys maysters wyll and doeth it not, shalbe beaten with many strypes. God is a good God, a mercyful God a father whych beareth muche with oure croked nature and vnchristian behauiour, and very floth to reuenge hys blasphemie this maintenance of fo many vnscripterlye opinions, these brablynges and fcifmaticke contencions wherin a great packe of vs delyte and repose our glory, al though as fondly, as eroniously, to ye great sclaunder of the godly learned, and also to the hynderaunce of the good successe and fre passage of the word of God. But as truly as god is God if we repent not shortly, his plages and vengaunce are not far of, hys indignacyon and wrathe shall be poured from heauen vpon our vngodlynes. He is long a commyng but when he comes he wil paye whome and (as Lactancius fayeth) recompence his long fufferaunce wyth greuous repunishmentes. The world and the deuel hath bewitched vs that we in our dedes (I feare me to manye of vs) deny; God to be God whatfoeuer we pittle pattle with our Gods word must not be talcked of only, for that is not inough. It must be expressed. Then must we as wel live the worde as talke the worde, or elfe, if good lyfe do not infue and follow vpon our readynge to the example of other, we myghte as well spende that tyme in reading of prophane hystories, of cantorburye tales, or a fit of Roben Hode Let vs ioyne good lyfe wyth our readyng, and yet al wylbe to lytle. Remembre that the worlde and al that is in it, is mere vanitie, and shall have an ende. Thou I say, yat thus abusest the gyste of Godes holy word, and the gratiousnes of the Kynges maiestie, which hath lycensed the to rede the same, for the comfort of thyne owne foule, for the instructing of thi famyly, the education of thy chyldren, and edefiyng of thy neyghbour. Thou that art fo gorgyously apparelled, and seadeth thy corruptible carkaffe fo dayntely, thou that purchafest so fast, to the vtter vndoyng of the poore, confyder wherof thou camest, and wherunto thou shal returne. Where is then all thy pompe? wher is all thy ruffe of thy gloriousnes become? What welt thou fay for thy felfe in that horrible daye of judgment, wher thou shalt stand naked before God, where the tables of thine owne conscyence shalbe opened and layed before thyne eies to accuse the. Thou which reyfest the rentes so gredely as thoughe thou shouldest neuer haue inough. Thy iudgemente is, throw miserable mammon, so captyuate and blinded, that you canst not tel when you hast inough, or what is inough? Truly, a litle is to much for him yat knowes not how to vie much well. Therfore learne fyrit the vse of monei and riches, and some other honester meanes to attayne them, that thys thyne infaciable couetousnes and vnlawful desyryng of other mens goodes, maye be reduced to some reasonable measure, and that it do not excede the lymyttes or compasse of honestie, and the bondes of brotherly loue, lest God (before whom thou shalt appere one day, to rendre a strayght accomptes, for the dedes done in thy flesh) burden and charge the wyth thy vnmerciful handlyng of thy Tennant (but yet notwythstandyng thy brother) whom, wyth newe Incomes, fynes, inhauncyng of rentes, and fuch lyke vnreasonable exactions, thou pilles, polles, and miferablie oppresses. When that terrible day shall once come, a lytle of Gods mercye wyll be worth a masse or a whole helpe of thy monei. Ther thy wicked Mammon. whom thou ferueste lyke a slaue can purchase the no There thy money so gleaned and gathered of the and thyne (to the impoueryshment of many to make the only ryche) can not preuayle the, nor yet redeme thy cause before that iuste and seuere judge. which then, and ther, wil render to ve, the felfe same measure yat you measureste to other men? What dyd we speake of preuaylyng, or redeming of thy cause with monei. Nay then thy monei, and the roust of thy gold shal be a wytnes against ye and shal eat thy fleshe as the fyre. Howe franctycke and folyshe myght al wyfe men, wel judge and deme him to be, which agaynste the dave of hys araignemente (when he should stand upon the tryall of death and lyfe) woulde busy him felf, his folkes, and his frendes, to prepare and get many wytnesses agaynste him to cast him awaye by theyr euidence and witnes: and to prouide fuche menne as shoulde be the onelye cause of hys death. Euen. So frantycke, and fo folyshe art thou which doth toyle, trauayle, and turmoyle fo ernestly and busylve aboute the gettynge of goodes and rytches, before thou hast well learned and taken furth of the lesson, of well viving the same. Howbeit, truelye I doute much of the well viyng of yat, whych was neuer well nor truely gotten. Learne Prouerb. xix. therfore first, to know what is inough. For the wyseman fayth, it is better to have a lytle with the fear of the Lorde, then great and infaciable rytches. Sophonve faythe their golde shall not be able to Sophoni. i. delyuer them in the day of the Lordes wrath. [Zephaniah [ 18] Let your conversacion be without couet- i. Hebre, iij. oufnes, and be content with that ye haue alredi Godlines is a great ryches, if a man be content wyth fuche as God fendes. For we brought i. Timoth. vii nothyng into thys world, neither shal we carry anye thyng out. When we have foode and rayment, let vs therwyth be content. Behold, thy Scholemaster Paule teaches the here a good lesson. Here thou mayst learne wel inough, to know what is inough. But lest thou shouldest feare at any time, the want or lacke of thys inoughe. Here farther the rest of thy lesson. For god verely favth. The Lorde is myne helper, I wyll not fere what man doeth to me. the Reuenues and yerely Rentes of thy patrymony and landes, be not inough, nor sufficient for thi fyndyng, and wyl not fuffice thy charges, then moderate thyne expences, borrow of thy two next neighbours, that is to fay, of thy backe and thi belly, Learne to eat within thy teather. Pul downe thy Saye downe proud hert, Mayntayn no greater port, then thou art able to bear out and support of thyne owne prouision. Put thy hand no further then thy sleue will reache. Cut thy cloth after the mesure. Kepe thy house after the spendynge. Thou must not pil an[d] powle the Tenant, that thou mayest haue (as they fai) vnde, and that thy neuer inough to rufful it out in a riatous ruffe and a prodigal, disolute, and lifenciouse liuing. We rede in the scripture, geue to euery manne his dutye, tribute, to whom tribute belongeth, custome to whom Custome, is due. Feare to whom Feare belongeth, honoure to whom honoure partayneth. But we finde not there, nor elles where, fynes to whom fynes, incomes to whome incomes. Paul was not a quainted with none of those termes. Belyke they wer not vsed and commen up in his time, or else he wold have made mencion of them.

not withstandyng, we deny not but these reasonablie required and vpon honest couenantes and contractes, are more tollerable, and fo vsed, fo maye be permitted. But the couenantes and the contractes we remitte to the godly wyfdome of the hie magiftrates, who (we pray god) may take fuch order and direction in this, and al other, vat the commen people may be relyued and eased of, many importable charges and iniuries, which many of them, contrary to al equyte and ryght, fustaine. But wo worth this couetousnesse, not without skylle called the rote of all, euyl. If couetousnes were not, we thincke many things amisse, should shortely be redressed. is a mighty Matrone a Lady of great power. hath reteyned moo feruauntes then any Lady hath in Englande. But marke how well in fyne, She hath rewarded her feruantes, and lerne to be wyfe by another mans harme. Acham by the commaundemente of God, was stoned to death, because Deutro. xvii. he toke of the excommunicate goodes. Saul moued wyth couetouines diffobeied goddes worde, referuinge the King, Agag and a parsfell of the fatteste of the cattle. and loft hys kyngdome therby. Gehize was strycken wyth leaprofy and all hys posteritie, because he toke money and rayment, of Naaman. The rich and vnmerciful gloton, whych fared well and deputely euery day, was buried in hel, and there he taketh nowe such fare as the deuyl hymfelf doth. Woo be to you, that ioyne house to house, and feelde to feeld, shall ye alone inhabyte the yearth. Let these terrible examples fuffyce at thys preasent, to teach, and admonysh, the inhaunser of Rentes, the vnresonable exactour and gredye requirer of fienes and incomes, the couetouse lease monger, the deuourer of townes and contryes as M. Latimer tearmeth them rightly. If these scriptures (with yat which thei may rede in these godly sermones) do not pearfe their stony hertes (we feare) more wil not ferue. The Lord be mercyful to them. nowe to the wycked Iudge, which corruptes iuflyce for Brybes. Here he may learne also the lesson that Moses taughte long before thys time, be maiestrates and Iudges in the common wealth of Iosue. vii. Israell. Be no accepter of personnes neyther be defirous of giftes, for they make wife men blinde, and chaunge the mynde of the ryghtuouse. In judgement be merciful to the fatherles as a father, i. To the Kinand be in stead of an husband vn[to] theyr ges. xv. mother. The vngodly taketh giftes oute of Ecclesiastical the bosome, to wrast the wayes of judge- Prouer. xvii. ment. Let hym that rules be dylygent fayth Paul. What meaneth he bi this terme, dili-He requires no fuch diligence as the most part of our lucrative lawyers do vie, in deferryng and prolongyng of matters, and accions from Terme to Terme, and in the tractynge of tyme in the same. Wher perchaunce the tytle or the ryght of the matter myght haue come to lyght, and bene tryed long before. If the Lawyers and the Iudges would have vied fuch diligence as Paule would have them to do.

But what care ye lawyers for Paul? Paul was but a mad man of lawe to controlle them for their dili-Paul, yea and Peter to, coulde better skil of mending of an olde net, of clouting of an old tent, then to teach lawiers what dyligence they should vse in the expedicion, of matters. Whi? but be not lawiers diligent fay ye? Yea truly are thei and to diligent to for some mens profytes. And about their own profit ther are no more diligenter men nor busier persons in al England they trudge in ye tearme time to and fro. The value applye the world harde. They for flow no tyme. Thei follow Sifes and Seffions, Letes, Lawdays and Hundredes, they shold serue the kyng, but thei ferue them felues. And howe thei vse, nay rather abuse, their office in the same, some good manne wyll tell theym thereof. We lacke a fewe moo Latymers, a fewe moo fuche Preachers. Such playn Pasquyls, we pray God prouide for vs, that kepeth nothing backe. Of the whych fort and numbre, we may most worthely recken this faythful mynister of God, and constant Preacher of his word Master Hugh Latimer, which by hys perfeueraunce and stedfastnes in the truth hath flablyfled this waveryng world. He hath bene tost for the truthes sake, and tried with the stormes of perfecution, as golde in the fornace. is one, whom, as well for hys learned, founde, and chatholyke iudgement, in the knoweledge of Gods worde, as for his integretie and example of christian conversation, all we and (specially mynisters and prelates) ought to fet before our eyes, as a pryncipall patrone to imptate and follow, defyryng God, who hathe styrred vp in him, the bold spirite of Helias, mave dayly more and more augment the fame in hym. and may also prouide many uch preaching prelates, which both so wel could, and so willingly wold franckely vtter ye trueth, to the extollinge of vertue, the rewarde of well doers, the suppressing of vice, the abolishmente of all papestrie. It is oure parte therefore to praye diligently for his continual health and that he may liue longe amonge vs in a florishinge old aege, and not (as fome in grate in humaine persons) to maligne and depraue him for yat he fo frankely and liberallye taxed perstringed and openly rebuked before the Kinges Magestie ve peculiar fauts of certayne of his auditours, but it is oure part, rather thankefully to accept and in good part take his godly aduertisment, onles we be mynded to prefer oure muckye monie and false selicitie before the ioyse of heauen, or els beleue (as ye Epecurs do) that after this life ther is neither hel nor heauen. Receive thankfully (gentle reader these sermons faith fullie colected) without al sinifter fuspicion of anye thynge in the same added or adempte ::

Finis.

🖝 The. xxi. day of Iune. 🕰 **. .

The seconde sermon

Vacunque feripta funt, ad nostram doctrinam. etce.* All thinges yat are written in Gods boke, in the holye Byble, they were wrytten before oure tyme, but yet to continue from age to age as long as the worlde doeth stand.

In thys Boke is contayned doctrine for al estates, euen for kynges. A kynge herein maye learne how to gyde hymfelfe, I tolde you in my laste fermon muche of the dutye of a kyng. ther is one place behynd yet, and it followeth in ye texte. Poslquam autem sederit in solio regni sui, et cete. + And when the kyng is fette in the feate of hys kyngdome, he shall wryte hym out a boke and take a copy of ye priestes or Leuites. He shall have the boke wyth hym, and why? to reade in it all the dayes of hys lyfe, to learne to feare God, and learne hys Lawes and other thynges, as it followeth in the texte wyth the appurtenaunces and hangynges on, that he turne not frome God, neyther to the ryght hande, nor to And wherfore shal he do thys? that he may lyue longe, he and hys children. That I maye declare thys the goeth the texte. better to the edifiynge of youre foules and the glory of God, I shall defyre you to praye etc.

Et pof[t]quam federit. etc. Before I enter into thys

* Rom, xv. 4.

* And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

That his heart be not lifted up above his brethrea, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.—Deut. xvii. 18—20.

place (right honourable audience) to furnysh it accordingly, whych by the grace of god I shal do at leyfure, I woulde repete the place I was in last, and furnyshe it wyth a story or two whyche I leste oute in my last fermon. I was in a matter concerning the flurdines of the Iewes, a frowarde and flyfnecked kynde of people, much lyke oure Englyshe men nowe a dayes, that in the minoritye of a Kynge, take vpon them to breke lawes and to go by wayes. For when god had promifed them a kynge, when it came to point they refused hym. These men walked by walkes, and the fayynge is many biwalkes, many balkes, manye balkes muche stumblynge, and where muche stumblynge is, there is fometyme a fal, howbeit ther were fome good walkers among them, that walked in ye kynges highe waye ordinarilye, vprightlye, playne Dunstable waye, and for thys purpose, I woulde shewe you an hystorye whiche is written in the thyrde of the kynges.*

Kynge Dauid beynge in his chyldhode, an old man, in hys fecond chyldhode, for al old men are twife chyldren, as the Prouerb is. Senex bis puer. An olde manne, twyfe a chyld, it happened wyth him, as it doth oftentymes, when wicked men, of a Kinges chyldhode take occasion of euyl.

Thys Kynge Dauid beyng weake of nature and impotente, in so muche that when he was couered with clothes, he coulde take no heate, was counsayled of hys seruauntes to take a sayre yonge mayde to nouryshe hym, and to keepe hym warme in hys bodye. I suppose she was hys wyfe. Howe be it he hadde no bodilye companie wyth hyr, and wel she myghte be hys wyfe. For thoughe the scripture doeth saye. Non cognouit eam. He knewe hyr not, he had no carnal copulation with hyr yet it sayeth not. Non duxit eam Vxorem. He maried hyr not. And I canne not thynke that king Dauid woulde haue hyr too warme hys bosome in Bedde, excepte shee hadde bene hys wyfe, hauynge a dispensation of God to haue as manye wyues as he woulde. For God had difpenfed wyth theym to haue manye wyues. what happened to kyng Dauid in hys childehode, by ye chylde of the deuyll? Ye shall heare. Dauid hadde a proud fonne, whose name was Adonyas, a man ful of ambition, defyerouse of honoure, alwayes clymbyng, climbynge. whylfe the tyme was of his fathers childhode, he wold depose hys father, not knoweyng of hys fathers mynd, Ego regnabo. I wil raigne, I wyll be kyng, faiyng. he was a stoute stomaked chyld, a biwalker, of an ambitious mynde, he wold not confente to hys fathers frendes, but gate hin a charet, and men to runne before it, and dyuerse other adherentes to helpe hym forwarde, worldelye wife men, fuch as had bene before of hys fathers counfayle, great men in the world, and fome no doute of it, came of good wil thynkynge no harme, for they woulde not thynke that he did it wythoute hys fathers wyll, hauvnge fuch greate men to fet hym forth, for euery man cannot have accesse at al tymes to the kynge to knowe hys pleafure, well: algates he would be Kynge, and makes a great feast, and thither he called Ioab the ryngleader of hys fathers armye, a worldly wyfe man, a bywalker, that would not walke the Kynges hye way, and one Abiather the hyghe prieste. For it is maruayle if any mischyese be in hand, if a priest be not at some ende of it, they toke hym as Kynge, and cried, Viuat rex Adonias. God faue kynge Adonias. Dauid fuffered all thys, and lette hym alone, for he was in hys chyldhode a bedred man.

<sup>* 1</sup> Kings, i. and ii. chaps,

But fe howe God ordered the matter, Nathan the Prophete and Sadoc a prieste, and Banaya, and Crethytes, and Phelethyts the Kyngs gard, they were not called to the feast.

These were good men, and woulde not walke bywayes, therefore it was foly to breake the matter to them, they were not called to counsell. Therefore Nathan when he hearde of thys, he commeth to Bethsabe Salomons mother and sayeth. Heare ye not howe Adonias the sonne of Ageth, rayneth kynge, Dauid not knowinge? And he bad hyr put the kynge in mynde of hys oth that he sware that hyr sonne Salomon should be kinge after hym, thys was wife counsayle accordynge to the Prouerbe. Qui Vadit plane, uadit sane.

He that walketh in the hye playne waye, walketh fafelye. Vpon thys she wente and brake the matter to Dauid, and defiered hym to shewe who shold raynge after hym in Hierusalem, addinge that it Adonias were kynge, she and hyr sonne after hys death shoulde be destroyed, saiyng. Nos erimus peccatores. We shalbe finners, we shalbe taken for traytors, for though we ment no harme but walked vprightly yet bicause we went not the byway with hym, he beynge in authoritie wyl destroy vs. And by and by cometh in Nathan. and taketh hyr tale by the ende, and sheweth him how Adonias was faluted kynge and that he hadde byd to diner the Kynges feruantes, al fauyng hym and Sadoc, and Banaia and al hys brethren the kings fonnes faue Salomon. Kynge Dauid remembryng hym felfe fwore, as fure as God lyueth, Salomon my fon shall raygne after me, and by and by commaunded Nathan and Sadoc and hys garde the Cerethes and Philites, to take Salomon hys sonne and sette hym vpon hys mule, and anount hym Kyng, and fo they dyd, criynge, Viuat Salomon Rex. Thus was Salomon throned, by the aduise and wyl of hys father, and thoughe he were a chylde, yet was his wyl to be obeyed and fulfylled, and they ought to have knowen hys pleasure. Whylse this was a doing there was fuche a love and outcrye of the people for theyr newe Kynge, and blowynge of trumpetes, yat Ioab and the other company beynge in theyr iolitye, and kepyng good cheare: herde it, and fodaynlye asked what is thys ado? And when they perceived yat Salomon by ye aduyse of hys father was announted Kyng, by and by ther was all whysht, all theyr good chere was done, and al yat were wyth Adonias wente away, and lette hym raygne alone, is he woulde, and whye? He walked a bywaye and God would not prospere it.

God wyll not worcke wyth private authoritie, nor wyth anye thinge done inordinatlye. When Adonias faw this that he was left alone, he toke fanctuary, and held by the hornes of the aultare and fware that he woulde not departe thence, tyll Salomon woulde fweare that he shoulde not lease hys life. Here is to be noted the notable sentence, and greate mercy of Kynge Salomon.

Lette hym fayeth he order hym felfe lyke a quiete manne and there shall not one heere fall from hys head.

Sed si inventum suerit malum in eo.*

But if there shall be any euyll found in hym if he hath gone aboute anye mischyese, he shall dye for it. Vpon thys he was broughte into Salomon, and as the boke sayeth, he dyd homage vnto hym, and Salomon sayed to hym. Vade in domum tuam.†

Gette the into thy house, bilyke he meante to warde, and ther to se hys wearynge, as if he shoulde saye, shewe thyselfe wythoute gall of ambition, to be a quiet subjecte, and I wyll pardon the for thys tyme. But I wyll fe the wearynge of the.

Here wee maye se the wonderfull great mercye of Salomon for thys notorious treason, yat Adonias had committed, it was a plaine matter, for he suffered hymselse to be called kynge, it hung not of vehement suspition or coniecture nor sequel or consequent yet notwythstandynge Salomon for that present, forgaue hym, sayinge. I wyl not forget it vtterlye, but I wyll kepe it in suspense, I wyll take no aduantage of the at thys tyme. This Adonias and Absolon were brethren, and came boeth of a straung mother, and Absolon lykewyse was a traytour, and made an infurrection against hys father. Beware therefore these mothers and let kynges take hede howe they mary, in what housses, in what fayeth. For strang bryngyng vp, bringeth straunge maners. Nowe geueth Dauid an exhortation to Salomon, and teacheth him the dutye of a Kynge, and geueth hym a lesson, as it followeth at large in ye boke, and he that lyste to reade it, mave fe it ther at full. But what doeth Adonias all He must yet clymbe agayne, ye gal of thvs whyle? ambition was not out of his hert. He wil now mary Abifaas the yonge quene that warmed king Dauids bosome, as I told you, and commeth me to Bersaba, defyering hyr to be a meane to Salamon hyr fonne that he myght obtavne hys purpose. And bryngeth me out a couple of lyes at a clappe, and committeth me two vnlawfull actes. For fyrste he would have bene Kynge wythoute hys fathers confente, and now he wyl mary his fathers wife, and the. ii. lyes are thefe. Fyrste, sayed he to Bersabe, thou knowest that the Kyngedome belongeth to me, for I am the elder. The kyngedome was myne, he lyed falfely it was none of his. Then fayed he all the eyes of Ifrael were caste vpon me, that is to saye, all Israel consented to it, and there he lyed falfely. For Nathan, Sadoc, and other wyse men, neuer agreed to it. Here was a greate enterprice of Adonias, he wyl be climbing ftyll. Bersabe wente at hys requeste to hyr sonne Salomon, and asked a boune, and he graunted hyr what so euer the did aske. Notwithstanding he brake his promise afterward and that right well, for all promises are not to be kept, speciallye if they be agaynste the worde of God. Or not standynge with a commune profit, and therefore as fone as Salomon heard yat Adonias would have maryed the yonge quene Abisaak: naye then let hym be kynge to: fayed he. I perceyue now that he is a naughty man, a proude herted fellow, the gal of ambition is not yet out of his herte, and so commaunded him to be put to death. Thus was Adonias put to execution, wher as if he had kepte hys house and not broken hys iniunction, he myght haue lyued stil. Abiathar, what became of him. The king (because he had serued his sather before him) woulde not put him to deth, but made him as it were a quondam. Bicause thou hast bene with mi sather saied he, and didest cary the arke before hym I wyl not kyl the.

* But if wickedness be found in + Go to thine house.—ver. 53. him, he shall die.—1 Kings i. 52.

But I will promyle the thou shalte never minister anye more. Vade in agrum tuum?* Get the to thy lande, and lyue there. A greate matter of pity and compassion, so God graunt vs al, such mercy. And here was the ende of Elis stocke, according to the promise and threatening of God. As for the Phelethites we do not read yat they were punyshed. Mary Semei traunfgreffed his Injunction for he kepte not hys house, but wente oute of Hierusalem to seke two feruauntes of hys yat had runne from hym, and when it came to Salomons eare, it coste hym hys life. I have ript the matter nowe to the pyll, and have tolde you of playne walkers, and of biwalkers, and how a kynge in hys childehode is a kynge, as wel, as in any other age. We reade in scripture of suche as were but. xii. or. viii. yeares olde, and yet the worde of the holy Gooste called them kynges, sayinge. Cepit Regnare. He began to raygne, or he began to be kynge. Here is of bywalkers. Thys hystorye would be remembred, the Prouerbe is.

Felix quem faciunt aliena pericula cautum.

Happy is he that can beware by an other mans ieoperdy. For if we offende not as other do, it is not our owne desertes.

If we fal not, it is Goddes preservation. We are all offenders For other we maye do, or have done, or shall do (excepte God preserve vs) as euyll as the worste of them. I pray God we maye all amende and repente. But we will all amende nowe I truste. We mustes neades amende our lyues everye man. The holy communion is at hand, and we may not receive it vnworthelye.

* Get thee to Anatheth, unto thine own fields.-s Kings i. 26.

Wel, to returne to my history. Kynge Dauid I say was a kynge in his second childhode And so, yonge kynges though they be chyldren, yet are they kynges notwythstandynge, and thoughe it be wrytten in scripture. Va tibi O terra ubi puer est rex.* Wo to the, O Lande, where ye king is a chylde: if soloweth in an other place. Beata terra ubi rex nobilis.† Blessed is the Lande, where there is a noble kynge. Where Kynges be no banketers, no players, and they spend not the tyme in haukynge and huntynge.

And when hadde the kynges maiestye a Councell that toke more payne boeth night and day for the settynge forthe of Gods word, and profit of the commune wealth. And yet there be some wycked people that wyll fave.

Tushe, thys geare wyll not tarye, it is but my Lorde Protectours, and my Lorde of Canterburies doynge.

The Kinge is a child, he knoweth not of it.

Iefu mercy, how lyke are we Englyshe men to the Iewes, euer stubburne, styfnecked, and walkynge of bye wayes. Yea I thynke no Iewe woulde at any tyme saye. This geare wil not tary. I neuer hearde nor read at any time yat they sayed.

These lawes were made in such a kynges dayes, when he was but a chylde. Let vs alter them. O Lorde what pitye is thys that we shoulde be worsse then the Iewes?

Blessed be the lande saith the worde of God, wher the Kyng is noble. What people are they that saye. The kynge is but a chylde? Haue not wee a noble Kynge? Was there euer Kynge so noble? So Godlye? broughte vp wyth so noble counsaylours? so excellent and well learned Scholemaisters? I wyll tell you thys, and I speake it euen as I thynke. Hys maiestye hath more Godlye wytte and vndersandyng, more lernynge and knowledge at thys age, then. xx. of hys progenitors that I coulde name had at anye tyme of theyr lyfe.

* Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child.—Eccles. z. 16, thy king is the son of nobles.—Eccles. z. 17.

I tolde you in my laste fermon of ministers of the kinges people and had occation to shewe you howe few noble men were good preachers, and I lest out an hystory then whyche I wyl nowe tell you.

There was a byshop of Winchester in Kyng Henry the. vi. dayes, whyche kynge was but a chylde, and yet were there manye good Actes made in hys childehode, and I do not read that they were broken.

Thys byshoppe was a great man borne, and did beare such a stroke, that he was able to shoulder the Lord Protectour. Well, it channed yat the Lorde Protectoure and he sell out, and the byshoppe would beare nothynge at all wyth hym, but played me the Satrapa, so that the regente of Fraunce was saine to be sent for from beyond the Seas to set theim at one, and to go betwene them.

For the byshoppe was as able and readye to buccle with the Lorde Protectoure, as he was with hym.

Was not this a good prelate? he should have bene at home a preachynge in hys Dioces in a wanian. Thys Protector was fo noble and Godly a man, that he was called of euerye man the good Duke Humfrey. He kept fuche a housse as neuer was kept fence in Englande, wythout any enhaunfyng of rentes I warrant you, or any fuch matter. And the byshop for standing so styflye by the matter, and bearynge vp the order of our mother ye holie church, was made Cardinall at Calice, and thyther the byshop of Rome fent hym a cardinals hatte, he shold haue had a Tiburne tippet, a halpeny halter, and all suche proude prelates. These Romish hertes [hats?] neuer broughte good into Englande.

Vpon thys the bishop goeth me to the quene Katherin the kinges wise, a proud woman and a stout, and perswaded hir that if ye duke were in such authoritie styl, and lyued, ye people wold honor him more then they dyd the king. And ye king should not be fet by, and so betwen them, I can not tel how it came to pas, but at S. Edmundes bury in a parliment the good Duke Humfrey was fmothered.

But nowe to returne to my texte, and to make further rehearfall of ye fame, the matter beginneth this. Et pof [t] quam federit rex* And when the kyng is fette in the feate of hys Kyngedome, what shal he do? shal he daunce, and dally, banket? hauke and hunte? No forfothe syr. For as God set an order in the Kyngs stable as I tolde you in my last Sermon, so wyll he appoynte what pastyme a Kynge shall haue. What must he do then? He must be a studient. He must wryte Goddes boke hym selse. Not thynkynge bycause he is a kynge, he hath lycence to do what he wyl, as these worldlye statterers are wont to say. Yea, trouble not your self sir, ye mai hauke and hunt, and take youre pleasure. As for the guydinge of your kyngdome and people, let vs alone wyth it.

These flattering clawbackes are originall rotes of all mischyue, and yet a Kynge maye take hys pastyme in haukinge or huntynge or such lyke pleasures. But he muste vse them for recreation when he is wery of waighty affayres, that he mai returne to them the more lustye, and this is called pastime with good companye. He must write out a boke hym selfe. He speaketh of wrytynge bicause printynge was not vsed at yat tyme.

And shall the Kynge wryte it out hym selse? He meaneth he 'shall se it wrytten, and rather then he

'shoulde be wythout it, wryte it hym felfe.'

Iefus mercy, is God so chary wyth a kynge to haue hym wel brought vp and instructed? Yea forsoth. For if the kyng be well ordered, the realme is wel ordered. Where shall he haue a copy of thys boke? of the Leuits. And why? Bicause it shal be a true copye, not falsisyed.

Moyses leste the boke in an olde cheste, and the Leuites had it in kepyng. And bycause ther should be no errour, no addition, nor takynge away from it, he byddeth hym fetch the copy of the Leuites. And was not here a greate miracle of God, how this boke was preferued? It had layne hyd many yeres and the Iewes knew not of it.

And . . . when he sitteth, &c.-Deut xvii. 18: see text at p. 55.

Therefore at lengthe when they had found it and knew it: they lamented for theyr ignoraunce, that had fo long bene wythoute it, and rente theyr clothes, repentyng theyr vnfaythfulnes, and fo ye holye byble Goddes boke, that we have among vs, it hathe bene preferued hytherto by a wonderful miracle of God (though the kepers of it were neuer fo malitiouse) firste euer sythe the byshop of Rome was firste in authoritye, they have gone about to destroy it, but God worketh wonderfully, he hathe preserved it maugre theyr beardes, and yet are we vnthankefull that we cannot consider it. I wil tel you, what a byshoppe of thys realme sayed once to me, he sent for me and merueyled that I woulde not consente to suche traditions, as were then sette out.

And I answered hym that I woulde be ruled by Gods boke and rather then I woulde dissent one iote from it I woulde be torne with wilde horses.

And I chaunced in our communication to name the Lordes supper? Tushe sayeth the Byshop. What do ye call the Lordes supper? What newe terme is that? There stode by hym a dubber, one Doctour Dubber he dubbed hym by and by and sayed that this terme was seldome rede in the doctours.

And I made answer, yat I wold rather folowe Paule in vsyng hys termes then them though they hadde all the doctours on theyr syde. Whye sayed the byshoppe, can not we wythoute scriptures order ye people? How dyd they before the scripture was syrste wrytten and copied out? But God knoweth, sul yl. yet woulde they haue ordered theim. For seyng that hauyng it, they haue deceyued vs in what case shold we haue bene nowe wythout it? But thankes be to God yat by so wonderful a miracle he hathe preserved ye boke ftyll. It foloweth in the texte Habebit fecum etc.* He shal haue it with hym in hys progresse, he muste haue a man to carry it, that when he is haukynge and huntyng or in any pastime, he maye alwayes commune with them of it. He shall reade in it not once a yeare, for a tyme, or for hys recreation when he is weary of haukyng or hunting but Cunstis diebus vitas fua.† All ye dayes of hys lyse. Where are those worldlynges now? These bledder pussed vp wylye men? Wo worth them that euer they were about any Kynge. But howe shall he read thys boke? as the Homilies are read. Some call theym homlyes, and in dede so they maye be well called, for they are homely handeled.

For though the priestes reade theym neuer so well, yet if the Paryshe like them not, ther is suche talk-ynge and bablynge in the churche, that nothynge can be heard, and if the parish be good, and the priest naught he wil so hacke it, and choppe it, that it were as good for theym to be wythout it for any worde that shal be vnderstande. And yet the more pitye. Thys is suffred of your graces byshops in theyr dioces vnpunished.

But I wyll be a futer to youre grace that ye wyll geue youre byshoppes charge yer they go home, vpon theyr allegiaunce to loke better to theyr slocke, and to se your maiesties iniunctions better kepte, and sende youre visitours in theyr tayles.

And if they be founde necligente or fauty in theyr duties oute with them. I require it in Gods behalfe, make them quondams all the packe of them. But peraduenture ye wil faye. Where shall we have anye to put in theyr roumes.

In dede I were a presumptuous fellow to moue your grace to put them oute, if there were not other to put in theyr places. But youre maiestye hath divers of youre chaptayns, well learned men, and of good knowledge, and yet ye haue some that be bad inough, hangers on of ye court. I meane not those, but if your maiesties chaplayns, and my Lorde Protectours be not able to surnishe theyr places, there is in thys realme, thankes be to God, a greate syghte of laye men wel learned in the scriptures, and of vertuous and Godly conversation, better lerned then a greate sight of vs, of the cleargy.

* And it shall be with him, &c —

All the days of his life.—Idem.

Deut. xvii. 19: see text at p. 55.

I can name a numbre of them that are able and woulde be glad I dare fay to minister ye sunction if they be called to it. I moue it of conscience to youre grace, lette them be called to it orderly, let them haue institution, and gyue them the name of ye cleargye. I meane not the name onlye, but lette theym, do the function of a byshop, and lyue of the same. Not as it is in many places, that one shoulde haue the name, and eyghte other the profytte.

For what an enormitie is this in a christian realme to ferue in a ciuilitye, hauynge the profyt of a Prouestshyp and a Deanry, and a Personage.

But I wyll tell you what is lyke to come of it. It wyl bryng the cleary shortely into a very slauerye. I maye not forget here my Scala cali, that I spoke of in my laste sermon. I wyll repete it now againe, desieryng your grace in Goddes behalfe that ye wyll remembre it.

The Byshop of Rome had a Scala cæli, but his was a mas[s] matter. This Scala cæli, is the true ladder that bryngeth a manne to heauen, the toppe of the ladder or fyrst greese, is thys.

Who so euer calleth vpon the name of the Lorde, shall be saued. The seconde stepe. Howe shall they call vppon hym, in whom they have no beleue.

The thyrd stayer is thys. How shal they beleue in hym of whom they neuer heard? The fourth stepe. Howe shall they heare wythout a preacher. Nowe the nether ende of the ladder is. Howe shall they preach, except they be sent. This is the sote of the ladder, so that we maye go backeward now, and vse ye fchole argument. A primo ad ultimum. Take awaye preachinge, take away faluation.

But I feare one thynge, and it is: lest for a falfety of a little money, you wyll put in chauntrye Priestes, to saue they pentions.

But I will tell you, Christe boughte Soules with hys bloude, and will ye fell theym for golde or fyluer.

I woulde not that ye should do wyth chauntrye priestes, as ye dyd wyth the Abbotes, when Abbeyes were put downe.

For when theyr enormities were fyrste read in ye parliment house, they were so greate and abhominable, that there was nothynge but downe with them. But within a whyle after, the same Abbottes were made byshops as there be some of them yet a lyue to saue and redeme theyr pentions. O Lorde, thinke ye, that God is a sole, and seeth it not, and if he se it, wyl he not punyshe it. And so nowe for salfety of money, I wold not yat ye should put in chauntry priestes, I speake not now against suche chauntry priestes as are able to preache, but those that are not able I wyll not haue them put in. For if ye do thys ye shall Answere for it.

It is in the text, that a king ought to feare god, he shal haue the dreade of God before hys eyes, worcke not by worldelye polycye, for worldly policie feareth not God.

Take hede of these claubacks, these venemouse people that wyll come to you, that wyll solowe lyke gnatoes and Parasites, if you solowe theym, you are oute of youre boke. If it be not accordynge to Gods worde that they counsayle you, do it not for any wordly policye, for then ye seare not God.

It followeth in the texte. Vt non eleutur cor eius. That he be not proude aboue hys brethern. A kynge muste not be proude, for God myght haue made hym a shepheard, when he made him a kyng, and done hym no wronge.

That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren.—Deut. xvii. 19: see text at p. 55.

There be many examples of proude kynges in scrypture.

As Pharao that woulde not heare the message of God. Herode also, yat put Iohn Baptist to death, and wolde not heare hym, he tolde hym that it was not lawefull for hym to marye hys brothers wyfe.

Ieroboam also was a proude kynge. An other kynge there was that worshipped straunge Gods and Idols, of those men whom he had ouercome before in battayle, and when a prophet tolde hym of it. What sayd he. Who made you one of my councel. These were proud kynges, theyr ensamples are not to be solowed.

But wherefore shall a kynge seare God, and turne neyther to the ryght hande, nor to the lest? Wherefore shall he do all thys? Vt longo tempore regnet, ipse et silii eius.* That he may raigne long, he and hys chyldren. Remembre thys I besech your grace. And when these statterers, and slybbergybes an other daye shall come and clawe you by the backe and fay.

Syr trouble not your felfe? What should you study? Why shold you do this or that. Your grace maye answer them thus, and say. What Syrra, I perceyue you are wery of vs, and our posteritye. Doeth not God sai in such a place. That a king shold wryt oute a boke of Gods lawe, and reade it? learne to seare God. And whye? That he and his, might raygne long, I perceyue nowe thou arte a traytoure.

Tell hym thys tale once, and I warrant you he wyll come no more to you, neyther he, nor any other after fuch a forte.

And this shal your grace drive these flatterers and claubackes awaye. And I am afrayed I have troubled you to longe.

Therefore I wyl furnyshe the texte nowe wyth an hystory or two, and then I wyll leaue you to God. Ye haue heard how a kyng ought to passe ye tyme. He muste read the boke of God, and it is not inoughe for hym to reade, but he must be acquainted wyth all scripture, he must studye, and he muste praye, and howe shall he do both these.

* That he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his children.—Deut. xvii. 20: see text at p. 55.

He maye learne at Salomon,

God spake vnto Salomon, when he was made a kynge, and bade hym aske of hym what he woulde, and he should haue it. Make thy peticion sayed God, and thou shalt obtavne.

Nowemarke Salomons prayer. domine, Odomine deus, fayd he. O Lorde God, it is thou that hast caused me to raigne, and haste set me in my fathers seate, for thou God onelye doeste make kynges. Thus should Kynges prayse God, and thanke God as Salomon dyd.

But what was his petition? Lorde, fayed he. Da mihi cor docile. He aske a docible herte, a wyse herte, and wysedome to go in and to go out, that is to begyn all myne affayres well, and to brynge them to good effecte and purpose, that I maye learne to guyde and gouerne my people. When he had made his peticion it pleased God wel that Salomon asked wisdome, and neyther ryches nor longe lyse, and therefore God made hym thys answere. Bycause thou hast chosen wysedome aboue al thynges I wyl gyue ye it, and thou shalt be ye wysest kyng that euer was before the, and so he was, and the wisest in al kynds of knowles get that euer was syth; and thoughe he did not aske riches, yet god gaue him both ryches and honoure, more then euer anye of hys auncitours had.

So your grace must learne howe to do of Salomon. Ye must make your petition, now study, nowe praye. They must be yoked togither, and thys is called pastime with good company. Nowe when God had geuen Salomon wisedome, he sente hym by and by occasion to occupy his wit. For God gaue neuer a gift, but he sent occasion at one time or an other to shewe it to Gods glory. As if he sent riches, he sendeth pore men to be helped with it. But now must men occupy theyr goodes other ways. They wil not loke on the poore, they muste helpe their children, and purchase them more land then euer their grandsather had before them. But I shall tell you what Christ sayd. He that loueth his child better then me is not worthye to be my disciple. I can not se how ye shal stande before God at the later daye, when thys sentence shall be layed agaynste you.

But to returne to my purpose, there were two pore women came before Salomon to complayne. They were two harlots, and dwelled togyther in one house, and it chaunced within. ii. dayes they chylded both. The one of these women bi chaunce in the nyght had kylled hyr child and rose priuely and went to the other woman, and toke hir lyue chylde away, and left hir dead chylde in hys place.

Vpon that they came boeth before Salomon to haue the matter iudged, whose the child was. And the one sayed, it is my chylde. Naye, sayeth the other, it is myne. So there was yea, and naye, betwene them, and they helde vp the matter wyth skoldinge after a womanly sashyon. At length Salomon repeted theyr tale as a good iudge, ought to do, and sayd to the one woman.

Thou fayst the child is thine, yea sayed she. And thou sayste it is thyne to the other. Well, setche me a swerd sayed he. For there was no way now to trye whyche was the true mother, but by naturall inclination.

And so he sayed to one of hys servantes. Fetche me a swerde and deuyde the chyld betwene them. When the mother of the chylde that accused the other hearde hym saye so. Naye for Goddes sake sayed she, let hyr haue the whole chylde, and kil it not. Naye quod the other, neyther thyne, nor myne, but let it be deuided.

Then fayed Salomon. Geue thys woman the chylde, thys is the mother of the chylde.

What came of thys? Audiuit omnis Ifrael. When all Ifraell heard of thys iudgemente, they feared the kyng. It is wysedome and Godly knowle[d]ge that causeth a kyng to be feared. One word note here for Gods sake, and I wyll trouble you no lenger.

Woulde Salomon beynge so noble kynge heare. ii. poore women. They were pore, for as the scripture saith. They were togyther alone in a house, they hadde not so muche as one seriuaunt betwene them boeth.

Woulde kynge Salomon I fay heare them in his own person? Yea forsothe. And yet I heare of many matters before my Lorde Protectour, and my Lorde Chaunceloure that can not be hearde. I muste defyre my Lorde protectours grace to heare me in thys matter, that your grace would heare poore mens futes yourselfe. Putte it to none other to heare, let them The faying is, nowe that mony is not be delayed. harde euery wher if he be ryche he shall soone haue an ende of his matter. Other are favn to go home with weping teares for ani help they can obtain at ani Iudges hand. Heere mens fuets your felfe I requyre you in godes behalfe and put it not to the hering of these veluet cotes, these vp skippes. Nowe a man can skarse knowe them from an auncyent Knyght of the countrye.

I can not go to my boke for pore folkes come vnto me, defirynge me that I wyll speake yat that theyr matters maye be heard. I trouble my Lord of Canterburye, and beynge at hys house nowe and then I walke in the garden lokyng in my boke, as I canne do but little good at it. But some thynge I muste nedes do to satisfye thys place.

I am no foner in the garden and haue red a whyle, but by and by commeth there fome or other knocking at the gate.

Anone cometh my man and fayth. Syr, there is one at the gate woulde speake wyth you. When I come there, then is it some or other that desireth me that I wyll speake that hys matter might he heard.

and that he hathe layne thys longe at great costes and charges, and can not once haue hys matter come to the hearing, but among all other, one especially moued me at thys tyme to speake.

Thys it is fyr. A gentylwoman came to me and tolde me, that a greate man kepeth certaine landes of hyrs from hir, and wilbe hyr tenaunte in the fpite of hyr tethe. And that in a whole twelue moneth she coulde not gette but one daye for the hearynge of hyr matter, and the same daye when the matter shoulde be hearde, the greate manne broughte on hys syde a greate syghte of Lawyers for hys counsayle, the gentilwoman had but one man of lawe: and the great man shakes hym so that he can not tell what to do, so that when the matter came to the poynte, the Iudge was a meane to the gentylwoman, that she wold let the great man haue a quietnes in hyr Lande. I beseche youre grace that ye wyll loke to these matters.

Heare them your selfe? Vieue your Judges? And heare pore mens causes. And you proude Judges herken what God sayeth in hys holye boke. Audite illos, ita paruum ut magnum.* Heare theym sayeth he, the small as well as the greate, the pore as well as the ryche. Regarde no person, seare no man. Why? Quia domini iudicium est.* The iudgemente is Goddes.

Marcke thys fayinge thou proude Iudge? The deuyl will brynge thys fentence at the daye of Dombe. Helwyl be ful of these Iudges if they repent not and amende.

They are worse then the wicked Iudge that Christe speaketh of, that neyther seared God, nor the worlde. There was a certayne wyddowe that was a suter to a Iudge, and she met hym in euery corner of the streate, criynge. I pray you heare me, I besech you heare me, I aske nothynge but ryght.

When the Iudge fawe hyr fo importunate, though I fere neyther God, fayth he, nor the worlde, yet by-cause of hyr importunatenes I wyll graunte hyr requeste.

* Ye shall hear the small as well the face of man; for the judgment is as the great, ye shall not be afraid of God's.—Deut. i. 27.

74 The seconde sermon of M. Latimer.

But our Iudges are worsse then thys Iudge was. For they wyll neyther heare men for Gods sake, nor seare of the worlde, not importunatenes, nor any thynge else. Yea some of them wyll commaund them to ward, if thei be importunat.

I hearde faye, that when a futer came to one of theym, he fayed. What fellowe is it that geueth these folke counsayl to be so importunate, he would be punyshed and commytted to ward.

Mary fye, punishe me then, it is euen I that gaue them counsayle, I woulde gladlye be punished in suche a cause. And if ye mend not, I wyll cause them to crye oute vppon you styll: euen as long as I lyue. I wyll do it in dede, but I haue troubled you long. As I began wyth thys sentence. Quecunque scripta funt. etc.* So wyl I end now wyth thys texte. Beati qui audiunt verbum dei et custodiunt illud.† Blessed are they that heare the worde of God and kepeth it.

There was an other fute and I had almoofte forgotten it.

There is a poore woman that lyeth in the Flete, and can not come by anye meanes that she can make, to hyr answere, and woulde sayne be baylled, offerynge to put in suerties worth a thousande pounde and yet she can not be hard. Me thinke this is a reasonable cause, it is great pitie yat such things shold so be. I besech God, that he wil graunte that all that is amyse may be amended yat we mai hear his word and kepe it, yat we may ecome to ye eternall blisse, to the which blysse I beseche God to bryng both you and me. Amen.

Rom. xv. 4.
 Blessed are they that hear the 28.

The thyrde

Sermon of Mayster Hughe Latimer, whyche he preached before the Upnge wythin hys graces Palayce at Mestmister the. xxii. daye of Marche.

Væcumque fcripta funt ad nostram doctrinam fcripta funt.* Al thinges yat are wrytten, are wrytten to be oure doctrine. Al thinges that be wrytten in Gods holye Boke the Byble, were wrytten to be oure doctrine longe before our tyme, to ferue from tyme to time, and so forth to the worldes ende.

Ye shall have in Remembraunce, mooste benynge and gracyouse Audience, that a preacher hathe ii. offices, and the one to be vsed orderly after an other.

The fyrste is Exhortari per fanam dostrinam.† To teach true dostrine He shall have also occation oftentymes to vse an other, and that is. Contradicentes conuncere.† To reprehende to conuynce, to consute gavnesavers and spurners against the truth.

Whye? you will faye, will anye bodye gayne faye true doctryne, and found doctrine? Well, let a preacher be fure, yat his doctrine be true, and it is not to be thought, that anye bodye will gainefaye it. If. S. Paule had not forfene that ther shold be gaynefayers, he hadde not neade to have appointed the consutation of gaynefayinge.

• Rem. xv. 4.

(A bishop). . . that he may be able by sound doctrine both to

Was there ever yet preachers, but ther were gaynfaiars? that spurned? that winst? yat whympered agaynste him? that blasphemed, that gaynesayed it?

When Moyfes came to Egipt wyth founde doctrine, he had Pharao to gaynefay hym. Ieremy was the minister of the true word of God, he had gainfayers the priestes, and the false Prophets borne vp by Achab.

Ely[as] had all Bals priestes supported by Iesabel to speake agaynste hym.

Iohn Baptiste and our Saujoure Iesus Christe, had the Pharifeis, the Scribes, and the priestes gaynsayers to theym. The Apostles, ye Apostles had gayne sayers also, for it was sayd to saynt Paule at Rome. Notum est nobis quod ubique sector huic contradicitur.* knowe that euery man doth gaynesaye thys lernyng. After the Apostles time the trueth was gaynesayed with tyrantes, as Nero, Maxentius, Domicianus, and fuche lyke, and also by the doctrine of wicked heritikes.

In the popish masse time, ther was no gaynsaiynge, al thynges femed to be in peace, in a concorde, in a quiet agrement. So longe as we had in adoration, in admiration, the popyshe masse, we were then with-oute gaynfaying. What was that?

The same yat Christe speaketh of. Cum fortis armatus custodierit atrium etc. † When Sathan the deuyl hath the guydynge of the house, he kepeth all in peace yat is in his possessyon: whan Sathan ruleth, and bereth domynion in open Religyon, as he dyd with vs when we preched pardon matters, purgatory matters and pylgremage matters, al was quiet. He is ware inough, he is wily, and circumfpect for stiryng vp any fedicion. When he kepeth his terrytory al is in peace.

Yf there were any manne that preached in England in times past, in the popes tymes, (as peraduenture ther was. ij. or. iij.) straight ways he was taken and naped in ye head wyth the title of an heretique. When against,-Acts xxviii. 22.

* For as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken with his palace, his goods are in peace When a strong man armed keep--Luke xi. 21.

he hath the religyon in possessyon he sturreth vppe no

fedytyon, I warrent yow.

Howe many difcentions have we hearde of in Turkye? But a fewe I warrant you. He bufyeth hym felfe there wyth no difcention. For he hathe there dominion in the open Religion, and neadeth not to trouble hym felfe any further.

The Iewes lyke ronnagates where fo euer they dwell (for they be disperst and be tributaries in all contryes where they enhabyte) loke ye Heare ye anve herifeis amonge them? But when fortis fuperuenerit* when one stronger then the Deuyl, cometh in place, whych is oure Saujoure Iesus Christe, and reueleth hys worde, then the Deuyll roareth, then he bestyrreth hym, then he rayseth diversitie of opinions to flaunder Gods word. And if euer concord should have bene in Religion, when shoulde it have bene but when Christe was here? Ye fynde faulte wyth preachers, and faye, they cause sedi-We are noted to be rassh, and vndiscrete in our preachynge. Yet as discrete as Christe was ther was diuersitie, yea, what he was him self. when he asked what men called hym. His Apostles answered him. Some fave, you are Iohan Baptiste, fome faye you are Helias, and fome faye, you are one of the prophets, and these were they yat spake beste of hym. For fome fayed, he was a Samaritane, that he had a Deuyll wythin him, a glofer, a drincker, a potcompanion.

There was neuer Prophet to be compared to him, and yet was ther neuer more discention then when he was, and preached hym felfe.

If it were contraried then, wil ye thynke it shal not be contraryed nowe, when charitie is so colde and iniquitye so stronge. Thus these backebiters, and sclaunderers must be consinced.

Sainte Paule fayed. There shall be intractabiles, that wil whympe and whine, ther shall be also Vani-

* But when a stronger than he shall come unto him.—Luke xi. 22.

loqui, vayne speakers. For the whyche Saynte Paule appoynteth the preacher to stoppe theyr mouthes and it is a preachers office to be a mouthe stopper.

Thys daye I muste somewhat do in the seconde offyce, I muste be a gaynesaver, and I must stoppe theyr mouthes, conuynce, resell, and consute that, they speake sclaunderouslye of me.

There be fome gaynefayers gaynefayers, for there be fome fclaunderouse people, vaynesyeakers, and intraclabiles whych I must nedes speake agaynst.

But fyrste I wyll make a shorte rehearsall to you in memorye of that, that I spake in my laste Sermon. And that done, I wyll consute one that slaundereth me. For one ther is yat I must nedes answere vnto, sor he sclaundereth me for my preachynge before the kynges maiestye. There be some to blame, that when a preacher is wearye, yet they wyll haue hym speake all at once.

Ye must tary till ye here more. Ye must not be offended till ye here the rest. Heare al and then iudge al. What ye are verye hastie, very quicke with youre preachers? But before I enter further into thys matter I shal desire you to praye, etc.

Fyrst of all as touchynge my fyrst sermon, I wyll runne it ouer curforie, ryppyng a lytle the matter. I The Epiloge, or rehersal of the fyrste sermon. Unique to beware of bywalk-sermon. Unique to beware of bywalk-ynges hygh way, and agre to that, which standeth wyth the ordre of a Realme.

I shewed you how we were vnder the blissyng of God, for our kinge is Nobilis, I shewed you we haue a noble Kynge. True inheritoure to the crowne with out doubte. I shewed furthermore of hys godly educacion. He hath suche schole Maysters as can not be gotten in all the Realme a gaine. Wherefore we maye be such thoughe he curssed thoughe he curssed ye realme, whose ruler is a chyld, vnder whom the officers be climbynge and glenynge, sturynge, scrachynge, and fcrapyng, and volupteously set on banketyng and for the maynetenaunce of their volupteousnes, go by And althoughe he be youghe The Counhath as good, and as fage a counfayle, as euer was in England, which we maye wel haue theyr condynge know by their godly procedinges, and and worthye fettynge fourthe of the worde of God: prayse worthely. Therfore lette vs not be worfe, then the The people stiffe necked Iewes. In kinge Iosias tyme, dyd not repyne agaynst Kynge Iosy-(who beynge yonge dyd alter, chaunge and correcte wonderfully the religion) it was as in hys mineuer hard in Ieurye that the people renorite. pyned or fayed, The kynge is a child. This geare wyl not last long. It is but one or two mens doinges. It wyll tarve but for a tyme. The kynge knoweth it not. Wo worth that euer fuch men were borne. Take hede left for our rebellion God take hys bleffynge a waye from vs. I entred into the place of the kynges pastyine. I tolde you howe he What is a muste passe hys tyme in readynge the Prynce lyke boke of God (for that is the kynges paftyme by gods appoyntemente) in the whyche boke he shal lerne to feare God.

Oh howe carefull God is to fet in an God is careorder all thynges that belong to a kyng, in his chamber, in hys stable, in hys trea- the order of the fure house.

These peuishe people in this Realme haue nothynge but the kynge, the kinge in theyr mouthes, The kinge is when it maketh for theyr purpose. As ther nes mouthe was a doctor that preached, the kinges when it makes for theyr maiesty hath his holy water, he crepeth to purpose. the crosse, and then thei haue nothynge but the Kynge There be my good the king in their mouthes. people that muste have their mouthes stopte, but if a man tel them of the kynges proceadynges, nowe they haue theyr shystes, and theyr putoss sainge, Many shystes and we maye not go before a lawe, we maye put offes, full for a kinres house and

breake no order. These be the wicked preachers, ther mouthes must be stopte, these be the gaynesayers. Another thing ther is yat I told you of, Ne eleuetur cor regis. etc.* The kynge must not be a kynge must not be proude. proude ouer hys brethren. He must order his people with brotherly loue and charitye. Here I broughte in exemples of proude kynges. Ιt ij. Kyndes of is a greate pride in kinges and maiestrates pryde in a kyng. when they wyl not heare, nor be conformable to the found doctrine of god. It is an other kinde of pride in kynges, when they thynke them felues fo high, fo lofty, that they difdaine and thinke it not for their honour to heare poore mens causes them felues. They have claubackes yat fay vnto them. What fir? what nede you to Kinges haue clawe backes and docter pyke mote and trouble your felfe? take you youre pleafure, hunte, Hauke, daunce, and dallye, aboute them. let vs a lone: we wyll gouerne and order Clawbackes counsell. the commune weale matters well ynoughe. Wo worth them, they have bene the roote of al myschife and destruccion in thys Realme. A kynge A kynge ought not only for to reade and study, but must pray as also to praye. Let hym borowe example wel as rede at Salomon, who pleafed God hyghlye wyth hys Salomon peticion, defyringe no worldly thinges, but prayed for wisedom, whych God did not onely graunt wysedome hym, but because he asked wysedome, he gaue hym manye mo thynges. As ryches, honoure, and fuch like. Oh, how it pleafed God that he asked wisdom? And after he had geuen him this wisdome he sent hym also occasion to vse the same by a couple of Here I told an example of a meke kynge, who fo continued, vntyll, he came into the company of strange women. He hard them not by meanes, or by anye other, but in hys owne person, herd the cauand I thinke verely the natural mother ses and comhad neuer had her own child if he had playntes of

* That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren.—Deut. xvii. 198 see text at p. 55.

They were hys people in hys owne not herd the cause hym selfe. Hoores althoughe some ex- persone. cufeth ye matter, and fay they were but typplers, fuch as kepe alehouses. But it is but foly to excuse them, feyng ye Iewes were fuch, and not vnlyke, but thei had theyr stewes and the mayntenaunce of whordom as they had of other vyces. One thynge I must here desier you to reforme my lords. You have put downe the Stues. But I praye you what is the M. Latimers matter a mended? what a vayleth that? request to the lordes for ye haue but changed the place, and not the abolished taken the whoredom awaye. God should ment of whorbe honored euery where. For the scripture sayth Domini est terra et plenitudo eius.* The earth and the land is the Lordes. What place shuld be then within a Christian realme left, for to dishonour God. I must nedes shewe you such newes as I here. thoughe I fe it not my felfe, notwithstandinge it commeth faster to me then I would wishe. I do as S. Paule doth to the Corinthians Auditur in vos fluprum.† There is fuch a whoredome amonge you as is not amonge the gentiles. So lykewife. Auditur, I here fay, yat ther is such whoredome in Englande as neuer was sene the like. He charged al the Corinthians for one mans offence fayinge. Al the Corin-They were al gilty for one mans fynne, if thyans charged for wo [one ] they would not correcte and redresse it, mans synne but winke at it. Lo, here may you fe how that one mans finne poluted al Corinth. A litle leauen as S. Paulle fayeth, corrupteth a greate deale of dowe. Thys is, Communicare alienis Peccatis, to be partaker of other mens fines I aduertife you in goddes name loke to it. I here fay, ther is now more More whorewhoredom in London, then euer ther was dom in Lonon the bancke. These be the newes I ther was on the banke, haue to tell you. I feare they be true.

* The earth is the Lord's, and the there is fornication among you.—
† It is reported commonly that

The earth is the Lord's, and the there is fornication among you.—

1 Cor. v. 1.

Neither be partaker of other men's sins.—1 Tim. v. 22.

Ye ought to here of it, and redreffes it, I here of it, and as paul fayeth, Aliqua ex parte credo.*

There is more open whoredome more stuede whoredome then euer was before. For Gods sake let it be loked vpon. It is youre offyce to se vnto it. Now to my consutacion. Ther is a certaine man that shortly after my syrst sermon, beynge asked if he had of one that reported. M. Latimer to be a sedicious fellowe. ous fellowe. ous fellowe. pinched me ther in dede, nay he had rather a ful bytte at me. Yet I comfort my felf with that, that bytte at me. Yet I comfort my felf with that, that Christ hym felfe was noted to be a sturrer vp of the Christ was people against the Emperoure, and was Christ was notyd for a sediciouse styrrer of the people.

contented to be called fediciouse. It becommeth me to take it in good worthe, I am not better then he was. In the kings daies that dead is, a meanye of vs were called together before hym to faye our myndes in certaine

How. M. Latimer was accused to oure late kynge of famous memorye Kynge Henry the eygthe and hys answere.

matters. In the end one kneleth me downe, and accuse the me of sedicion, that I had preached sediciouse doctryne. A heuye sell falutacion, and a harde poynt of suche a mans doynge, as yf I shoulde name hym, ye woulde not thinke it. The king turned to me and sayed. What saye you to that Then I kneled downe, and turned me firste to myne accuser, and required hym.

Syr what fourme of preachinge woulde you appoynt me to preache before a Kynge? Wold you have me for to preache nothynge as concernynge a Kynge in the Kynges fermon? Haue you any commyssion to apoynt me what I shal preache. Besydes this, I asked hym dyuers other questions, and he wold make no answere to none of them all. He had nothinge to saye. Then I turned me to the Kynge, and submytted my selfe to hys Grace and fayed I neuer thought my felfe worthy, nor I neuer fued to be a preacher before His aunswer youre grace, but I was called to it, and to the kynge. would be willynge if you mislike me, to geue place to For I graunt ther be a great many more worthy of the roume then I am. And if it be your graces pleafure fo to allowe them for preachers, I could be content to bere their bokes after them. But if youre grace allowe me for a preacher I woulde defyre your grace to geue me leaue to dyscharge my concience. Geue me leaue to frame my In preaching doctryne accordyng to myne audience. we must haue respect to the I had byne a veri dolt to haue preached place and to fo, at the borders of your realme, as I the persons, preach before your grace. And I thanke almyghtye God, whych hath all wayes byne my remedy, that my fayinges were well accepted of the kynge, for lyke a gracious Lorde he turned it into a nother communicacyon. It is euen as the scripture saieth. Cor Regis in manu domini.* The Lorde dyrected the kynges hart. Certaine of my frendes came to me wyth teares in theyr eyes, and tolde me, they loked I should have bene in the tower the same nyghte. Thus have I ever more bene burdened with the worde of fedition. haue offended God greuouflye, transgressynge hys lawe, and but for hys remedy and hys mercy, I woulde not loke to be faued. As for fedicion, for ought that I knowe, me thynkes, I shoulde not nede Christ, if I myght fo faye. But if I be cleare in anye thynge, I am cleare in thys. So farre as I knowe M. Latimer myne owne herte, there is no man further was euer voi from fedicion then I, the whyche I haue and yet styl declared in al my doynges, and yet it hath charged and burdebene euer laied to me Another tyme, when ned therwith. I gaue ouer mine office, I should have receyued a cer tayne dutye that they cal a Pentecostal, How. M. La it came to the fumme of fyftye and fyue timer hys pen pound, I fent my commissarye to gather was deteyned and it, but he coulde not be suffered. For it was fayed a fedicion shoulde ryse vpon it. Thus they burdened me euer wyth fedicion. So thys gentilman commeth vp nowe wyth fedicion. And wote ve what? I chaunced in my laste Sermon to fpeake a merye worde of the new shilling, Of the news shyllynge. to refreshe my auditory, howe I was lyke to put away my newe shillynge for an old grote, I was herein noted to speake sediciously. Yet I conforte my felfe in one thyng, yat I am not alone, and that I haue a fellowe. For it is, Confolatio miferorum. is the comforte of the wretched to have company. When I was in trouble, it was objected an [d] faved vnto me, yat I was fingular, that no manne M. Latimer thought as I thought, that I loued a fyngunoted of a syngularyte. laryte in all that I dyd, and that I tooke a way, contrary to the kynge, and the whole parliamente, and that I was trauayled wyth them, that had better wyttes then I, that I was contrari to them al. Marye fyr thys was a fore thunder bolte. I thought it an yrksome thinge to be alone, and to haue no I thoughte it was possyble it myghte not be true that they tolde me. In the. vii. of Ihon the Prestes sente oute certayne of the Iewes to bring Christ vnto them vyolentlye. When they came into the temple, and harde hym preache, they were so moued wyth his preachynge, that they returned home agayne, and fayed to them that fente them. Nunquam fic locutus est homo ut hic homo.* There was neuer man spake lyke this man. Then answered the Pharifes Num et uos feducti estis?† What ye brainfycke fooles, Ye hoddy peckes, Ye doddye A paraphrapoulles, ye huddes, do ye beleue hym? stical exposiare you feduced also? Num quis ex Principibus credidit in eum.‡ Did ye se anye greate man, or anye great offycer take hys part? doo ye fe any boddy follow hym, but beggerlye fyshers, and suche as ‡ Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?—Ver. 48. · Never man spake like this man. ·John vii. 46. Are ye also deceived?-Ver. 47.

* I partly believe it. -1 Cor. zi. 18.

The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD.-Prov. xxi. t.

haue nothynge to take to? Num quis ex Pharifeis? Doo ye fe anye holy man? any perfect man? any learned man take hys parte? Turba quæ ignorat legem execrabilis e/l.* Thys laye people is accurfed, it is they that know not the lawe, that takes hys parte, and none elles.

Lo here the Pharifes hadde nothynge to choke the people, wyth al, but ignoraunce. They dyd The byshopas our bythoppes of Englande, who vp- pes called the acoust brayded the people al wayes wyth ignor- noraunt and aunce, where they were the cause of it they were the There were fayeth faint them selues. themselues. Iohn. Multi ex principibus, qui crediderunt in eum.† Many of the chyefe menne beleued in hym, and that was contrarye to the Pharifyes fayinge. Oh then by lyke they belyed him, he was not alone.

So thoughte I, there be more of myne opinion then I, I thought I was not alone. I have nowe gotten one felowe more, a com- hath gotten panyon of fedition, and wot ye who is my phet to be his felow? Esai the Prophete, I speake but companion of a lytle preaty shyllynge. But he speaketh to Hierusalem after an other sorte, and Marke well was so bold to meddle with theyr coine thys terme. Thou proude, thou couetouse, thou hautye Esay medcytye of Hierusalem. Argentum tuum led wyth the coyne of the uerfum est in scoriam. Thy syluer is turned mynt into, what? into testyons? Scoriam, into drosse. Ah sediciouse wretche, what hadde he to do wyth the mynte? Why shoulde not he have lefte that matter to some mayster of policy to reproue?

Thy Syluer is droffe, it is not fyne, it is counterfayte, thy filuer is turned, you haddest good fyluer. What pertained that to Efay? Mary he espyed a pece of divinity in that polici, he threatneth them goddes vengaunce for it. He went to the rote of the matter, whych was couetouines. He efpyed two pointes in it, that eythere it came of couet- whye money

* But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.—John vii. 49.
† Among the chief rulers also many Isa. i. 23.

M. Latimer

in Esayes oufnesse, whych became hym to reproue, tyme was or els that it tended to the hurte of the more baser pore people, for the naughtines of the fyluer, was the occasion of dearth of all thynges in the Realme. He imputeth it to them as a greate He may be called a mayster of sedicion in dede. Was not thys a sedyciouse harlot to tell them thys to theyr beardes? to theyr face.

Thys fediciouse man goeth also forthe, sayinge. Vinum tuum mixtum est aqua.* Thy wyne is myngeled Esay medelwyth water. Here he medeleth with vinteeth wyth vinners, be like ther were bruers in those dayes, as ther be nowe.

It had bene good for our missal priestes to haue dwelled in that contrye, for they might have bene fure

Mayster Latimer was sumthynge scrupulous, when he was a Masse say-er, in delayinge of hys wyne wyth water.

to have hadde theyre wyne wel myngled wyth water. I remembre howe fcrupuloufe I was in my tyme of blyndneffe and ignorauncye, when I shuld faye masse, I haue put in water twyfe or thryfe for faylynge, in fo muche when I haue bene at my Memento, I haue had a grudge in my conscyence, searynge that I hadde not putte in Watter ynoughe.

Esaye spoke of one vyce but he mente yt of mo.

And that which is here spoken of wine, he meaneth it of al actes in the cytye, of al kindes of faculties, for they have al theyr medles and mynglynges. That he speaketh of one thynge, he meaneth generally of al. I must tell you more newes yet.

Cloth makers are become Poticaryes, yea and amonge the Gospellers.

I here faye, there is a certayne connyng come vp in myxyng of wares.

Howe fave you, were it not wonder to here that clothe makers should become poticaries

Yea and as I heare faye, in fuche a place, where as they have professed the Gospell, and the word of God most earnestly of a longe tyme. Se how busie the

* Thy wine mixed with water.-Isa i. 22.

Deuell is to sclaunder the word of god? Thus the pore gospel goeth to wracke. Yf his clothe be xviii. yerdes longe, he wyl fet hym on a racke, and streach hym out wyth ropes, and racke hym tyll the senewes shrinke a gayne, whyles he hath brought hym to xxvii. yardes. When they have of multiplybrought him to that perfection, they have a prety feate to thycke him againe. He makes me a pouder for it, an[d] playes the

Flocke pow-

A pretti kind

poticary, thei cal it floke pouder they do so in corporate it to the cloth, that it is wonderfull to consider, truely a goodly inuention.

Oh that so goodly wittes shold be so yl applyed, they maye wel deceyue the people but they can not deceyue God. They were wont to make beddes of flockes and it was a good bed to, nowe they have turned theyr flockes into a pouder to playe the false theaues with it. O wicked deuil what can he inuent to blaspheme Goddes worde? These myxturs come of couetouines. Thei are playne tures and theft. Woo worthe that these flockes multyplyinges are theft.

should so slander the worde of God.

As he faied to the Iewes, thy wyne is myngled wyth water, so myghte he haue sayed to vs of thys Lande. Thy clothe is myngeled wyth flockepouder. He goeth yet on. Thys fediciouse man reproueth thyshonorable cytye, and faied. Principes tui infideles.* Thou land of Hierusalem, thy magystrates, thy Iudges are vnfaythefull, they kepe no touche, they wyll talke of many gaye thinges, they wil pretende this and that, but thei kepe no promise. Thei be worsse then vnfaythefull, he was not afrayed to call the offycers vnfaythful. Et focii furum.* Felowes of theues, for theues and theues he calleth the felowes, be all of one forte They were magystrates wonte to faye. Aske my felowe yf I and fellowes be a thyefe. He calleth prynces theues. Why, ar[e] prynces theues? What a fediciouse harlot was thys? was he worthi to liue in a commune wealth that would cal prynces on yat wyfe, felowes of Had they a standynge at shooters hyll, or theues? Stangat hole to take a pourse? Why? dyd they, flande by the hyghe waye fyde Dyd they robbe? or breake open any mans house or dore?

* Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves. - Isa. i. sg.

Ther are two kynde of theuynges, a grosse kynde of theuynge and a prince ly kynde of theuynge.

Brybery is a kynde of theauynge.

Brybes haue gotten a new name and vnder a coloure are callyd gentyl re-wardes, but that is not theyr chrysten That is a groffe kind of theuynge. were princes, they had a pryncely kynde of theueynge. Omnes diligunt munera.* They alloue brybes. Brybery is a pryncely, kynde of theuing. Thei wil be waged by the rich, eyther to geue sentence agaynste the poore, or to put of the poore mannes causes. This is the noble thefte of princes. and of magistrates. Thei are bribetakers. Nowe a dayes they call them gentle rewardes, let them leave their colourynge, and cal them by their Christian name. Brybes. omnes diligunt munera.* Al, al all the prynces, all the Iudges, all the Prestes, all rulers are brybers.

were all the magistrates in Ierusalem, all brybe takers? none good? No doubte there were some good, This word omnes, fignifeth the mooste parte, and so there be some good I doubte not of it in Englande.

We are worase then the styffe necked necked Iewes. For we reade of none of them yat winfed, or kicked agaynst Esaies preachinge, or fayd yat he was a feditiouse sellowe. It behoueth the magistrates to be in credite, and therfore it might seme yat Esay was to blame to speake openli against the Magistrates. It is very fure that

The good wyl not spurne nor kycke at the preacher.

So it faryth by a galled Horse, they that be good wyl beare, and not spourne at the preachers, they that be fautye they muste amende, and neyther spourne, nor wynce, nor whyne. He that fyndeth hym felte touched or galled, he declareth hym felfe not to be vpryghte.

But yet we be farre worse then those styf-

* Every one loveth gifts.-Isa. i. 23.

Wo worth these giftes, they subuert instyce everye where. Sequuntur retributiones.* They follow bribes. Some what was geuen to them before, and they muste nedes geue somewhat againe, for giffe Gyffe Gaffe gafe was a good felow, this gyffe gaffe led was a good them clene from iustice. Thei folow giftes.

A good fellow on a tyme had an other of hys frendes to a breakefaste, and sayed: Yf you wyl come you shalbe welcome, but I tel you afore hande, you shal haue but sclender fare, one dish and that is al, what is that fayed he? A puddynge, and nothynge els. Mary fayed he, you fast to a pudcannot please me better, of all meates that dyngo. is for myne owne toth, you may draw me round about the town with a pudding. brybes as fast as the fe-These brybynge magystrates, and judges low dyd the follow giftes faster, then the fellow woulde puddyngo. followe the puddynge.

den to a break-

I am contente to beare the title of fedicion wyth Thankes be to God, I am not alone I am in no fingularytye. This same man that layed sedycyon thus to my charge, was asked an other tyme, whether he were at the fermon at Paules croffe, he Of the stout auniwered that he was ther, and beynge asked what news ther. Mary quod he, wonderful newes, we were ther cleane abMule had folued, my Mule and al had ful absolucion, ful absolucion at Paules ye may fe by thys, that he was fuche a Crosse: one that rode on a mule and that he was a gentylman.

In dede hys Mule was wyfer then he, for I dare faye, the Mule neuer sclaundered the Preacher. Oh what an vnhappy chaunce had thys Mule to carye fuche an Affe vppon hys backe. I was there at the fermon my felfe, in the ende of hys fermon he gaue a generall abfolucion, and as farre as I remember these, or suche other lyke were hys wordes, but at the leaste I am sure, thys was hys meanynge. As manye as do The preachknowledge your felues to be synners, and ers wordes confesse the same and standes not in de- lucion.

* And followeth after rewards.- Isa. i. 23.

fence of it, and hartelye abhorreth it, and wil beleue in the death of christ, and be conformable therunto, Ego abfoluo uos, quod he. Now sayeth thysgentylman, his mule was absolued. The preacher absolued but such as were sorye, and dyd repente. Be lyke then Mule. She dyd repent her stumblynge, hys Mule was wyser then he a greate deale. I speake not of worldely wysedome, for therin he is to wyse, yea, he is so wyse, that wyse men maruayle, howe he came truly by the tenth part of that he hath. But in wis-

The mysreport of. M. Latimer is worldlye wyse but in godly matters as blind as a beatael. dome which consisteth In rebus dei, In rebus falutis, in godlye matters and appartaynyng to oure saluacion, in this wysdome he is a blynd as a beatel. They be. Tanquam equus et Mulus, in quibus non est intellectus.* Like Horses and Mules, that haue no vnderstandynge. If it were true that the Mule repented hyr of her stumbling I thynke she was better

A charitable whysshe of M. Latimer How tender and deynety eared men of these dayes be, that had rather commyt. xx. fautes then here tel of one.

Poore mens sonnes for the most part haue euer traueled aboute the set-tynge forth of Goddes worde.

Iohannes Alasco. absolued then he. I praye God stop his mouth, or els to open it to speke better, and more to hys glory. An other man quickned wyth a word I spoke (as he sayed opprobriously agaynste the nobility that theyr chyldren dyd not set sourth Gods worde, but were vnpreachynge prelates) was offended wyth me.

I did not meane fo, but that fome noble mens chyldren had fet forth Goddes worde, howe be it the poore mens fonnes haue done it alwayes for the mooste parte. Iohannes Alasco was here a greate learned man, and as they saye, a noble man in his contrye, and is gone hys way a gayne, if it be for lacke of intertaynement, the more woulde wyshe such men as he to be in pytye. I woulde wyshe suche men as he to be in the realme, for the realme shoulde prospere in receyunge of them. Qui uos recipit, me recipit. † Who

As the horse, or as the mule, the that receiveth you receiveth which have no understanding.—Psa. me.—Matt. x. 40. xxxii. 9.

receyueth you receiveth me (fayed christ) and it shuld be for the kynges honour to receyue them and Yt is honorable for the kepethem. I heardfaye Mayster Melancton, Kynge to that greate clarke, shoulde come hyther. I be munificiwoulde wyshe hym, and suche as he is, to al and sypeal and lybehaue CC. [two hundred] pound a yere. The the learned. king shold neuer wante it in hys coffers at the yeres ende. There is yet among vs. ii. great learned men Petrus Martyr, and Bernardine, whych haue a. C. Petrus mar-[hundred] marckes a pece. I woulde the tyr and Bar Kynge wold bestowe a thousand pound on ine. that fort. Nowe I wil to my place againe. later ende of my fermon I exhorted judges to heare the small as wel as the great. Iuste quod iuslum est iudicate. You must not onelye do iustice, but do it iustlye, you muste observe all the circumstances. You as fynfull before the face of god as wrong iudgemente. I reherfed here a parable of a wycked Iudge, whiche for importunities fake, herde of the wicked the poore womans cause, et. cetera.* Here is a comfortable place, for all you that crye oute and are oppressed, for you have not a wycked iudge, but a mercifull iudge to call vnto. I am not so suld of folyshe pytye, but I can consider well ynoughe, that some of you complayne with out a cause. They wepe, they wayle, they mourne I am sure some not wyth out a cause. I dyd not here reproue all iudges, and sinde faute wyth all. I thinke we have some as Some as must geue iustice, and minister iust iudgemente in time. For the delayinge of matters of the poore folke, is

There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man painfull magistrates, as euer was in Englande, but I wyll not sweare they be all fo, and they that be not of the best, muste be successed.

Yet because this woman troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily.—Luke xviii. 2—8.

A good leasson for suche as are magistrates, but none of the best contente to be taught, and not disdayne to be reprehended. Dauid sayeth. Erudimini qui iudicatis terram.* I refer it to youre conscience.

Vos qui iudicatis terram.* Ye that be iudges on the earth, whether ye have heard poore mens causes wyth expedicion or no, Yf ye haue not, then erudimini, be content to be touched, to be tolde.

You wydowes, you orphanes, you poore people, here is a confortable place for you.

Thoughe these Iudges of the world wyll not heare you, there is one wyl be content with your importunitye, he wyll remedye you, if you come after a ryghte forte vnto him.

Ye fay. The Iudge doth blame you for youre importunitye, it is yrckesome vnto him. He entered into this parable to teache you to be importune in your petityon. Non defatigari, not to be weri. Here he teacheth you, how to come to How and by what meanes god in aduersitie, and by what meanes, we shuld resorte to God whyche is by prayer. I do not speake of in aduersitye the meryte of Christ, For he sayeth. fum via.+ I am the way, qui credit in me, habet vitam eternam! Who fo beleueth in me hath euerlastynge But when we are come to Christ, what is our way to remydy aduersitie? in anguyshe, in tribulacions? in our necessites? in our injuries? The waye is prayer,

We are taught by the commaundement of God. Inuoca me in die tribulationis et ego eripiam te. wyddowe, thou orphane, thou fatherles chylde, I speake to the that hast no frendes to healpe the, call vpon me in the daye of thy trybula-The swete cion, cal vpon me, Ego eripiam te.§

I wyll plucke the a waye, I wyl delyuer the, I wyl take the a waye, I wyll releue the, thou shalte haue thy hartes desyre. Here is the promyse, § Call upon me in the day of trou-ble: I will deliver thee, and thou * Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.—Psa. ii. 10. earth.—Psa. ii. 10.

† I am the way.—John xiv. 6.
‡ He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.—John vi. 47. shalt glorify me.-Psa. l. 15.

here is the comfort. Glorificabis me. Thanke me, accepte me for the author of it, and thanke not thys creature or that for it. Here is the Iudge of al Iudges, come vnto hym, and he wyll heare you. For he faieth, quicquid petieritis patrem in nomine meo. etc. What so ever ye aske my father in my name, shall be geven you thorough my merytes. You my rable people that are wronged in the world, aske of my father in your distresses, but put me a fore, looke you come not wyth bragges of youre owne merytes. The order of but come in my name, and by my meryte. and askynge.

He hath not the propertye of thys stout Iudge, he wyl beare your importunatenes, he wyll not be angrye at your cryinge and calling. The prophet saith. Sperauerunt in te Patres nostri, et exaudiuisti illos.‡ Thou god thou god, our fathers dyd crye vpon the, and thou heardest them. Arte thou not oure God as well as theyres. Ther is nothinge more pleasaunte to God, then for to putte hym in remembraunce of hys goodnes shewed vnto our foresathers. It is what God a pleasaunte thynge to tell God of the beneofyse and wherfytes that he hath done before oure tyme.

Go to Moyfes, who hadde the guydynge of Goddes people, fe howe he vsed prayer, as an instru- Moises vsed mente to be delyuered out of aduersitye, prayer as an instrument when he hadde greate roughe mountaynes in aduersitie. on euerye fide of hym, and before hym the redde fea. Pharaos hoste behynde hym, peril of death round about What did he? dispayred he? no, Whyther went he? He repayred to god with this prayer, and fayed nothing. Yet with a great ardency of sp[i]rit he perced gods earres. Now helpe or neuer good lord, now helpe, but in thi hand quod he. Though he never moued his lyppes, yet the scripture sayeth he cryed out and the lord heard hym, and fayd, quid clamas ad me ?§ Why cryest thou oute so loude? the people trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

Thou shalt glorify me.—Psa 1. 15.
Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
John xvi. 23.
Our fathers trusted in thee: they heard him fay nothynge, and yet God fayed. Why criest thou out. Straight wayes he stroke the water with hys rodde, and it deuided, and stode vp lyke two walles on eyther fyde, betwene the whyche goddes people passed, and the persecutours were drowned. Iofue was in angwyshe, and Iosue was in anguyshe lyke distresse at Iericho, that true captayne, and prayed, that fayethfull Iudge no follower of retributions, no brybe taker, he was no money manne, who made hys peticion to almyghty God to shewe him the cause of hys wrath toward hym, when hys army was plaged after the takynge of Ierycho. So he obtayned hys prayer, and learned, that for one mannes For Acans faulte al the reste were punyshed. couetu-Achans couetuousnes many a thousande ousnes, many a thousande were in agony, and feare of deathe, who punyshed. hyd his money, as he thought from God. But God fawe it well ynough, and brought it to lyght.

-Psa. xxii. 4. § Wherefore criest thou unto me? -Exod. xiv. 15.

Thys Achan was a bywalker. Wel, it came to paffe, when Iosua knewe it, strayghtwayes he purged the army, and tooke a waye. Malum de Ifrael, that is wyckednes from the people. For Iosua called him before the people, and sayed. Dagloriam deo.* Gyue Iosue put A-prayse to God, tell trothe man, and forthchan to wyth he tolde it. And then he and all losue. vii. hys house suffered deathe.

A goodly ensample for al magistrates to followe. Here was the execution of a true Iudge he was no Paralo. xx. gyste taker, he was no wynker, he was no bywalker. Also when the Assirians with an innumerable power of men in Iosaphates time ouerslowed the lande of Israel. Iosaphate that good king goeth me strayght to god, and made his praier Non est in nostra fortitudine said he, huic populo resistere, ti is not in our strength, O Lord, to resist this people, and after his praier God deliuered hym, and at the same tyme. x.M. [ten thousand] were destroyed. So ye miserable people, you must go to God in angusshes, and make your prayer to hym.

* Give ... glory to the LORD God of Israel.—Josh. vii. 19.

† We have no might against this

Arme your felues with prayer in your aduersities. Manye begyn to praye, and fodaynelye caste awaye prayer, the Deuyll putteth fuche phanta- Many begin fyes in theyr heades, as thoughe God to praye, but coulde not entend them, or had fome- seuer and conwhat els to do.

tynue in pray-

But you must be importune and not werye, nor caste awaye prayer. Naye synne and then you muste caste awaye synne. God wyll praye. heare your prayer, albeit, you be synners, I fend you a judge yat wyll be glad to heare you. You that are oppressed, I speake to you. Christ in this parable doth painte the good wyl of god towarde A notable lessyou, o miserable people, he that is not re- on for him whi-ceiued, let him not dyspayre nor thinke yat god hath forfaken him. For god tarieth tyl he feith a time, and better can do al thinges for vs. than we our felues can wish.

There was a wycked Iudge etc. What meaneth it that God boroweth thys parable rather of a wycked Iudge, then of a good? Bylyke good iudges were rare at that tyme, and trowe ye the deuyll hath bene asser as as as busy as ever he was. The commune maner of a wycked The common Iudge is, neyther to feare god nor man. maner of a wycked He confidereth what a man he is, and ludge. therefore he careth not for man bycause of hys pride.

He loketh hye ouer the poore, he wyll be hadde in admiration, in adoration. He femeth to be in a protection. Well, shall he scape? Ho, ho, est deus in calo.* There is a God in heauen, he accepteth no persones, he will punishe theim.

Ther was a pore woman came to thys judge, and fayd. vindeca me de aduerfario. + Se that myne aduerfari do me no wronge. He would not heare her but droue her of. She had no money to wage eyther him eyther them that were a boute hym. Dyd thys

* God is in heaven. - Eccles. v. s. + Avenge me of mine adversary .--Luke xviii. 3-see text at p. 91.

Whether Christian people maye seke to be auenged. woman wel to be auenged of her aduerfarye? maye Christyan people seke vengeaunce? The Lord saith. mihi vindictam et ego retribuam.* When ye reueng ye take myne office vpon you.

Thys is to be vnderstande of private vengeaunce. It is lawful for goddes flocke to vse meanes to put awaye wronges, to reforte to iudges, to requyre to have sentence gene of ryght. Saynte Paule sente to have sentence gene of ryght. Saynte Paule sente to have thys ordinary remedy, and Christe also sayd. Si male locutus sum etc.† If I have spoken evyl rebuke me? christ here Math. xxvi. answered for him self. Note here my Lordes and maisters what case poore wydowes and orphanes be in.

I wyll tell you my Lordes Iudges, yf ye confider thys matter well, ye shoulde be more a frayed of the pore wyddowe, then of a noble manne wyth all the frendes and power that he can make. But now a dayes the Iudges be a fraied to heare a poore man agaynste

The maner of our Iudges nowe a dayes in hearynge of the pore; against the ryche. the rych, in so muche, they wyll eyther pronounce agaynste hym, or so driue of the poore mannes sute, that he shall not be able to go thorowe wyth it. The greatest man in a realme can not so hurte a Judge as the poore wyddow, suche a shrewede turne fhe can do him.

How god tendreth and regardes the cause of the widdow and the poore.

Shysterian S

him. And with what armure I praye you.

She can bringe the Iudges skynne ouer hys eares, and neuer lay handes vpon hym.

And how is that? Lachrima miserotum descendant ad maxillas the teares of the owner vpoon they reheckes. Et ascendant ad poore fall downe vppon theyr checkes, Et ascendunt ad calum, and go vp to heauen, and cry for vengeaunce before god, the iudge of wyddowes, the sather of the widowes and orphanes. Pore people be oppressed euen by lawes. Va iis qui condunt lages iniquas. † wo worth to them that make euil lawes. If wo be to them yat make laws against ye poore, what shal be to them yat hynder and mare good laws? quid facietis in die vitionis.* What wyl ye do in the daye of vengeaunce, when God wyl vifyt you? He fayeth, he wyl heare the teares of poore women when he goeth on vifita-For theyr fakes he wyl hurte the Iudge, be he neuer so highe. Deus transfert regna. He wyll for wyddowes fakes chaunge Realmes, brynge theym into subjection. plucke ye Iudges skinnes ouer theyr heades.

• Vengeance is mine; I will repay, of the evil.—John xviil. 25. saith the Lord.—Rom. xii. 19.
† If I have spoken evil, bear witness righteous decrees!—Isa. x. x.

Cambifes was a greate Emperoure, fuche Cambises. an other as oure mayster is, he had many Lorde deputies, Lord prefidentes, and Leutenauntes vnder hym. It is a greate whyle a go fythe I reade the hystory. chaunced he hadde vnder hym in one of hys dominions a bryber, a gyft taker, a gratifier of rytche men, he followed gyftes, as fast as he that followed the puddynge, a hande maker in hys office, to make his fonne a great man, as the old fayinge is, say, but thou-Happye is the chylde, whose father goeth say, inge be none to the Deuyll.

The crie of the poore widdow came to the Emperours eare, and caused him to flay the ludge quycke, and laied his skinne in hys chayre of Iudgemente, that all Iudges, that shoulde gyue Iudgement and hys skyn layed in hys afterwarde, shoulde sytte in the same chayre. skinne Surely it was a goodly sygne, a goodly monument, the fygne of the Iudges skynne, I praye God we maye once fe the fygne of the skynne Amen. onels in Englande. Ye wyll faye peraduenture we pray god we may haue that thys is cruelly and vncharitably such incorrupfpoken, no, no, I do it charitably for a loue tible ludges I bere to my contrye. God fayeth. Ego desyre it. wisitabo. † I wyll visite. God hath two God hath. ii. visitations. The fyrste is, when he reueleth vysi[t]ations

And old soth of the newist of the trwest.

The brybing Iudge was flayed quicke

* What will ye do in the day of * I will visit.—Exod. xxxii. 34. visitation?—Isa. x. 3.

his word by preachers and where the fyrste is accepted, the feconde commeth not.

The feconde visitation is vengeance. He wente a visitatyon, when he broughte the iudges skynne ouer hys eares. If hys worde be dispised he commeth with hys feconde visitation with vengeaunce.

Noe preached Godes worde an. C. [hundred] yeares, and was laughte to gode for hys labour wifitation, God vifited the fecond tyme he poured downe showeres of rayne tyll all the worlde was drowned.

Genesis xix. Loth was a vifitour of Sodome, and Gomorre, but because they regarded not hys preachynge, God visited theym the seconde tyme, and brente theym all vp wyth brymstone sauynge Loth. Moyses Exodi: vi. came fyrst a visitation into Egypte with goddes word, and because they woulde not here hym, God visited them agayne, and drowned theym in the redde sea, God lykewyse with his sirst visitation visited ye Israelits by his prophetes, but because they woulde not heare his Prophetes, he visited them the seconde tyme, and dispersed them in Assiria and Babylon.

Iohn Baptiste lykewyse and oure Sauioure Christe visited theym after warde declarynge to them Goddes wyll, and bycause they despised these visitours, he destroyed Hierusalem by Titus and Vespasianus.

Germany was visited. xx. yeares wyth goddes word, but they dyd not earnestlye embrace it, and in lyfe folowe it, but made a myngle mangle and a hotchpotch of it.

I can not tell what, partely poperye, partelye true religion mingeled together. They fay in my contrye, when they cal theyr hogges to the fwyne troughe. Come to thy myngle mangle, come pyr, come pyr, euen fo they made mingle mangle of it.

They coulde clatter and prate of the Gospell, but when all commeth to al, they ioyned poperye so wyth

Of. M. Latimer.

it, that they marde all together, they scratched and scraped all the lyuynges of the churche, Couetousnes and vnder a couloure of relygion turned it cloked vnder a couloure of to theyr owne proper gayne and lucre. religyon a-God, seynge that they woulde not come Germaynes vnto hys worde, now he visiteth them in prouokyd Goddes the feconde tyme of hys visitacion with wrath tohis wrathe. For the takynge awaye of ward them Goddes word, is a manyfest token of hys wrath. haue now a fyrst visitacyon in Englande, let vs beware of the seconde. We have the mynystracyon of hys worde, we are yet well, but the house is not cleane

God hath fente vs A noble Kynge in thys hys vyfytacion, let vs not prouoke hym against vs, let vs be ware, lette vs not dyiplease hym, let vs not be vnthankefull, and vnkynde, lette vs be ware Godly adverof bywalkynge and contemnynge of Gods tisementes. worde, let vs praye dylygently for our kynge, let vs receyue wyth all obedience and praier, the worde of God. A worde or twoo more and I commyte you to God. I wyll monyshe you of a thyng. I heare saye ye walke inordinatelye, ye talke vnfemelye other wayes then it becommeth Christian subjectes.

fwepte yet.

Ye take vpon you to Iudge the Iudgementes of Iudges. I wyll not make the kynge a Pope, for the Pope wyl haue al thynges that he doth, taken for an Article of oure fayth.

I wyl not faye but that the kynge, and hys councell maye erre, the Parliamente houses both the hyghe and lowe maye erre. I praye dayely that they maye not

It becommeth vs what foeuer they Let vs learne decree to stande vnto it, and receyue it obedyentlye, as farre forthe as it is not duty toward manyfeste wycked, and dyrectlye agaynste the kynge the lawethe woorde of God, it pertayneth vnto vs to es and ordithynke the beste, thoughe we can not tender the Realmon a cause for the doynge of euery thynge.

For Charitas omnia credit, omnia sperat.* Charitye dothe beleue and trust al thinges. We ought to expounde to the beste al thynges, althoughe wee canno not yelde a reason.

Therefore I exhorte you good people pronounce in good parte al the facte and dedes of the magistrates and judges. Charyte judgeth the best of al men, and specvallye of magystrates. S. Paule saveth. Nolite iudicare ante tempus donec dominus aduenerit. Iudge not before the tyme of the lordes commynge. Prauum cor hominis. 1 Mans hart is vnserchable, it is a ragged pece of worke, no man knoweth hys owne hart, and therfore Dauid praieth and faieth Ab occultis meis munda me. § Delyuer me from my vnknowen faultes. I am a further offender then I can fe. A man shalbe blynded in loue of him self, and not se fo much in him felfe as in other men, let vs not therfore iudge iudges. We are comptable to god, and so be they. Let them alone, they have theyr countes to make. Yf we have charytie in vs we shal do this For Charitas operatur. Charitie worketh. What worketh it? marye Omnia credere, omnia sperare.* to accept al thynges in good part. Nolite iudicare ante tempus.†

Iudge not before the Lordes commynge. In this we learne to know Antichrist, whych doth cleuate hym selfe in the churche, and iudgeth at his pleasure before ye time. Hys canonizasions and iudging of men before the lordes iudgment, be a manysest token of Antichrist. How can he know? Saynctes? He knoweth not hys owne hart, and he can not knowe then by myracles. For some myracle workers shall go to the deuyl. I wil tel you what I remembred yester nyghte in my bed. A meruaylous tale to perceyue, how inscrutable a mans herte is. I was once at Oxford, (for I hadde occayson to come that waye, when I was in my offyce,) they tolde me it was a gayner way, and a fayrer waye, and by that occasion I lay ther a nyght. Beyng ther, I hard of an execution that was done vppon one what he saw that suffered for treason. It was as (ye once at know) a dangerous worlde, for it myghte Oxforde. soone cost a man hys lyse for awordes speakynge.

• [Charity] believeth all things, hopeth all things.—I Cor. xiii. 7, ... % Judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come.—I Cor. iv. 5.

† The heart is deceitful above all things.—Jer. xvii. 9.

† Cleanse thou me from secret faults.—Psa. xix. 12.

I can not tel what the matter was, but the iudge fet it so out that the man was condemned. The. xii. men came in, and sayed gyltye, and vpon that, he was iudged to be hanged, drawen, and quartred. When the rope was about hys necke, no man coulde perswade hym that he was in anye saute, and stoode there a great whyle in the protestation of his innocency. They hanged hym and cut him down somwhat to soone afore he was cleane deade, then they drewe hym to the fyre, and he reuiued, and then he commyng to his remembraunce confessed his saute, and sayed he was gylty. O a wonderful example, it may well be sayed. prauum cor hominis et inscrutabile.* A crabbed pece of worke and vnsercheable. I wyll leue here, for I thinke you know what I meane wel ynough.

I shal not neede to applye thys example any further. As I began ever with thys saying quacunque scripta sunt, this is a trouant and so I have a commune place to the ende, yf my memory sayle me, Beati qui audiunt verbum dei, et custodiunt illud. Blessed be they that here the word of god, and kepe it. It must be kepte in memory, in lyuynge, and in our conversacion. An yf we so do, we shal come to the blessednes, whych God prepared for vs thorow his fonne Iefus Chrift, to ye which he bring vs all.

Amen.

• The heart is deceitful above † Rom. xv. 4. all things, and desperately wicked. ‡ Luke xi. 28. — Jer. xvii. 9.

The fourth

Sermon of Mayster Hughe

Latimer, whych he prached before the kynges Maiestpe wythin hus Graces Palaice at Westminster the xxix. dave of Marche.

Væcumque scripta funt, ad nostram doctrinam fcripta funt.* All thinges yat are wrytten, are written, to be our doctrine. The Parable that I toke to begin with (most honorable audience) is wrytten in the xviii. chapter of S. Luke. and ther is a certayne remnant of it behind vet.

Parable is this There was a certayne Iudge in a cytye, that feared neyther God nor man.

And in the same cytye there was a wyddowe that required Iustice at his handes, but he woulde not heare hyr, but putte hyr of and delayed the matter.

In processe the Judge seynge hyr importunitye, fayed, thoughe I feare neyther God nor manne, yet for the importunitye of the womanne, I wyll heare hyr leaste she rayle vpon me, and moleste me wyth exclamations, and oute cryes I wyll heare hyr matter, I wyll make an ende of it.

Oure Sauyoure Christe added more vnto thys and fayed. Audite quid iudex dicat. et. cetera. Heare you layed Christ, what the wycked Iudge sayed.

And shall not God reuenge hys electe, that crye vpon hym daye and nyghte? Al thoughe he tarye and dyfferre theym, I fay vnto you, he wyll reuenge them and that shortelye. But when the sonne of manne shall come, shall he fynd fayth in the earth.*

* Rom. xv. 4.

That I maye have grace fo to open the remnaunte of thys parable that it maye be to the glorye of God, and edifiynge of youre foules, I shall desier you to praye. In the whyche prayer, etc.

I shewed you the laste daye, (mooste honourable Audience) the cause why oure Saujoure Christe, rather vied the example of a wycked Iudge then of a good.

And the cause was for that in those Why Christ dayes ther was greate plentye of wycked vsvd rather the example Iudges, fo that he myght borrowe an example amonge theym well ynoughe. Iudge, then For there was muche fcarfitie of good Iudges. I did excuse the wyddowe also for commynge to the Iudge agaynste her aduersary, because she dyd it not of malyce, she dyd it not for appetite of vengeaunce.

And I tolde you that it was good and A brefe reherlawefull, for honeste vertuose folke, for sal of thyngs Gods people, to vie the lawes of the toched and realme, as an ordinari helpe agai [n] It theyr hys thyrde aduersaryes, and oughte to take them as Gods holy ordinaunces, for the remedies of theyr iniuryes and wronges, when they are diffressed. that they do it charitiablye louyngelye, not of malyce, not vengeably, not couetouflye.

I should have tolde you here of a He meanyth certayne secte of heritikes that speake the Annabapagaynste thys order and doctryne, they tystes, for thys is one wyll haue no magistrates nor Judges on of theyr determined they be determined to the state of the wyll haue no magistrates nor Iudges on the earthe.

stable and

Here I haue to tell you, what I hearde of errores. late by the relation of a credible person, and a worshypful man, of a towne in thys realme of Englande that hathe aboue. v. C. [five hundred] heritykes of thys erroniouse

And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?—Luke xviii. 6—8.

The fourth sermon

104

Howe busye the Deuyl is to hynder the worde and sclaunder the gospel.

opinion in it as he fayed. Oh fo bufye the Deuyll is nowe to hynder the woorde commynge oute, and to sclaunder the Gospell. A fure argumente and euydent demonstration, that the lyght of

The deuyl is busy sturring is an euident argument that thys doctryne is true.

Gods worde is a brode, and that thys is a true doctryne that we are taught now, elfe he woulde not rore and flyrre a boute as he doeth whan he hathe the vpper hande. He wyl kepe hys possession quyetly as he dyd in the popyshe dayes, whan he bare a rule of fupremacye in peaceable possession. If he reygned now in open relygyon, in open doctryne as he dyd than, he woulde not flyrre vppe erronyouse opynyons, he woulde have kepte vs wythout contencion, wythoute dyffencion. There is no fuche dyuerfytie of opynions amonge the Turkes, nor among ye Iewes And why? For ther he raygneth peaceably in the hole relygion. Christ fayth. Cum fortis armatus custodierit atrium. etc.* Whan the stronge armid man kepeth thys house, those thinges yat he hath in po[ss ]ession, are in a quietnes, he doeth enioye them peaceably. Sed cum fortior eo superuenerit.* But whan a stronger than he commeth vpon hym, whan the light of goddes word is ones reueled, than he is busi, then he rores then he fyskes a brode, and styrreth vp erronius opinions, to sclaunder godds word. And thys is an argumente that we have the true doctryne. I bef[e]che God continewe vs and kepe vs in it. The dyuell declareth the fame, and therfore he rores thus and goeth a bout to flir vp these wanton headdes and busye braynes. And wyll you knowe where thys towne is? I wyll not tell you dyrectlye. I wyll put you to muse a lyttle. I wyll vtter the matter by a cyrcumlogution. Wher is it? Wher the byshop of the dioces is an unpreachynge prelate. Who is that? If there be but one eth his palace, his goods are in peace: But when a stronger than he shall spoils.—Luke xi. 21, 22, come upon him, and overcome him, fuche in al England, it is east to gesse. And if ther were no mo but one, yet it were to many by one. And yf there be moe, they have the more to auniwere for, that they fuffer in this realme an unpreaching prelacye vnrefourmed. I remember wel what. S. Paule fayeth to a byshop. And thoughe he spake it to Timothe beynge a byshop, yet I may say it now to the magistrates, for al is one case, al is one matter. Non communicabis peccatis alienis.* Thou shalt not I Timothe. v. be partaker of other mennes faultes. Lave not thy handes rashely vpon anye, be not to hasty in makynge of curates, in receyuynge menne to haue cure of Soules that are not worthye of the offyce, that eyther, canne not or wyl not, do theyr dutye. Do it not. Whye? quia communicabis Peccatis alienis.* Thou shalt be partaker of other mennes finnes. Nowe methinke it nedes not to be partaker of other mens finnes we shal find inough of our owne. And what is. municare peccatis alienis.* To be partaker of other mennes euils, if this be not, to make vnpreachynge prelates, and to fuffer them to continue stil in their vnpreachynge pr[e]lacye?

 When a strong man armed keep- he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his

If the kynge and hys councel should suffer euil Iudges of this realme to take bribes, to defeate inflice and fuffer the great, to ouer go the poore, Kynges and and shoulde loke through his fingers, and rulars muste wynke at it, should not the kinge be par-taker of theyr naughtynes? And why? Is he not supreme head of the church? syngers. what? is ye supremacye a dygnytye and no- A dignitie thynge else? is it not a dygnitye wyth a wyth a charcharge? is it not comptable? I thynke it wylbe a chargeable dygnitye whan accompte shall be asked of it. Oh what a vauntage hath the Deuvll? what entrye hath the wolfe whan the shepard tendeth not hys flocke, and leades theym not to good pasture? Saynt Paule doth fay qui bene præfunt pref- Timothe. v.

Neither be partaker of other men's sins. - 1 Tim. v. 22.

biteri duplici honore digni funt.* What is thys Praesse. It is as much to say as to take charge and cure of soules we say ille praesse, he is sette ouer the slocke. He hath taken charge vppon hym. And what is Torule wel Bene Praesse? To discharge ye cure. To what it is rule well, to sede the slocke wyth pure stoode, and good example of lyse. Well then, qui bene prassunt duplici honore digni funt.*

Thei yat discharge their cure wel are worthy duble honour? What is thys duble honour? The fyrst is reuerensed, to be had in estimation and reputacion with the people, and to be regarded as good pastours. A nother honoure is, to haue al thynges necessarye for their state, mynistred vnto theym. Thys is the double honour that they ought to haue. Qui prajunt Bene, that discharge the cure if they do it Bene.

There was a merye moncke in Cam-The merye monke of bryge in the Colledge that I was in, and Cambryge. it chaunced a greate companye of vs to be together, entendynge to make good cheare, and to be merye (as scholers wyll be mery when they are disposed). One of the company brought out thys fentence. Nil melius quam lætari et facere bene. There is nothyng better then to be mery and to do well. A vengeaunce of that Bene (quod the Monke) I would that, Bene had bene banished beyonde the sea, and that Bene were out, it were well. For I coulde be mery, and I coulde do, but I loue not to do well, that Bene marres altogether. I woulde bene were out quod the mery monke for it importeth many thynges to lyue well, to dyscharge the cure. In dede it were better for them yf it were out. And it were as good to be out as to be ordered as it is. It will be a heur Bene to some of them, when they shall come to theyr accompt. But parauenture you wyll faye What and they preache not at all? Yet præfunt. Are they not worthye double

Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour.—
 r Tim. v. 17.

honoure? is it not an honorable ordre they be in? naye a horible miforder, it is a horror rather then an honoure, and horrible, rather then honourable, if the preacher be naughte, and do not hys dutye. Where the And thus go these prelates aboute to wreastle preacher doth for honoure that the Deuyll maye take hys ty, ther the orpleatuer in sclaunderynge the realme, and der is not hothat it maye be reported abrode that we horryble. breede, herifyes amonge oure felues. It The entente is to be thoughte that fome of them woulde of vnpreahaue it so, to bring in poperye agayne.

not hys dunorable, but

chyng prela-

This I feare me is theyr entente, And it shalbe blowen abrode to oure holye father of Romes eares, and he shall sende forth hys thonderboltes vpon these brutes, and al thys dothe come to passe thorow theyr vnpreachynge prelacye.

Are they not worthy double honore? Nay, rather double dyshonore, not to be regarded, not to be estemed amonge the people, and to have no livynge at their handes? For as good preachers be worthy double honour: fo vnpreaching prelates be An argument worthy double dishonoure: They muste be of congruens at theyr doublets. But now these. ii. dishonoures, what be they? Our fauiour christ doth shew. infatuatus fuerit ad nihil ultra valet, nisi vt Math. v. proiiciatur foras* If the falte be vnfauerve it is good for nothinge, but to be cast out and troden of men. By thys falte is vnderstande preachers, and such as haue cure of foules. What be they worthye then? wherfore ferue they? For nothing elles but to be caste oute. Make them quondammes, out with them, cast them out of ther office, what shuld thei do with cure vat wil not loke to them? An other dishonor is Vt conculcentur ab hominibus.* To be troden under mens fete, not to be regarded, not to be estemed. They be at theyr doublets flyl. S. Paule in hys epistle qualifyeth a bishop, and saith that he must be cion.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but forth good for nothing, but to be cast if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thence men.— Matt. v. 13.

Aptus ad docendum, ad refellendum apte.* To teache and to confute all maner of false doctryne. But what shall a man do wyth aptenes, if he do not vie it? were as good for vs to be wyth out it. A byshop came to me the laste daye, and was angry A byshop angrye wyth M. Latimer wyth me for a certayne Sermon that I made in thys place.† Hys chaplayne hadde and why: because he wolcomplayned agaynste me because I had de haue the kynge make of vnprechinfpoken agaynste vnpreachinge prelates.

Naye quod the byshoppe, he made so ge prelates quondammes, indifferente a Sermon the fyrst daye, that dominus reg-I thoughte he woulde marre all the feconde daye.† He wyll haue euerye man a quondam as he is, As for my quondamshyp I thancke God that he gaue me ye grace to come by it by so honest a meanes as I dyd. I thanke hym for myne owne quondamshyppe, and as for them I wyll not have theym made quondams yf they dyscharge theyr offyce. I woulde haue theym do theyr dutye. I woulde haue no more quondams as God healpe me. I owe theym no other malyce then thys, and that is none at al.

Thys byshop answered hys chaplayne, The bishops well (fayes he) well I dyd wyfely to daie, answere to his chaplayn. for as I was goynge to hys Sermon, I remembred me that I had neither fayed masse, nor And homewarde I gate me as faste as I mattens. coulde, and I thanke god I have fayed A wyse anboth, and let hys vnfruteful Sermon alone. swere of may ster byshop Vnfruiteful sayeth one, an other sayeth to hys chap-Wel, vnfruitfull is the beste, layne, fedicious. and whether it be vnfruitfull or no, I can not tell, it lyeth not in me to make it fruitfull. And God worke not in your hertes: my preachynge can Preachers do you but lyttle good. I am Goddes ar Gods instrumentes. instrument but for a time. It is he that must give the encrease, and yet preachynge is necessarye. For take a waye preaching, and take a way falua-

I tould you of Scala cæli and I made it a preach-

* Apt to teach.—1 Tim. iii. 2. † The second sermon; see p. 66.

ynge matter, not a massyng matter. Christ is the preacher of al preachers, the patrone and the exemplar, [t]hat all preachers oughte to followe. For it was he by whome the father of heauen fayde: Hic est Filius meus dilectus, ipfum audite.* Thys is my welbeloued fonne, heare hym, Euen he when he was here on the earth, as wyfely, as learnedlye, as Thoughe circumspectli as he preached, yet hys sede chyd, yet his sede sell into onelye was fruiteful, and yf he had no thre partes better lucke that was preacher of all preachers, what shall we looke for? yet was ther no lacke in hym, but in the grounde: And so now ther is no fault in ye preachinge, the lacke is in the people that have stony hertes and thorny hartes. I befeche God to amend them. And as for these folke that speake against me, I neuer loke to have they goode worde as longe as I lyue. Yet wyll I speak of their wickednes, as long as I shalbe permytted to speake As longe as I lyue, I wyl be an enemy to it. No preachers can passe it ouer wyth fylence. It is the originall roote of all myschiese. As for me I owe them no other yll wyll, but He returneth I praye God amende theym, when it to the Parapleafeth him. Now to the parable. What dyd the wycked Iudge in the ende of the tale? The loue of god moued hym not, the lawe of god was this, and it is written in the fyrst of Deuterono-Deuteronomye. Audite eos. † Heare them. mye. 1. These two wordes wylbe heuye wordes to wycked iudges another daye. But some of them peraduenture wyl fay. I wyl heare them, but I wil heare fuche as wyl geue brybes, and these that wyl do me good tournes. Nave ye be hedged out of that lybertye. He fayth, Ita paruum vt magnum.† The smalle as well as the greate. Ye must do iustum, deale

This is my beloved Son, in whom not be afraid of the face of man; for I am well pleased; hear ye him.— the judgment is God's; and the Matt. xvii. 5. cause is too hard for you, bring if Matt. xvii. 5.

† Ye shall not respect persons in unto me, and I will hear it.—Deut. judgment; but ye shall hear the i. 17.

small as well as the great; ye shall Iustice muste be ministered without delays. mynister iustice, and that to al men, and you muste do it iusle. In tyme convenient, wythout any delayes, or dryuynge of, wyth expedycion.

Well, I faye, neyther thys lawe, nor the woorde and commaundemente of God moued thys wycked Iudge, What mone the myferye of thys wyddowe, nor the woryghteousnes of hys cause, nor the vpryghteousnes of hys cause, nor the wronge whyche she tooke, moued hym, but to auoyde importunitie, and clamoure, and exclamation, he gaue hyr the hearynge, he gaue hyr fynall sentence, and so she hadde hyr requeste.

Thys place of Iudgement it hathe bene euer vnper-All iudges fecte, it was neuer fene that all Iudges haue not done dyd theyr dutye, that they woulde heare dutve at all tymes. the fmall as well as the greate. I wyll not proue thys by the wytnes of anye pryuate maiestrate, but by the wyfeste Kynges sayinge that euer was. vidi fub fole, faith Salomon In loco iusticiæ, impietatem, et in loco æquitatis iniquitatem.* I haue The lacke of ministration fene vnder the funne, that is to fay, ouer of Instice al, in euery place wher ryght iudgement what Salomon dvd se shoulde haue bene, wickednes, as who in his time in Iudges should faye bribes takinge, defeatynge of iustice, oppressing of the pore Men sent away with wepynge teares, wythout anye hearinge of their causes, and in the place of equitie fayth he: I have fene No equity. No inflice a fore worde for iniquity. Salomon to pronounce vniuerfallye, generallye, and if Salomon fayd it, there is a matter in it.

I wene he fayed it not onely for hys owne tyme, but he fawe it both in those that were before hym, and also that were to come after hym.

Nowe comes Efay and he affyrmeth ye fame speaking of the judgementes done in hys time in the commune place as it myghte be Westminster hall, the gylde hall, the Iudges hall, the pretory house.

* And moreover I saw under the of righteousness, that iniquity was sun the place of judgment, that there.—Eccles. iii. 16. wickedness was there; and the place ease of ye peo-

Call it what you wyll. In ye open place. Indges sate For judges at that tyme (accordynge to the in the gates maner) fate in the gates of the cytye in the hye way.

the hye waye.

A goodly and Godly order for to fitte, Thys was fo that the poore people maye easily come easely come But what fayeth Efay that fedi- ple, for maietiouse fellowe? He sayeth of hys countrey be indued with Expectaui ut faceret inditium, et affabilitye. fecit iniquitatem.* I loked the judges should do theyr dutye, and I saw them woorke iniquitie.

Ther was brybes walking, money makynge, makynge of handes (quod the Prophete) or rather There was bribes and bribe almyghtye God by the Prophete, fuche is bers as wel theyre parcialitye, affection, and brybes. then as nowe. They be suche money makers, inhauncers, and promoters of them felues.

Efaye knewe thys by the cryynge of the people. Ecce clamor populi.* fayeth he. And thoughe fome amonge theym be vnreasonoble people (as manye be nowe adayes) yet no doubte of it some cryeth not wythoute a cause. And why? Theyr The teares of matters are not hearde, they are fayne the pore whoto go home with weping teares, that fal according to downe by theyr chekes, and afcende vp to equity and iustice herd, cry heauen and crye for vengeaunce. Let for vengeaunce Iudges loke about them, for furelye God to God. wyll reuenge hys elect one daye.

And furelye me thynke, yf a Iudge woulde followe but a worldelye reason, and wey the An aduertisematterpolitikelye, wythoute these examples ment to our of fcrypture, he should feare more the hurt that maye be done hym by a poore wyddowe, or a myserable man, then by the greatest Gentyll man of them al. God hath pulled the judges skines ouer their heades, for the pore manns take yea, the pore wyddowe maye do hym more hurt wyth hyr poore

· He looked for judgment, but be- hold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. - Isa. v. 7.

pater noster in hyr mouth, then any other weapon, and wyth. ii. or thre wordes shall bryng hym downe to the grounde, and destroye his iolitye, and cause hym to lose more in one day, then he gate in seuen yeres, for God wyll reuenge these miserable solkes, that can not helpe them selues. He sayth. Ego in die uisitationis etc.* In the daye of visitation I wyll reuenge theym? An non vlciscetur anima mea?† Shall not my soule be reuenged? As who shoulde saye.

I must nedes take theyr part. Veniens veniam et non tardabo.

Yes though I tary, and though I feme to linger neuer fo longe yet I wyl come at lengthe, and that shortely.

And is god spake this, he wil persourme his promise. He hath for theyr sakes as I tolde you, pulled the skynne ouer the judges ears or thys.

Dauid was deceyued in putting trust in his iudges when he waxed olde him selfe. Kynge Dauid trusted some in hys olde age, that dyd hym no very good seruice.

Nowe if in the people of God there were fome folkes that fell to brybing, then what was ther amonge the Heathen?

Absalon was a bywalker, a bywalker. Absalon Dauids sonne was a bywalker, and made a disturbaunce among the people in his sathers tyme.

And thoughe he were a wycked man and a by walker, yet some there were in that tyme that were good, and walked vpryghtlye.

I speake not thys agaynste the Iudges seate. I speake not as though all iudges were naught, and as though I dyd not holde with the Iudges, maiestrates, and officers, as the Anabaptistes these saulse herytykes do. But I Iudge them honorable, materials are necessary, and Goddes ordinaunce. I

Iudges are honorable necessary, and Gods ordinaunces concerning theyr offices. necessary, and Goddes ordinaunce. I speake it as scripture speaketh to giue a Caueat and a warnynge to all maiestrates, to cause theym to loke to theyr offyces, for the deuyll, the greate maiestrate, is will not tarry.-Heb. x. 37.

* Isa. x. 3. † Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?— Jer. v. 29.

† Though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.—Hab. ii. 3.

He that shall come will come, and to make them

verye buly nowe, he is euer doynge, he neuer ceafeth to go about to make them like hymselfe. prouerbe is. Simile gaudet simili. Lyke woulde haue lyke: If the judg be good and voryght he wyll affaye to deceaue hym eyther by the fubtyll The craft of fuggestion of crafty lawyers or els by the deuyll. false wytnesse, and subtyl vtterynge of a wronge He goeth about as much as he can to corrupt the men of lawe, to make them fal to brybery, to laye burdens on poore mennes backes, and to make them fal to periurye, and to bryng into the place of iudgement al corruption, iniquytie, and im-I have fpoken thus much, to occasyon al Iudges and maiestrates to loke to theyr offyces. They had nede to loke about them. Lest the deuil

This geare moued faint Chrisostome bebehyndthem to speake thys sentence. Miror si. aliquis to make the peruerte Iurectorum potest faluari. I maruaile (saied stice. this doctoure) if anye of these rulers or the thynge (God forbyd that all the maiestrates and iudges shoulde be condempned) but for the difficultye.

A notable and bolde saying of Chrisogreat maiestrates can be saued. He spake it not for the impossibilitie of stome.

Oh that a man myghte haue the con- If the deuyll templation of hell, that the deuyll woulde wold allow alowe a man to loke into hel, to fe the into hel what flate of it, as he shewed al ye world when he tempted Christ, in the wyldernes. Commonstrat illi omnia regna mundi.* He shewed him al the kyngedomes of the worlde, and all theyr Math. iiii. iolitye, and tolde hym that he woulde gyue hym all, if he woulde knele downe and worshyp hym. He lyed lyke a faulse harlot, he could not gyue theim he was not able to give fo much as a gofe wynge: for they were none of hys to gyue.

The tother that he promysed them vnto: had more ryghte to them then he.

• Sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them.

— Matt. iv. 8

But I faye if one were admitted to viewe hell thus, and beholde it thorowly, and the deuyll woulde faye.

Vnpreching prelates are wyth the deuyll in hell God saue vs, but they be not there alone, for brybynge Iudges are wyth theim for companye.

He returneth to hys former

On yonder tyde are punished vnpreaching prelates, I thynke a man shoulde se as farre as a kennyng and se nothynge but vnpreachynge Prealates.

He myghte loke as farre as Calyce I warrant you. And then if he would go on the other fide, and shewe wher that brybynge iudges were, I thynke he shold se so many, that there were scant roume for any other. Our Lord amende it. Well to our matter. This Iudge I speake of, faid. Though I feare neyther God, nor man, et.c. And did he thynke as he fayed? Dyd he thynke thus? Is it ye maner of wicked Iudges to confesse, theyr faultes nay he thought not so.

And a man had come to hym, and called hym wycked, he woulde forth wyth haue commaunded hym to ward, he woulde haue defended hym felfe floutly.

Whi the iudge was forsed then to confesse his faultes.

It was god that spake in hys conscience.

God putteth hym to vtter suche thynges as he sawe in hys herte, and were hydde to hym felfe.

And there be lyke thynges in ye scripture, as. Dixit instpiens in corde fuo non est deus.* The vnwyse man sayd in his hert, there is no God, and yet if he shoulde haue bene asked the question, he would haue denied it.

Esay the prophet sayeth also. mendatio protest sumus. † We are desended with lyes. We have put our trust in lyes.

And in an other place he faieth. Ambulabo in prauitate cordis mei. I wyll walke in the wyckednes of my herte. He vttereth what lyeth in hys herte, not knowne to hym felfe, but to God.

Ezechiel described the herte of man. defcribeth mannes hert in his colours.

The fool hath said in his heart,

There is no God.—Psa. xiv. 1.

We have made lies our refuge.—

Isa. xxviii. 15.

Every one that walketh after the imaginations of his own heart.—Jer xxiii. 17.

prauum cor hominis et infcrutabile.* The herte of man is naughti, a croked, and Among al thin a froward pece of worke.

Let euery man humble hym selse, and acknowledge hys fault? and do as faynte Paule dyd.

When the people to whome he had preached, had fayed manye thynges in his commendation, yet he durft not inftify him felfe. Paule woulde not prayfe hym felfe to hys owne inftification, and therfore when they hadde spoken hym selfe. These thynges by him I passe not all sayth he, what ye saye by me. I wyl not stande to your reporte, and yet he was not froward, that when he heard the trueth reported of hym, he woulde saye it to be false, but he sayed, I wyll neyther stande to your reporte, though it be good and inste, neyther yet I wyl say that it is vntrue. He was Bonus Passor.

A good shepeheard. He was one of theym. qui bene prafunt. + that dyscharged hys cure, and yet he thoughte that there myghte be a further thynge in hym felfe then he sawe in him selfe.

And therefore he fayed. The Lorde shall Iudge me. I wyll stand onely to the Iudgemente of the Lord. For loke whom he iudges to be good, he is sure he is fafe, he is cocke fure.

I spake of thys geare the laste day, and The truth of some I had little thanke for my laboure. settes hatred. I smelled some solkes that were greated with me for it, bicause I spak against temerarious sudgement? What hath he to do with sudgmente? say they. I went about to kepe you from arrogant sudgmente. Wel I could haue sayed more then I dyd, and I can saye muche more nowe.

For why? I knowe more of my Lorde admirals death fith that tyme, then I did knowe before. O faye they. The man dyed very boldly, he woulde not haue done so, hadde he not bene in a juste quarell.

* The heart is deceitful above all Jer. xvii. 9.

things, and desperately wicked.— + That rule well.— 1 Tim. v. 2.

The argument of such men as thought the Lord admirals cause to be good, bicause he toke hys death so boldli is confuted.

The Anabaptistes howe thei toke their death. Thys is no good argument my frendes. A man femeth not to feare death, therfore hys can fe his good. Thys is a deceauable argumente. He went to hys death boldely, ergo he standeth in a just quarel.

The Anabaptistes that were brente here in dyuers townes in England, as I heard of credible menne (I sawe them not my selfe) went to they death, euen Intrepide. As ye wyll saye with out any seare in the world chearfully. Well, let them go.

There was in the olde doctoures tymes an other the Donatistes howe they dyed wente to their execution as thoughe they should have gone to some iolye recreation or banket, to some bealye chere, or to a play. And wyll ye argue then? He goeth to hys death boldely, or chearefullye, Ergo he dyeth in a iuste cause Naye that sequel foloweth no more then thys.

A man femes to be a frayed of death, Ergo he dyeth euyl. And yet oure Sauioure Christe was a frayed of death him felfe.

I warne you therefore, and charge you Iudge not them in autho- not to judge theym yat be in authoritie, rity rashly. etc. but to praye for them. It becometh vs not to Iudge greate maiestrates, nor to condemne theyr doinges, vnlesse theyr dedes be openly and Charite is the apparantlye wycked. Charitye requireth cognisaunce & the fame, for charitye judgeth no man, but badg of a chriwell of euery bodye. And thus we maye trye whether wee haue charitye or no, and if we haue not charitye wee are not Gods disciples, for they are knowen by that badge He that is hys disciple, hath the worcke of charity in hys breaft.

It is a worthye fayinge of a clarke. Charitas si est, operatur, si non operatur, non est. If there be charity it worketh, Omnia crede re, omnia sperare.* To beleue all thinges, to hope al, to fay ye best of the maiestrates, and not to stand to the defending of a wicked matter. I wil go farder with you now. If I should have sayed al that I knewe, youre eares woulde haue M. L. said not yrked, to haue hearde it, and nowe God all yat he knew hathe brought more to lyghte. And as concernynge the lord admitouchyng the kynde of hys death, whether ralles cause. he be faued or no, I referre that to God onely. God can do, I can tell. I wyl not denye but that he maye in the twynkeling of an eye, faue a man, and turne hys herte. What he dyd I can not tell. And when a man hathe two strokes wyth an axe, whoo can tel that betwene two strokes he doth repente. It is very hard to judge Well, I wyll not go fo nye to worke, but thys I wyl fay, if thei aske me what I thinke of hys deathe, that he dyed verye daungerously, yrkefomelye, horryblye.

Believeth all things, hopeth all things.—I Cor. xiii. 7.

The man beyng in the tower wrote cer- The. ii. lyttle tayne papers whyche I sawe my selfe. Thei papers which were two lyttle ones, one to my Ladye miral wrote Maryes grace, and an other to my Ladye in the tower. Elizabethe grace, tendynge to thys ende, that they shoulde conspyre a gaynste my Lorde protectours grace. Surely fo feditiousli as could be. Nowe what a kind of death was thys, that when he was readye to laye his head vpon the blocke, he turnes me to the leuetenauntes feruaunte and fayeth.

Byd my feruaunte spede the thynge that he wortes of? Wel, the worde was ouer heard.

The wordes he spake to ye leuitenauntes

Hys feruaunte confessed these two Papers, and they were founde in a shooe of hys. They were fowen betwene the foules of a veluet shooe, He made his ynke fo craftely, and wyth fuch workemanship as the lyke hath not bene sene.

I was prisoner in the tower miselfe, and I coulde neuer inuente to make ynke fo. It is a wonder to heare of hys fubrilitie. He made hys pen The penne of of the aglet of a poynte that he plucked the aglet of a from hys hofe, and thus wrote these letters foo feditiouslye, as ye haue hearde, enforsynge manve matters agaynste my Lorde protectours grace, and so God had lefte hym to him felfe, he hadde cleane forfaken hym. What woulde he haue done if he had liued flyll? that wente a bout this geare, when he layed hys head on the blocke at the ende of hys Charitye (they faye) worketh but Godly, not after thys forte. Well, he is gone, he knoweth hys fare by thys, he is eyther in joye or in payne. There is but two states if we be once gone. There There is but Thys is the speach of two states. is no chaunge. The state of the scripture. vbicunque lignum ceciderit saluacion and the state of damibi erit, siue in austrum, siue in aquilone[m].* Wherefoeuer the tree falleth, eyther into the fouthe, or into the north, there it shall rest.

By the fallynge of the tree, is fignifyed the death of man. If he fall into the Southe, he shall be saued.

For the Southe is hote, and betokeneth charitye or faluation. If he fall in the northe in the colde of infidelity, he shal be dampned. There are but two states, the state of faluation, and the state of damnation.

Ther is no repentaunce after thys lyfe, But if he dye in the state of dampnation, he shal rise in the same. Yea, thoughe he haue a whole Monkerye to synge for hym. He shall haue hys synall Sentence when he dyeth.

The servaunt which vttered the secretes, of the two letters is commendid of M. L.

And that feruaunte of hys, that confessed and vttered thys gere was an honest manne. He dyd honestlye in it. God putte it in hys herte. And as for the tother whether he be faued or no I leaue it to God.

But furelye, he was a wycked man, the realme was well rydde of hym.

It hathe a treasure, that he is gone. He knoweth hys fare by thys.

A terrible example fuerlye, and to be noted of euery man. Nowe before he shoulde dye, I heard say he had commendations to the kynge, and The lorder spake manye wordes of hys maiestye. All admiral had commendations is the kynge, the Kynge. Yea Bona verba. to the kynge before hys These were sayre wordes the kynge, the kyng. I was trauailed in the tower my felfe (wyth the kynges commaundemente, and the counsayle) and there was fyr Roberte Cunstable, the Lorde Huffye, the Lord Darfy. And the Lorde Darfye, was tellynge me of the favethfull feruice that he hadde What the done the kynges maiestye that dead is. Lord Darsve And I had fene my Soueraygne Lorde in ster Latimer the fylde (fayd he) and I had fene hys in ye tower. grace come a gaynste vs. I woulde have lyghted from my horse, and taken my swerde by the poynt, and velded it into hys graces handes. Mary quod I but in the meane feafon ye played not the parte of a fayethfull fubiecte in holdynge wyth the people in a commotion, and a disturbaunce. It hath bene the cast of al traytours to pretend nothing agaynste The commune the kynges person, they neuer pretende cast of al traytours. the matter to the kynge, but to other.

* If the tree fall toward the south, where the tree falleth, there it shall or toward the north, in the place be.—Eccles. xi. 3.

Subiectes maye not refyste anye magiftrates, nor oughte to do nothynge contrave duty of subto the kynges lawes. And therefore these wordes, the kyng and so forth, are of smalle effecte.

I hearde once a tale of a thinge yat was done at Oxforde. xx. yeres a go, and the happened at lyke hath bene sence in thys realme as I was enformed of credible persons, and some of them that sawe it be alyue yet.

There was a prieste that was robbed of a priest robard agreate some of money, and there were the summe of ii. or. iii. attached for the same robbery money. and to be bryese were condemned and broughte to the place of execution. The syrste manne, when he was vpon the ladder denied the matter vtterly, and toke his death vpon it that he neuer consented to the robbery of the prieste nor neuer knew of it. When he was deade, the second selection and maketh his protestation and acknowleged the faulte, sayinge, that among other greuouse offences that he had done he was accessary to thys robberye and sayeth he, I hadde my parte of it, I crye God mercy so hadde thys felow that dyed before me hys parte. Now who can iudge whether thys felow dyed wel or no? Who can iudge whether thys felow dyed wel or no? Who can iudge a mans herte? The one denyed the matter, and the tother consessed it, there is no Iudgynge of suche matters. I have hearde muche wyckednes of thys manne, and I have thought oft, Iesu, what wyl worth, what wyl be the ende of thys man?

When I was wyth the byshop of Chechester in warde (I was not so wyth hym, but my frendes might come to me, and talke wyth me) I was desirous to heare of execution done (as ther was eueri weke, some in one place of the citye or other) for there was thre wekes some of theim were neuer so diligent sythe.

I was defirous I faie to heare of execution, bycaufe I loked that my part shoulde have bene in, I loked every daye to be called to it my felfe.

- Amonge all other I he

Amonge all other I heard of a wanton woman, a naughtye lyuer, a whore, a vayne bodye, yat was ledde from newgate to the place of execution, for a certaine robberye that the had committed, and the hadde a wycked commu-

M. Latimer exhorteth the kynges grace that learned men might be appoynted to such as shall suffer and are conuict persons.

For the reuerence of God when they be put to execution, let them haue inftructiours, for manye of their are cast away for lacke of instruction, and dye miserably for lacke of good preaching.

This woman I say as she wente by the waye, had wanton and folyshe talke, as thys, that if The whores good felowes hadde kept touch wyth hyr, words as she went to execusible hadde not bene at thys tyme in that tion. case, and amongeste al other talke, she saied, that such a one, and named this manne, hadde hyr maidenheade syrste, and herynge thys of hym at that tyme, I loked euer what woulde be hys ende, what woulde be come of hym.

He was a manne the fardest frome the seare of God that euer I knewe or heard of in Englande. Fyrste, he was author of all thys womannes whoredome. For if he had not had hyr maydenhead, she myghte haue bene maried, and become an honeste womanne, wher as nowe beynge nought wyth hym, shee fell afterwarde by that occasion to other. And they that were nought wyth her, sel to robbery and she folowed, and thus was he author of all thys.

This geare came bi Sequels. Peraduenture thys maye feme to be a lyghte matter, but furelye it is a greate matter, and he by vnrepentaunce fell frome euyll to worse, and frome worse, to worste of all, til at the length he was made a spectacle to all the worlde. I have hearde saye, he was of the opinion that he beleued not the immortalytye of the soule that he was not ryght in yat matter. And it mighte well appeare by the takynge of hys death. But ye wyll saye. What ye sclaunder him, ye breake charitye.

Nay it is charitie that I do. We canne haue no better vse of hym nowe, then to warne other to beware by hym.

Christ faith Memores estate vxoris Lottes wyse Loth.* Remembre Lothes wise? She ple to content was a woman that wold not be content our selues with with hir good state, but wresteled wyth our state. Gods callynge, and shee was for that cause turned into a salte stone, and therefore the scripture doeth name hir as an example for vs to take hede by. Ye shall se also in the second Epistle of saint Peter the seconde

* Remember Lot's wife.-Luke xvii. 32.

The fourth sermon

God spared not hys aungellis.

122

The whole worlde was drowned, Sodome and Gomor was burnte and all for Gene. xvíii.

An exhortation to al subjects not to murmur, misiudg nor repyne agaynste the kinges procenowe.

Chapter, howe that God almyghtye spared not a numbre of hys Aungels, whiche had fynned againste hym to make them examples to vs to beware by. He drowned the whole world in the time of Noe and destroyed for fynne the cities of Sodome and Gomorhe and why? Fecit eos exemplum iis qui impii forent acturi.* He made them an example to them that would do wyckedlye in tyme to come. If God would not spare them, thynke ye he wyll fauour vs? Thus maye thys man be an example to vs. Let'vs al fubiectes iudge wel of our magistrates, in suche

And thus toke I occasion to speake of him, and to profyt you therbi, and I befech you fo to take it. He may be a good warnynge to vs, and this is the best vse that we can have of him matters and be contente wyth theyr

doynges, and loke not to be of the coun-

I wil go on a word or two, in the applicacion of the parable, and then I wyll make an ende. To what ende, and to what purpose broughte Chryste thys parable of the wycked iudge.

The ende is, that we shoulde be conye parable of tinually in prayer. Prayer is neuer interthe wycked iudge tendeth. rupte but by wickednes. We must therfore walk orderly, vpryghtly, callyng vpon God in all oure troubles, and aduerlyties, and for thys purpose there is not a more comfortable lesson in all the fcripture, then here now in the lappyng vp of the matter. Therefore I wyll open it vnto you. You miferable people, if there be any here amongest you, that are oppressed with greate men and can get no healpe, I speake for youre comfort, I wil open To whom in vnto you, whyther ye shall resort, when dystresse & opye be in any diffres. Hys good wyll is shall resort. redy alwayes at hande, when so euer we shal cal for And therefore he callis vs to hym felfe. We shall not doubt if we come to him. Marke what he fayth to cause vs beleue that oure praiers shalbe hearde. Et deus non faciet vindictam.* He reasons after thys Wyl not GOD, fayeth he, reuenge hys electe? and heare thein? feyng the wycked judge heard the wydowe? He femeth to go plainely to worcke, he willeth vs to praye to God, and to none but to God. We have a maner of reasoninge in the scholes, and it is called A minore ad maius. From the lesse to the more, and that maye be An argument vsed here. The iudge was a tirante, a from the lesse wicked man, God is a patrone, a defender, a father vnto vs If the judge then, beyng a tyrante, woulde here the poore wyddowe, muche more God wyll here vs in all distresses. He beynge a father vnto vs, he wyll heare vs foner, then the other beynge no father, hauvinge no fatherly affection. Moreouer, God is naturally emercyful.

• And turning the cities of Sodom them an ensample unto those that and Gomorrha into ashes condemned after should live ungodly.—2 Pet. ii. 6. them with an overthrow, making

The iudge was cruel, and yet he healped the wyddowe, muche more then God wyl help vs at oure nede.

He fayeth by the oppressed. Cum ipso sum in tribulatione.† I am with hym in hys trouble. Hys trybu-lacion is myne.

I am touched wyth hys trouble. If the Iudge then beynge a cruell man hearde the wyddowe, muche more GOD wyll healpe vs, being touched wyth oure affection. Furthermore, thys iudge gaue the wydowe, no commaundemente to come to him, we haue a commaundement to refort to GOD for he We haue a cofaieth: Inuoca me in die tribulationis: ‡ call mandement to vpon me in the daye of thy tribulacion, resort to god. whych is as well a commaundemente, as Non furaberis. § Thou shalt not steale.

*And shall not God average his own elect?—See text at p. 103.
† I will be with him in trouble.—Psa. xc. 15.

Psa. xci. 15.

He that spake the one, spake the other: And whatfoeuer he be that is in trouble, and calleth not vpon God, breaketh hys commaundemente. Take hede The judge dyd not promise the wydowe helpe, God promifed vs help, and wyl he not perfourme it? He wyll, he wyl. The Iudge (I fay) did not promyfe the wyddowe healpe. God wil geue vs both hearing and helpynge. He hath promyfed it vs wyth a dubble othe. Amen, amen, fayth he, verely, verely, he doubles it.

Quæcumque petieritis etc.* whatsoeuer ye shall axe in my name, ye shal haue it. And thoughe he put of fome synner for a tyme, and suffer hym to byte on the brydell, to proue hym (for there be many begynners, but fewe continewars in prayer) yet we maye not thyncke that he hath forgotten vs, and wyl not healpe Veniens veniet, et non tardabit, When the healpe is moofte nedefull, then he will come and not tarve. He knoweth when it shalbe best for vs to have healpe, though he tary he wyl come at the last. I wyll trouble you but halfe a quarter of an hour, in the application of the parable, and fo commyt you to God.

What should it meane that god would have vs fo dilygent and earnest in prayer? Hath he why GOD wold haue vs fuch pleasure in our worckes? Many to be diligent talke of prayer, and make it a lyplabourand earnest in Praying is not babling, nor praying ynge.

is not monkerye.

It is to miserable folke that are oppressed a conforte, folace, and a remedy.

But what maketh oure prayer to be acceptable to It lyeth not in our power. We must have it by an other meane.

Remembre what God fayed of his fonne: Hic why our praiest filius meus dilectus, in quo mihi bene complacui. This is my dear fon in ble to God.

† This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.— * Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do.—John xiv. 13. + He that shall come will come, Matt. xvii. 5. and will not tarry .- Heb. x. 37.

whom I delyte. He hath pleasure in nothynge, but in hym.

How cometh it to passe then, that oure prayer pleafeth God. Oure prayer pleafeth God, because Christ pleaseth God.

When we praye, we come vnto hym, in the confydence of Chrystes merytes, and thus offerynge vp oure prayers, they shalbe heard for Chrystes sake. Yea, Chryste wyl offer them vp for vs, that offered vp once hys Sacryfyce to God, whych was acceptable, and he that commeth wyth anye other meane then thys, god knoweth hvm not.

This is not the missal Sacrifice, the po-M. L. cryeth pishe sacrifyce to stand at the aultare, and out vpon the popysh masse. offer vp Chryst agayne. Oute vpon it, that euer it was vsed.

I wil not fay nave, but that ye shall fynde in the olde doctores thys word Sacrificium, but there is one generall folution for all the doctours that The solution

S. Augustyne sheweth vs.

of S. Augu-

The fygne of a thynge hath often times styn vpon thys word sacrifithe name of ye thing that it fignifieth. As ce. the supper of the Lorde is the Sacrament of an other thynge, it is a commemoration of his death whych fuffered once for vs, and because it is a signe of Christes offering vp, therefore it beares the name therof. thys Sacrifyce a woman can offer as well as a man. Yea, a poore woman in the belfre: hath as good authoritie to offer vp thys facrifyce, as hath the byshop in his pontificalibus, with his myter on his head, hys ringes on his fyngers, and Sandales on hys fete. And whofoeuer commeth asking the father remedy in hys necessity for Chrystes sake, he offereth vp as acceptable a facryfyce as any byshop can do. And so to make an ende.

Thys must be done with a constaunte fayeth, and a fure confydence in Christe. Fayeth, Faythe is all fayeth, fayth. We are vndone for lacke together. of fayeth. Chryste nameth fayth here, Fayeth is altogyther. When the fonne of man shall come, shall he fynde fayeth on the earthe? Why speaketh he so muche of faythe? because it is harde to synde a true faythe. He speaketh not of a politicall fayth, a faythe set vp for a tyme, but a constant, a permanent, a durable faythe, as durable as goddes word. He came many tymes. Fyrste in the tyme of Noe, when he preached, but he sounde lytle fayth. He came also when Loth preached, when he destroyed Sodome and Gomorhe.

But he founde no fayth, and to be shorte he shall come at the latter daye, but he shall fynde a lytle fayth. And I wene the daye be not farre of, and when he was here carnallye dyd, he fynde anye faythe? Manye speake of faythe, but sewe ther be that hath it.

Chryste mourneth the lacke of it. He complayneth that when he came, he founde no fayth.

Thys fayth is a great state, a Ladye, a preat state & a Dutches, a greate womanne, and she hath euer a great companye and trayne about her (as a noble state ought to haue) fyrste she hath a Gentilman vsser that goth before her, and where he is not, there is not Lady fayth.

This Gentilman visher is called Agnitio peccatorum, knoweledge of fyn, when we enter into our Knowledge of synne is hert, and acknowledge our faultes, and gentle man stand not about to defend them. vsher to Lady fayth. none of these wynkers, he kyckes not when he heares hys fault. Nowe as the Gentilman víhere goth before her, fo she hath a trayne that cometh behynde her, and yet thoughe they come behynde, they be all of faythes companye, they are all wyth her, as Chryste when he counterfayted a state goyng to Hierusalem, some wente before him. and some after, yet all were of his company, so al these wayte vpon fayeth. She hath a Fayth hath a greate trayne after her befydes hyr trayne after her & they are Gentylman visher, her whole houshold, the workes of and those be the workes of our vocation, our vocation.

when euerye man confydereth what vocation he is in, what callyng he is in, and doeth the worckes of the fame, as to be good to hys neighbour, to obey God etc.

Thys is the trayne that followeth Lady Fayeth, as for an exemple. An vnfaythful Iudge hath fyrste an heauye rekenyge of his faulte, repentynge him felf of his wickednes, and then forfaketh his iniquytie, hys impeietie, feareth no man, walkes vpryght, and he that doeth not thus, hath not Ladye fayth, but rather a boldnes of fynne, and abusinge of Christes passion. Ladye faieth is neuer withoute hyr Gentyl- Fayth is no man vihere, nor wyth out hyr trayne, shee ankres she is no Anckres, she dwells not alone, shee hath many a atendante ypon is neuer a pryuate woman, she is neuer hyr parson. alone, and yet many therbe that bost them selues that they have fayth, and that when Christe shall come they shall do well ino[u]gh. Nay naye, these that be fayethfull shal be so fewe, that Christ shal skarce se them. Manye there be that runnes fayeth Saynte Paule, but there is but one that receyueth the rewarde, it shall be wyth the multytude when he shall come, as it was in the tyme of Noe, and as it was in the tyme of Loth.

In the tyme of Noe, they were eatynge The sodeyn and drynkynge, buyldynge plantynge, and comynge of ye fodaynely the water came vpon them, and me of Noe and drowned them:

In the tyme of Lothe alfo, they weare eatynge and drynkynge. etc. And fodenlye the fyre came vpon them, and deuoured them. And nowe we are eat-There was neuer fuche buyldynge and drinkynge. ynge then, as is nowe, plantynge, nor maryinge. And thus it shallbe euen when Christe shall come, at the Iudgemente.

Is eatynge and drynkynge and marying, reproued in scripture? Is it not? Naye he reproued not al kynd of eatynge and drynkynge, he muste be other wayes vnderstand.

If the scrypture be not trulye expounded what is more erronious? And thoughethere be complay [n]inges of fome eatynge or drynkynge in the scripture yet he fpeaketh not as though all were nought.

They maye be wel ordered, they are what eatyng and drinking is Goddes allowaunce, but to eate and drynke as they dyd in Noes tyme, and as they dyd in Lothes tyme. Thys eatynge and drynkynge, and maryinge is spoken agaynste. To eate and drincke in the forgetfulnes of goddes commaundement. voluptuoufly, in excesse glotonnie, this kinde of eatyng and drinkyng is nought, when it is not done moderatly, foberly, and What kynde with al circumfpection. And lykewyfe of mariing is reproued worthely.

Stealynge of wardes, nay rather of lan-

Another kinde of mariage and all naught.

The inueglers of mens doughters ar[e] notyd.

The parentes whych forse theyr chyldren to marri whom they love not are worthelye reprehendyd.

A daye wyll come shall paye for all.

I feare it be to lytle wyth some men, that to marrye for fleshelye luste, and for ther owne fantafye. Ther was neuer fuche marriynge in Englande, as is nowe. I here tell of stealynge of wardes to marye thy chyldren This is a straunge kynde of stealynge but it is not the wardes, it is the landes that they steale. And some ther be that knyt vp mariages to gether not for any loue or Godlines in the parties, but to get frensheppe, and make them stronge in the realme, to encrease their possessions and to ioyne lande to lande. And other there be that enuegle mennes daughters, in the contempte of theyrfathers, and go aboute to marrye them wythoute theyr confente. Thys marryinge is vngodlye, and manye parentes constrayne theyre fonnes and daughters to marrye where they loue not, and fome are beaten and compulfed. And they that marve thus, marrye in a forgetfulnes and obliviousnes of goddes commaundementes. But as in the tyme of Noe, fodenlye a clappe fell in theyr bosomes, so shall it be with vs at the latter daye when Christe shall come. We haue as lytle conscyence as maye be, and when he shal come, he shal lacke Lady Fayeth, wel is them that shalbe of that a man can neilytle flocke, that shall be set on the righte yet se it. hande, etc.

I have troubled you longe, partelye beynge out of my matter, partelye beyng in. But now I wyl make an ende. I begane wyth thys text. Quacunque fcripta funt. etc.* So wyl I ende now for myne owne ease, as an olde treuaunte wyth thys sentence. Beati qui audiunt verbum dei etc.†

Bleffed are they that heare the worde of God, and kepeth it. I tolde you in the begynning of thys Parable of Bene. Nil melius quam lætari et facere. If I had ceafed ther all hadde benne wel, quod the merye Moonke, fo bleffed are they that heare the worde of God. But what foloweth? and kepe it.

Our bleffednes commeth of the kepynge. Our blessed ness commeth of the tale, in of the kepe-crediting and affentynge to the woorde, ynge and folowynge of it. And thus we shal begyn oure blessed nes here, and at the length we shal come to the blessynge that neuer shal haue ende, whych

God graunt both you and me,
Amen.

+ I uke xi. 28.

• Rom xv.4.

The fifte

Sermon of Mayster Hughe

Latimer, whyche he preached before the kynges Maiestye wythin hys Craces Palaice at Westminster the fyfte daye of April.

Vacunque fcripta funt, ad nostram doctrinam fcripta funt.* Al thinges yat are wrytten, thei are written, to be ouredoctrine. What doctrine is written for vs in the parable of the Iudge, and the wyddowe, I haue opened it to you, moste honorable audience. Some thinge as concerning the

Iudge, I woulde wyshe and praye, that it myghte be a lytle better kept in memorye, that in the seate of Iustyce, no more iniquitie and vnryghtuous-

Thys I feare ne is sooner nes, myght raygne.

Thys I feare me is sooner wyshed then often sene but yet let vs prai

Some can spel and spy oute lande and put together faste inough, but when they read or heare a good lesson, that commith in at one eare and goeth out at the other ι.,

Better a lytle wel kept, then a greate deale forgotten. I wold the Iudges woulde take forth theyr lesson, that there myghte be no more iniquitye vsed, nor brybetakynge, for if there shall be brybynge, they knowe the peryl of it, they knowe what shal followe. I wolde also they shoulde take an example of this Iudge that dyd saye, not that that he thought hym selse, but our sauioure Christ puttes him to saye that thynge, that was hid vnto him selse.

Wherfore I wold ye should kepe memorye, how vnfearcheable a mans hert is. I woulde ye should remembre the sall of the Angels, and beware thereby, the sall of the olde worlde, and beware thereby. Marke ma. The sal of Sodome and gomorhe, and beware therby. The fall of Lothes wyfe, ny caucates and beware thereby. The fall of the manne byes. that fuffered of late, and beware therbye.

* Rom. xv. 4.

and beware-

·I woulde not that miserable folke should forget the argument of the wycked Iudge, to induce The arguthem to prayer, whyche argumente is thys. ment of the If the Iudge beynge a tyraunte, a cruell wycked iudges shuid inman, a wycked man, whych did not call duce vs to hir to hym, made hir no promife, nor in hervnge nor helpynge of hir cause, yet in the ende of the matter for the importunityes fake dyd helpe hyr, muche more almighty god which is a father who beareth a fatherlye affection, as the father doeth to the chylde, and is naturally mercifull, and calleth vs to him wyth hys Promife that he wyll heare them that call vpon hym, that be in diffres and burdened with aduersitie. Remembre this. You knowe where to haue youre remedy. You by youre prayer What maye can worcke greate efficance. And your be wroght by prayer wyth teares is an instrument of prayer. great efficacy. It canne brynge many thynges to passe. But what thinge is that, that maketh What maoure prayer acceptable to god? is it oure bablyng? No, no. It is not oure babbling ble to God nor oure long prayer. There is an other thynge then it. The dygnitie and worthines of our wordes, is of no fuch vertue. For whofoeuer reforteth vnto God, not in the confidence of hys own merites, but in the fure truste of the deservinge of oure Saiuour Iesus Chryste, and in hys passyon.

Whosoeuer doeth inuocate the father of Our prayer pleaseth Go heauen, in the truste of Christes merites, whyche offerynge is the most confortable dystrust oure and acceptable offerynge to the father. own merites Whosoeuer I saye offereth vp Christe, hys deseruin whyche is a perfecte offerynge, he can not pleaseth God for Christes sake when we be denied the thing he defyreth, so that it be expedyent for hym to haue it. It is not the bablynge of oure lippes, nor dignitye of oure wordes, but the prayer of the herte is the offerynge that pleafeth thorowe the onely meanes of hys sonne. For oure prayer profyteth vs bycause we offer Christe to hys sather.

In all our praye[r]s we muste brynge a present with vs to god and marke wel who it is.

Whofoeuer reforteth to god wyth out Christ, he resorteth in vayne. Our prayer pleafeth, because of Iesu Christ, whom we offer. So that it is fayth, fayth, fayeth, is the matter, It is no prayer that is wythout fayth, it is but a lyppe labouring, and monkery wythout fayth. It is but a lytle bablynge.

I spake also of lacke of fayth, and vpon that also I fayed, the ende of the worlde is neare at hande, For ther is lacke of faith nowe. Also the defection is come

Conjectures why the ende of the worlde is supposed to be neare at and fwaruinge from the favth. Antichriste the man of fynne, the fonne of iniquiti is reueiled, the latter daye is at hande. Let vs not thynke hys commynge is farre of. But when foeuer he cometh he shall fynde iniquitye inough, let him come when he wil What is nowe behinde? we be eatynge and drynckynge as they were in Noes tyme, and Mariynge I thyncke as

As much wickednes vsyd in oure tyme as euer was in the time of Noe wyckedly as euer was. We be buildynge, purchachinge, planting in the contempte of Gooddes worde. He maye come shortelye when he wyll, for there is fo much mifchiefe and fwaruyng from the fayeth (raynynge nowe in oure dayes) as euer was in anye age. It is a good warnynge to vs all to make readye agaynste hys commynge. Thys lyttle reheresall I have

M. Latimer returneth to hvs former question andto the dissolu cion of the same.

Wether Godds people maye be gouerned by a kyng or no.

The kynges of the lew es were elec-ted and chosen of God.

made of the thynges I speake in my last fer-I will nowe for this daye retourne to my question and dissolue it, whether goddes people maye be gouerned by a gouernoure that bereth the name of a kynge or no. The Iewes hadde a lawe that when they shoulde haue a kynge they shoulde haue hym accordynge to the election of god, he would not leave the election of a kyng to theyr owne braynes. There be fome bufy braynes, wantton wyttes, that faye, the name of a kynge is an odyouse name and wrieth this text of the scripture, i. Regu. viii. wher god femeth to be angrye and displesed with the Isralites for askyng a kyng expounding it very euill and odiciously. As who wold say a king were an odiouse thyng. I comminge ridinge in my way, and calling to remembraunce wherfore I was fent, that I must preach, and preach chynge must afore ye kyngs maiesti I thought it mete beframed accordynge to frame my preching according to a king. Musyng of thys I remembred miselse of a we preache. boke that came from Cardinall Pole, maifter Pole the kynges traytor, whyche he kynges trayfent to the kynges maiestye. I neuer remember that man me thyncke, but I re- kynde and namember hym wyth a heauye herte, a wyttye man, a learned man, a man of a noble house, so in fauoure that if he had defection of C. Pole and the taried in the realme, and woulde have con- breche of hys formed hym felfe to the Kynges proce-dynges, I hearde faye, and I beleue it and Royale dynges, I hearde faye, and I beleue it verelye, that he hadde bene Byshop of kynge. Yorcke at this day. To be a bidden by, he wold haue done muche good in that parte of the Realme. For those quarters have all wayes had greate nede of a learned man, and a preachynge prelatte. A thynge to They nede be much elamented that such e a man shoulde take such e a waye. I here saye he readeth euer they did. muche Sayncte Ieromes workes, and is wel fene in theim But I woulde he woulde followe fayncte Ierome, wher he expoundeth thys place of scripture.

expoundeth thys place of forpears.

Exite de illa populus meus.

All mightie saye) to rede muche Saint Ieromes

Ieromes god faieth. Get you from it, get you from Rome, he calles it, the purple hore of Ba-woorkes. It had bene more commendable Rome is called of Ierome to go from it, then to come to it. What the purp his fayings be in his boke, I do not well hoore of Baremember, it is in the farthest ende of my memorye

He declareth hym selfe in it, to have a He meaneth corrupte iudgemente, I haue but a glym- of the booke that C. Pole to the persons before who[m]

C. Pole the tor, a traytor agaynste

M. Latimer lamentes the le vsyth (they

* My people, go ye out of the midst of her.-Jer. li. 45.

The fuste sermon

134

dyd sende to the kynge. The scope or state of the boke, tendes to dysuade the kinge from hys supremycye. Spoken like a Cardinal who may lie by authorite because he dwelleth at Rome.

meringe of it Yet in generally, I remember the scope of it. He goeth aboute to dissuade the kynge from his supremicie. In his persuasions he is very whomlye, verye quycke and sharpe wyth the Kynge as these Cardinals wyll take well vpon theym. He sayeth that a kynge is an odiouse worde, and touched the place how god was offended with the Israelites for calling for a kyng.

Veryelyghtely he semeth to sette forth the title of a kynge. As thoughe he shoulde meane: what is a Kinge? What should a Kynge take vpon hymto redresse matters of religion? It pertayneth to oure holy father of Rome. A kynge is a name and a title rather suffered of God as an euell thynge, then alowed as a good thyng.

Callynge thys to remembraunce, it was an occasion that I spake altogether before. Nowe I wyll answer to thys. For the answere I muste somewhat ryppe the eyght Chapter of the syrst boke of the Kynges. And that I mai haue grace, etc.

O come to ye opening of this mater. I must begyne at the begynning of the Chapter, that the vnlerned (although I am sure, here be a greate meany well learned) maye the better come to the vnderstand-inge of the matter. Factum est cum senuisset Samuel i. Regu. viii. fecit filios suos iudices populo.* etc. It came to passe when Samuell was stricken in age, he made hys sonnes Iudges ouer Israell. Of Samuell I might seche a processe a far of, of ye storye of Elcana, who was hys father, and who was hys mother, Elcana hys father had two brayded Anna bycause she was barren, and not fruitfull.

A taunt (by the waye) to suche as vse vnlawful diwyues, Anna and Phennenna, and dyd not put theym awaie, as men do nowe adayes. Ther was debate betwene these two wyues.

And it came to pass, when sons judges over Israel.—1 Sam. Samuel was old, that he made his viii. 1.

en made fru-lit Iful and mo-

I might take here occacion to entreate of the dutye betwene man and wyfe, whiche is a holy religyon, but But I wyll not Anna of barnot religiouslye kepte. enter into that matter at thys tyme. Well, in processe of tyme, God made Inna fruit- ther to Sa-She muel. full, thorowe hyr deuoute prayer. broughte forth Samuell, whoe by the ordinaunce of God, was made the hyghe pryeste. good man, a fingular example, and fingular patron, a manne alone, fewe fuche men as father Samuell was. To be shorte he was nowe come to age, he was an old man, an impotente man, not able to Samuell bego from place to place to minister instice, wnge aged chose to hym he electes and choses two suffraganes, twoo two suffragecoadiutours, two cohelpers, I meane not hym in hys hallowers of belles, nor Christiners of offyce. belles, that is a popysh suffraganship, he made them to healpe hym, to dyscharge his office, he chose hys two fonnes rather then other, because he Why he knewe them to be wel broughte vp in vertue, owne two and learnynge, It was not for anye carnall affection, he cared not for hys renowne, or reuenewes, but he appoynted them for the ease of the people, the one for to supply hys derynge the ease of hys place in Bethfabe, and the other in Bethlem.

As we have now in England, for the offycers. wealthe of the Realme, two Lordes prefidentes, Surelye, it is wel done, and a goodly order, I wold A third Lord ther were a thyrd in an other place.

presydent wold do wel For the ease of hys people, good father Samuell. and to discharge hys offyce in places wher he coulde not come hym felfe, he fette hys twoo fonnes in offyce wyth hym, as hys fuffraganes, and as hys Coadiutoures.

Here I myght take occasion to treate what olde and impotente Byshoppes should do, what olde What the preachers should do, when they come to impotent and olde byshopimpotency, to ioyne wyth them preachers pes shoulde do when they preachers, not Belhalowers, and to departe, do when the parte of theyre lyuynge with theym.

I myghte haue dylated this matter at and paynes

Father Samuell a sonnes rather then any o-Samuel tenpeople appo-

the trauayle

of preaching large. But I am honestelye preuented of thys commune place, and I am verye glad of it.

It was very well handeled the laste There are to nany suche They that wyl not for the Sondaye. flese feders offyce fake receyue other, regarde more the flese then the flocke.

Father Samuel, regarded not hys reuenewes. Lorde gyue them grace to be affected as he was, and to followe him. etc. Thoughe I faye that I would wishe mo Lorde presidentes. I meane not that I woulde have prelates, Lordes prefidentes, nor that Lorde byshoppes shall be Lorde prefydentes. As touchynge that, I fayed my mynde and confcience the last yeare.* And al thoughe it is sayed, Prafunt, it is not mente that they should be Lorde presidentes,

M. Latimer woulde not haue byshop-pes and pre-lates Lord presidentes.

The office of a presidentshyp is a cy-uyl offyce and occupieth a man wholy.

the offyce of a Lorde presidenshyp is a ciuyll offyce, and it canne not be that one manne shal dyscharge bothe. Wel, it followeth in the texte. Non ambulauerunt filii eius in uiis eius, etc.† Hys sonnes walked not in hys wayes, heare is the matter, here ye fe the goodnes of Samuell, howe, when he was not able to take the paynes him felfe for theyr owne ease, he appoynted them Iudges neare them as it were in the further partes of hys Realme, to have Iuflyce ryghtly ministered. But what followed.

Thoughe Samuell were good, and hys chyldrene well brought vppe, looke what the world can do? Ah crafty world? Whome shall not thy sworlde

The worlde wyl corrupt and deceyne vs or we be ware of it the dyuell is so crafty and lucre is so swete.

corrupte and deceyue at one tyme or other? Samuel thoughte hys fonnes shoulde haue proued well, but yet Samuels sonne walked not in theyr fathers waye. what then? Is the fonne alwayes bounde to walke in the fathers waye?

No, ye muste not take it for a generall rule. All fonnes are not to be blamed in theyre fathers wayes.

Ezechias dyd not folowe the steppes of wayes. his father Ahaz, and was well alowed in it. Iosias the beste kyng that euer was in Iewry, refourmed hys fathers wayes, who walked in worldly policye.

In hys youth, he toke a waye all Idolatrye, and purdged hys Realme of it, and fet a good order in al his Dominions, wrestled with Idolatrye.

And althoughe hys father or hys grande father Manasses (it makes no matter whether) repented hym in the ende he had no tyme to refourme thynges, he left it to Raygne hys fonne to be done.

Iofias beganne and made an alteracion in hys chyldehode, he tourned al vpfydowne, he would fuffer no Idolatrye to stand.

Therefore, you must not take it for a general rule, that ye fonne muste euer walke in his fathers wayes.

Here I wyll renewe, that whyche I fayed before of the flyfnecked Iewes, the rebelliouse people (that is theyr tytle) they neuer spake so rebelliouslye, as to faye, they woulde not receyue any alter- We are more acion, tyll theyr kyng came to age. styffneckyd Muche leffe we Englyshe men, if (there be anye suche in Englande) maye be ashamed. I week.

I wonder wyth what conscience folke can heare fuche thinges and alowe it.

Thys Iofias made a notable alteration, and therfore take it not for a general rule, that the sonne Thys is no shall alwayes walke in hys fathers wayes.

Thynke not because he was slayne in battayle, that God was displeased wyth Iosias was hym. For herein God shewed hys good- tayle of Phanes to hym wonderfullye, who woulde not kynge of E. fuffer hym to fe the captivite that he would gipt at Mabringe vpon the Ifraelites. He would not iii. Reg. xiii.

The sonne is not alwaythe fathers,

Ezechias did the steppes of his father Ahaz. Iosyas re fourmed the wayes of iiii. Re. xxii. and. xxiii.

He was but rule to reken vppon.

hym to haue the fyght, the fealynge, and the beholdynge of hys plage, he fuffered hym to be taken away before, and to be flayne of the kynge of Egipt.

Wherfore a iuste man muste be glade when he is taken from misery. Iustus si morte præoccupatius fuerit in refrigerio erit.* If a iuste man be preuented wyth deathe, it shal be to hys relyefe. He must thynke that he is one of those, whome the worlde is not worthye to haue, it came of a fingular goodnesse of god, that he was by death delyuered frome the fyght of that capti-Therfore take it not for a general rule, that the fonnes be alwaies bounde to walke in the fathers wayes.

Nolite in præceptis patrum uestrorum incedere.† Walke not in the commaundementes of youre fathers. For so it is fayed in another place of scrypture. It is spoken to the reproche of Samuels fonnes that they walked not in hys waye, for he was a good man.

A wonderful thynge that these chyldren beynge so well brought vp should so fal and be corrupte, Yf the dyuell can preuayle and hath power agaynste them, that had fo Godlye education, what vauntage hath he at them yat be brought vp iniquitie and couetousnes? It is a Prouerbe that magistratus uirum commonstrat.

and offyce tryeth what a man is.

A man knoweth not hym felfe, tyl he be tryed. Many there be that being without office can rebuke magistrates, and fynd Thus hathe bene often faut with men that be in office and pretymes verefied and sene eminence. After when it commeth to in prechers, before they their chaunce to come to office them felues, then they have taken out a newe lesson. cum effe paruulus fapiebam vt par-

Office and authoritye sheweth what a man were byshoppyd or beneficed. ulus.‡

Do as the most do, and the fewest

at theym.

shal wonder

When I was a child, I fauered as a childe. They wyll do then as other men do, they are come to have experience, to be The maydes chylde is practifioners. euer best taughte, for he hath standes vp ryghte in office, he is the fellow, Samuell wold neuer haue thought that hys fonnes shold haue bene so corrupted. It is a perillous thynge, a daun-gerous state to be a judge. They felte ye a ludge is daungerous fmaker of the worlde, a perillous thyng. and lucre is And therfore S Chrisostom fayth. Miror so lickorous aliquis rectorum faluabitur. I maruaile once lyckes of it, leketh (fayeth he) yat ani ruler can be faued. If it. the peril were wel confidered men would not be fo defirous as they be. The world ye world The good hath many fubtil fleightes, it is a craftie of the wase. thyng and verye deceitfull, a corrupter, called noboand who is it whom the worlde doeth not dy that dwelleth wyth V. corrupte and blynde at one tyme or other. topia.

What was the waye they walked? Declinauerunt post auaritiam.* That is one. Thei stouped after gayne, they turned a fyde after lucre. What followed? Acceptrunt munera.* They toke rewardes gyftes, They cal them brybes I should cal theym, for that is theyr ryghte name. What then? Peruerterunt iu- the fyrst letditium.* They turned Iustice vpsedowne. ter of theyr Christian Eyther they would gyue wrong iudgemente, name. or els put of and delaye poore mennes matters.

but bribes is

These were theyr wayes, here is the The Diuels Deuyles genealogye. A gradation of the genealogye the ladder of Diuyles making. This is, Scala inferni. hell. The ladder of hell.

I tolde you before of scali cæli, the ladder of heaven, I woulde you shoulde not forget it. The steppes thereof are set forthe in the tenth to the Preachynge The fyrste is preachynge, Beleuynge Romaynes. then hearynge, then beleuynge, and laste and saluacion. of all Saluation. Scala cæli, is a preachynge matter I tell you, and not a maffying matter, goddes instrument of faluation, is preachynge.

Here I moued you my Lordes, not to Wel moued be greadye and outragiouse in enhauns- and Godlye ynge, and raylinge of youre rentes, to the M. Latimer minishynge of the offyce of faluation. It but litle min-ded or slow-ve followed woulde pytye a mans hert to heare that, that I heare of the flate of Cambrige, what it is in Oxforde I can not tell. Ther be few do The studi of fludy divinitie, but fo many as of necesdiuinitie decafiti must furnysh ye Colledges. For their yed in Cam-briege. lyuynges be fo fmall, and vytaylee fo dere, tarry not ther, but go other where to that they feke lyuynges and fo they go aboute. Nowe therebe a fewe gentylmen and they studye a little diuinitie.

† And his sons walked not in his and took bribes, and perverted judgways, but turned aside after lucre, ment.—1 Sam. viii. 3.

The vsurped supremytye of the bysh-[op | of Rome vyl not be kept out with a lytle Englyshe dyuiAlas, what is that? it wil come to passe that we shal have nothynge but a lytle Englyshe diuinitie, that wyl brynge the Realme into a verye barbarousnes, and vtter decaye of learnynge. It is not that, I wyste, that wyl kepe oute the supremacye of the byshoppe of Rome.

M. Latimer is reasonabl request for poore schollers ex[h]iby-

Here I wyl make a supplication, that ye would bestow so muche to the fyndynge of fchollers, of good wyttes, of poore mens fonnes, to exercise the office of faluacion. in releuing of scholers, as ye were wont to bestowe in Pylgrimage matters, in trentals, in masses, in purgatorye matters, Ye bestowed that lyberallye, bountyfully, but thys was not wel fpente.

Wher vpon we mave bestowe once goodes wel, and please God wel

You hadde a zeale but not Secundum scientiam.* Not accordynge to knowledge. You may befure yf you bestowe youre goodes on thys wyfe, ye shall bestowe it wel to fupporte and vpholde Goddes word, wherin ye shal please God.

I require no more, but that ye bestowe so muche Godlye, as ye were wonte to bestowe 'ungodlye.

It is a refonable peticion, for Goddes fake, looke vpon it I say no more.

There be none nowe but greate mens They that haue least fonnes in Colledges, and theyr fathers loke nede haue not to haue them preachers, fo euerye most healpe waye thys offyce of preachynge, is pyncht at.

* For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. - Rom. x. 2.

I wil speake no more of Scala cali, But I am suer thys is Scala inferni, the ryghte waye to hell, to be couetous, to take bribes, and peruerte iustice. If a iudge shoulde aske me the waye to hell, I woulde shewe hym thys waye. Fyrste let hym be The ready a couetouse man, let hys herte be poysoned waye downed wyth couetoufnes. Then let hym go a in hell. lyttle further and take brybes, and laste peruerte Loo, heare is the mother and the daughter, and the daughters daughter. Auarice is the mother, she brynges forthe brybe takynge, and bribe takyng, peruertyng of iudgement.

Ther lackes a fourth thing to make vp the meffe, whyche fo God helpe me if I were iudg, A tyburne tipshoulde be Hangum tuum, a tyburne pet for brybbe takers and pertyppet to take wyth hym, and it were the uerters of iud iudge of the kinges bench, my Lorde gement. chyefe Iudge of Englande, yea, and it were my Lord Chaunceloure hym selfe, to tiburne wyth hym.

Ther was wyth in these. xxx, yeares a certain wyddow, whych fodaynlye was attached, had to The wydow pryson, indyted, condempned, and there that was in were certayne learned men that visited prison. her in the prison. Oh I woulde ye woulde resorte to Prysonnes. A commendable thynge in a chrysten realme, I woulde wyshe there were curates Ther shulde for prysonnes, that we myght saye, the be curates curate of Newegate, the curate of the for presones. flet, and I woulde haue theym well waged for theyre laboure. It is a holy daye worcke to vyfet A holy daye the prisoners, for they be kepte from fer- worke to vymons. Ther was that reforted to thys wo- ners. man, who, when she came to preson, was all on hyr beades, and nothynge elfe, a popysh woman, and sauered not of Iesu Christe. In processe she was so The woman applyed that she tasted. Quam fuauis est turned from dominus.* She had fuche a fauore, fuche a the dyligent fwetenes and felynge that she thought it resort of the learned, frelonge to the daye of execution. She was wyth quentying the Christe al ready, as touchynge fayeth.

presone.

* That the LORD is gracious.- r Pet. ii. 3.

She had fuche a defyre that she sayed wyth saynt Paule. Cupio diffolui et esse cum christo.† I desyre to be ryd, and to be wyth Christ. The word of God had so wrought in hyr, when she was brought to punyshment, she desyred to confesse hyr faulte, she toke of hyr death, that she was gyltylesse in that thynge she suffered for, and hyr neyghbours woulde haue borne hyr wytnes in the same. She was alwayes an honeste ciuyll woman, hyr neyghbours woulde haue gone on hir purgacion a greate waye.

They would nedes have hir confesse, then saith she. I am not gylty, wold ye have me to make me gyltye, wher I am not? Yet for al thys, she was a trespasar, fhe had done a greate offence.

But before I go forwarde wyth thys, I must fyrst tel you a tale.

I hearde a good whyle ago, a tale of one, I fawe the man yat told me the tale not longe ago, in thys auditorye. He hath traueiled in mo countries then one.

He toulde me that there was once a pretour in Rome, Lorde mayre of Rome, a ryche manne, one of the richest marchauntes in all the cytye, and sodaynelye he was caste in the castle Aungell. It was herde of, and euerye man, whyspered in an others eare. What hath he done? Hathe he kylled any man? No. Hath he medled wyth Alam, oure holye sathers merchandice? No. Hathe he countersaited our holy fathers Bulles. No. For these were hye treasons.

One rowned an other in the ear and fayd, Erat diues. He was a riche man. A greate fault. Here was a goodlye praye for that holye father. It was in Popes Iulius tyme, he was a greate warrioure. Thys praye woulde healpe hym to maynetayne hys warres, a ioly praye for oure holye father.

So thys woman was Diues. She was a rych woman, A gentleman of a long nose of a longe nose. He was a gentilman of a longe nose.

Having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better.

—Phil. i. 23.

She would not nose, I praye God, Libera Such a cup, suche a cruse. Thys Shyryffe was nos et salua depart from hir own. a couetuouse man, a worldely man. Iudge at the enpanelynge of the queste, hadde hys grauelookes, and charged them wyth thys. It was the kynges matter, loke wel vpon it.

When it makes for theyr purpose, they have the Kynge, the kinge, in their mouthes.

Wel, fome what there was, ther was walkynge of angelles betwene them. I would wyshe The sygne that of fuche a Judge in Englande nowe, we of the Judmight haue ye skin hanged vp. It were ges skynns a goodly figne the fygne of the judges skynne. shoulde be Loths wyfe, to all Judges that shoulde folow By thys ye may perceive, it is possible for a manne to answere for him selfe, and be A man maye arrained at the barre, and neuertheles to answer for him selfe and haue wronge. Yea, ye shall haue it in yet haue fourme of lawe, and yet haue wronge to. wronge, and be absent, and So it is possible in a case, for a manne yet haue that hath in hys absence at intament [attaintment]. to haue right, and no wronge.

ryghte.

I wil not fay naye, but it is a good lawe for a man to answere for him selfe, thys is reasonable, alowable and good. And yet fuche an vrgent cause maye be, fuche a respect to a commune wealth that a man may rightlye be condemned in hys absence. There be fuche causes that a man may in hys absence be condemned, but not ofte, excepte they be fuch cases that the reason of the generall lawe maye be kepte. I am prouoked of some to condempne this lawe, but I am not able, so it be but for a time, and vppon wayghty confideracions, fo that it be vsed rarely, feldomly, for auoydyng difturbaunce in the commune wealth, fuch an epiky and moderacion maye be vsed in it.

And neuertheles it is verye mete and requisite that a man shoulde answere for hym selfe.

We muste consider the ground of the The reason of the lawe is lawe: for Ratio legis, anima legis. The the soule of reason of the law, is ye soule of the law. Whi? what is the reason and ende of the lawe? It is thys, that no man shoulde be injured. A man may in hys attayntmente haue no more wronge done hym then if he aunswered for hym selfe.

Ah then I am not able to faye, that in no wyfe, and arrainement maye be tourned in to attayntement, A man may have wronge and that in open judgemente, and in forme of lawe, and yet allowed to answere for hym felfe: and euen fo is possible he maye haue ryghte thoughe he neuer aunswere for hym selfe. wyll not fay but that the parlament houses both hye and lowe, may erre, and yet they may do wel, and christen subiectes must take all thynges to How we must take the doyn- the beste, and expounde theyr doynges well, althoughe they can not yelde, a reason for it, except their proceadings be manifestli For though they can not attayne to fe for what purpose thynges be done, it is no good reasone that they be called euell done therefore. And is thys a good argumente, he is not allowed to An vntrue aranswer for hym selfe in thys place or that place, where he wyll appoynte: Ergo, he is not alowed to answere for him selfe?

He myght haue aunswered the beste he coulde for hym selse besore a greate meanye, and haue hadde moe to, if he had requyred theym. Yea, and was commaunded vpon his allegiaunce to speake sor hym selse, and to make aunswere, but he woulde not, nedes he woulde come oute to Iudgemente, and approvate the place hymselse.

A manne that answeres for hym felfe at the barre, is not allowed hys manne of lawe to answere for hym, but he muste aunswere hym felfe. Yet in the Parliamente, although he were not there hym felfe, anye frende he had, had lyberty to aunswere for hym, franke, and fre, I know of olde the manner. The tenoure of the knoweth of hys conscyence, for the kynges mageslies bonour, and the wealth of the realme. There were in the Parliament in both houses, a greate manye learned men, conscionable men, wyse men. When that man was attaynted there, and they hadde lybertye, there to say naye, to hys attayntmente yf they woulde. Sure I am the mooste allowed it, or else it coulde not haue gone forwarde.

Fre lyberty is graunted speake in the Parliamente house.

These premisses considered. I woulde haue you to beare suche a hart, as it becommeth christen subjectes. I knowe what men saie of me wel ynoughe, I could pourge my felfe.

There is that prouokes me to fpeake ag[a]ynft thys lawe of attayntemente, they faye I am not indyfferente. Surelye I woulde haue it to be doone rarely vpon fome great respecte to the commune wealthe, for auoydynge of greater tumulte and peryll.

Saynt Paule was allowed to answere for Paule was alowed to answer for hym selfe, yf Lisias the tribune hadde not swer for hym plucte him awaye from shewynge of hys selfe. Matter, it hadde coste hym hys lyfe. Actes xxi. Where he was saued by the magystrate, beynge but a pryuate manne. Wyll ye not alowe that some thynge be done as wel for sauynge of the magystrates lyse? It behoues theym of the Parliament to looke well vpon the matter. And I for my parte thynke not but they dyd well, else I should not yelde the dutye of a subjecte.

Some liken me to doctoure Shaw, that preached at Pauls croffe, that Kynge likened to docEdwardes fonnes were baftardes. An easy matter for one of the counsell to induce Latimer to make a lie as doctour Shaw dyd. Me thinke you beynge the kynges seruaunt and hys offycer, shoulde thynke better on the Kynge, and hys councel, thoughe I were lyghte of belese. If he had bene a true man to hys mayster, he woulde neuer haue spoken it.

The countayle nedes not my lye, for the defence of that, that they do. I canne beare it of my selfe. Concerninge my selfe, that, that which I haue spoken, hath done fome good.

You wyl faye thys. The Parliamente house are wyser then I am, you myghte leaue theym to desence of theym felues. Althoughe the men of the Parliament house can desende them selues, yet haue I spoken thys of a good zeale, and a good ground of the Admyralles wryttyng, I haue not sayned, nor lyed one iote. Vse your Iudgement and languages, as it becommeth Christian subjectes.

I will now leave the honourable counfaile to answere for themselues. One fact con-He confessed fessed of the one facte, he woulde haue hadde the Admyral, he gouernaunce of the kynges maiestve. And woulde not haue the wot ye why? He fayed he would not in kynge broughte vp lyke a warde in his minoritie haue hym brought vp lyke a warde. I am fure he hath bene brought hys minoriti vp fo Godly, wyth fuch Sholemaysters as neuer kynge was in Englande, and so hathe prospered vnder them, as neuer none dyd. I wotte not what he mente by hys bryngyng vp lyke a warde, onles he woulde haue hym not to go to hys boke and learne as he doeth. Nowe woo worth hym, yet I wyl not fay fo de be learnid neyther. but I pray God amende hym, or els God fende hym short lyfe, that woulde haue my foueraygne not to be brought vp in learnynge, and woulde plucke hym from hys booke. In advertyfe the therfore my fellowe subjecte, vie thy tonge better, and expounde well the doynges of the magyfrates.

Now to the purpose, for these thynges lette me of my matter, and yet they be necessarye.

Some faye preachers should not meddle wyth suche matters, but dyd not oure Sauioure Iesus Christe medle wyth matters of Iudgemente, when he spake of the wycked Iudge, to leave ensample to vs that followe, to do the same?

Ye se here, that Ladye couetousnes is a fruitfull woman, euer chyldynge, and euer bryngynge forthe her fruites. It is a true sayinge. Radix omnium malorum auaritia.* Couetuousnes is the roote of all wykednes. One wyl say peraduenture, you speake vnsemelye and in conuenientlye so to be agaynste the offycers, for takynge of rewardes in doynge pleasures.

The love of money is the root of all evil, -1 Tim vi. 20.

Ye confyder not the matter to the bot- He that byeth tome. Theyr offyces be bought for great dere must nefommes, nowe howe shall they receyue ter. theyre money agayne, but by brybynge ye woulde haue them vndone. Some of them gaue. CC. [two hundred] poundes some. v.C. [fiue hundred] pounde, some. ii. M [two thousand] pound, And how shal they gather vp thys money agayne, but by healpynge them felues in theyre offyce. And is it so trowe ye? Are ciuile offyces bought for monei?* Ye must va Lorde God. Who would have thought derstande, yea, as well that? Let vs not be to hasti to credit it as cyuyl oyle' to make For then we have the old prouerbe, Om- the sentence nia uenalia Romæ. All thynges are folde perfect. for mony at rome, and rome is come home to oure own dores. If thei bei, thei must nedes sel, for it is wittely spoken. Vendere iure potest, emerat ille prius, he may lawefully fel it, he bought it before. God forfend that euer any fuch enormitie shuld be in England, that civile offyces should be boughte and foulde, wher as men shulde haue them gyuen them for theyr worthines. I would the kinges maiestye shuld seke thorow his realme for mete men, and able men, worthye to be in offyce, yea Mete men and gyue them liberally for theyr paynes, able, and worthy to be and rather geue them money to take the put in offyce. offyce in hande, then they to geue money for it. byinge of offyces is a makynge of bry- It is a brybeberye, it is an enducynge, and enforf- ry to bye ofynge, and compelling of men to bryberye. fyces. Holye fcrypture qualifyeth the offycers and sheweth what maner of men they shulde be and of what qualites, Viros fortes, † Some Translacions What manhaue Viros fapientes.† The Englyshe ner of men of fycers shulde translacion hath it verye well. Menne be. of actyuitye that have stomakes to do theyr office, they must not be milke soppes, nor whyte lyuered knyghtes, they muste be wyse, hartye, hardye men They muste of a good stomake. Secondarely, he qualipreties. * Thou shalt provide out of all the men of truth, hating covetousness. people able men such as fear God, Exod. xviii, $2.

fyeth them wyth the feare of god. He faieth they must be Timentes deum. *tearyng God. For yf hefeare God, he shalbe no bryber, no paruerter of iudgemente, faythful. Thyrdly they must be chosen offycers. In quibus est veritatis.* In whome is trueth. If he saye it, it shalbe done. Fourthly. Qui oderunt auaritiam.* Hatynge couetouines, farre from it, he wyll not come here it, that hateth it. It is not he that wyll geue. v. C. [fiue hundred] pounde for an offyce. Fyue C. pounde, geuen Wyth these qualityes Goddes for an offyce dome woulde have magistrates to be qualifyed. Thys commeth from the deuylles confistory to pay. v. C. [fiue hundred] poundes for one offyce. If they paye fo much, it must nedes followe that they take brybes, that they be They that are mete to brybe takers. Suche as be mete to beare beare office wold be souoffice feke them out, hyere them, geue ght out and ly-berally feed. them compotente and lyberall fees that Sellynge of they shall not nede to take anye brybes. offyces and And if ye be at felling civile offices, ye sellyng of benefyces are both one. are as they which fell theyr benefyces, and so we shal haue. Omnia uenalia. that is to say Symony o-Al thinges boughte for money. I mertherwyse uaile the ground gapes not and deuours money. vs, how be it, we ought not to maruayle, furely it is, the great lenitie of god that fuffers it. Oh Lorde in what case are we If the great men in Turky shuld vse in theyr religion of Mahomete to sel as our patrons commonlye sell benefyces here, the offyce of preachinge, the office of faluacion it shoulde be taken The Turke as an intollerable thing. The turke would not fuffer it in his common wealth. suffer that trons be charged to fe the office done. and not to feke a lucre and a gaine by his patronship. Ther was a patron in England (when The potrons deutye, in beit was) that had a benefyce fallen into hys towynge of his benefyce. hande and a good brother of mine came vnto hym and brought hym. xxx. Apples in a dysh, The merye and gaue them hys man to carrye them to

Such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetcusness. Exod. zviii 1.

Digitized by Google

hys mayiler. It is like he gaue one to his tale of the man for his laboure to make vp the game, sold a benefy and fo ther was xxxi. This man commeth ce for a deyntye dyshe of go his mayster and presented hym wyth Apples. the dyshe of Apples, sayinge. Syr suche a man hathe fente you a dyshe of frute, and desyreth you to be good vnto hym for suche a benefyce. Tushe tushe, quod he, thys is no apple matter. I wyll none of hys I have as good as these (or as he hath any) in myne owne orchearde. The man came to the pryest agayne, and toulde hym what hys mayster sayed. Then quod the priest, desyre hym yet to proue one of them for my fake, he shal find them much better then they loke for. He cut one of them and founde ten peces of golde in it. Mary quod he, thys is a good apple. The pryest standyng not farre of, herynge what the Gentle man fayed, cryed out and answered, they are all one apples I warrante you Syr, they grewe all on one tree, and haue all one tafte. Well, he is a good fellowe, let hym haue it quode the patrone, etc. Get you a grafte of thys tre and I warrante A graft of you it shall stand you in better steade then gold to get all Sayncte Paules learnynge. Well, let a peneryce patrons take hede for they shall aunswere worth a great for all the foules that peryshe throughe nynge. theyr defaute. There is a faying that ther The errour be a greate maenye in Englande that faye of such as bethere is no foule, that believe not in the immortalitye of mans foule, that thyncke it is not eternal, but lyke a dogges foule, that thynke there is neyther heaven nor hell. Oh Lord, what a wayghtye, matter is thys? What a lamentable thynge in a christen common wealth? I can not tell what they saye, but I perceyue by their worckes that they thyncke fo, or elles they woulde neuer do as they do. These sellers of offices shew that they beleue that there is neyther hell nor It is taken for a laughynge matter, wel, I wyl gooe on. Nowe to the Chapiter. The chyldren of Ifraell came to Samuell and fayed. Senuisti.* Thou

* Behold, thou art old, and thy us a king to judge us like all the sons walk not in thy ways: now make nations.—I Sam. viil. 5.

Geue vs a King? Thy fonnes arte growen into age. walke not in thy wayes. What a heuynes was thys to father Samuels herte, to here that hys sorye for the fonnes (whom he hadde fo well brought swaruyng of hys sonnels] vppe) shoulde swarue from hys wayes that from hys he had walked in. Father Samuel goeth to god to know hys wyll and pleafure in thys matter, God answered, let them have a Kynge. They have not caste the awaye but me, that I shoulde not raygne i. Sam. viii. Thys is theyr grounde that ouer them. faye a kyng is an odiouse thing and not acceptable before the face of God. Thus they force A place vyo-lentyd and and violent thys place to make for theyr forsyd to serue for other purpose, wher no such thynge is mente. purpose then Shewe the Israelites (fayth god) and testify meant. to them a Kynges authorite, and what a thing a kyng is, and what a kinge will do. And yat wyl not perswade them. I wyll not here them hear after, when they shal crie vnto me. I muste nedes confesse that the Iewes trespassed against almighti Wherin the God in asking of a King. But hear is the entent of the matter, in what thynge ther offence stode, Iewes, dyd consyst. whether absolutelye in askynge a kynge, or in anye other circumstaunce. It was in a circumstaunce. They sayed not. Aske vs a The Iewes kynge of God: but make vs a kynge to thre thynges iudge vs as al other nacions haue. would have a Kynge of theyr owne swinge and of theyr owne election, as thoughe they paste not of God. a nother poynte there was pryde. They would be lyke the heathen and iudged vnder kinges as thei were. Thyrdly, they offended God because they asked a kynge to the iniury and wronge of good father Samuel to depose hym, so thys was a wrong toward Samuel. was not with Samuell and hys children. A comparison lyke as wyth Ealy and his children Ophenes betwene Sa muel and his and Phines. They were cruel who wyth sonnes, and E[l]y and hys hokes takyng the fleshe out of the pottes when that facrifice was offered to god, brought the people into a contempt of Gods word.

They were lecherers. Theyr fynne were Ely sonnes manifestlye and notoriously knowen: but rers and manytheyr father Elye knowynge and herynge fest offenders. of it dvd blame them, but nothinge to purpofe, he dyd not emestly and substancially chastise them, and therefore he was justlye deposed of God. The fynnes of Samuelles fonnes were not knowen. they were not so notorious, wherfore it was not with father Samuell as it was wyth Elye, hys fonnes fautes were takynge of brybes, and Sonnes wer peruertynge of judgementes. Ye knowe that, bryberye is a fecrete faute, and therefore it ludgement. was not knowen. It was done under a coloure and a pretence of iustice, hidlye and couertly done. Therfore because it stode in brybes it was not like in Samuell as in Ely. It is a daungerous thynge to be in offyce for. qui attingit picem coinquinabitur ab ea, He Brybes are yat medleth wyth pitch is like to be lyke pyche. spotted with it. Bribes may be assembled to pitch, for euen as pytche dothe pollute theyr handes that medle with it: fo brybes wyl brynge you to peruertynge of iustyce. Beware of pytch, you iudges of the worlde, brybes wyl make you peruert iustice. you wil fay. We touche none. No mary. But my Mystres your wyse hath a syne synger she toucheth it for you or els you haue a feruaunt a Anglice a re-Muneribus he wyl fay yf you wyl come ecyuer of his masters bryto my master and offer him a yoke of oxen, bes. you shal spede neuer the worsse but I thincke my Mayster wil take none, when he hath offered them to ve maister, then commes another servaunt and sayes. If you wyl bring them to the clarke of the kichen, you shallbe remembred the better. Thys is a fryerly fassion that wyll receyue no shion in refumonye in theyr handes but wyll haue it synge of bryput vpon theyr fleues. A goodly rag of ly rage of popopyshe religion. They be lyke grave pyrie religion. fryers, they wyll not be fene to receyue no brybes them felues but have other to receive for them.

Samuels A fryerly fa-

Thoughe Samuell fonnes were priuge brybers and kepte the thynge verye close, yet the crye of the people brought it to Samuell, It was a hyd kynde of For men in thys poynte, woulde face it and brace it and make a shewe of vpryght dealynge, when they be most gyltye, Neuerthelesse, thys But suche men carrye gere came out. Oh wycked fonnes, that pryde in their bosomes that brought both theyr father to deposicion accuseth them. and them felues to shame. When Samuel Samuel herde of theyr faut, he went not about to woulde not be partaker of his sonnes excuse theyr fautes. He would not beare wyth hys fonnes. He woulde not. Communicare peccatis alienis. Be partaker wyth his fonnes offences, he sayed. Ego fenui, ecce filii mei vobifcum funt.* As ione as he hearde of it, he delyuered hys fonnes to the people to be punyshed. He wente not aboute to excuse them, nor sayed not, thys is the fyrst tyme, beare wyth them, but presented theym by and by to the people fayinge: Loe here they be, take theym, do wyth theym accordynge to theyr defertes. Oh. I woulde ther were no more bearers of other mens fynnes, then this good father Samuell was. hearde of late of a notable bloudshed. Audio sayeth S. Paule and fo do I. I know it not, but I heare of Ther was a fearcher in london, which executynge his office displeased a marchaunt man, in so much that when he was doinge his office, they were at wordes, the marchant man threatned hym, the fearcher fayed, the kyng shuld not lose hys custome. The marchant goes me home and sharpe[n]s his woodknife, and comes againe and knockes hym on ye head and killes him, thei yat told me yat tale sai it is winked at, thei loke thorow ther fyngers and wil not fe it.

Weyther it be taken vp wyth a pardon or no I canYe but it were better to go to God then to be borne to the deuyll.

Weyther it be taken vp wyth a pardon or no I cannot tel, but this I am fure, and yf ye beare wyth fuch matters the deuil shal bear you awai to hel. Bloudshed and murder would haue no bearing. It is a heinous thyng

* I am old and grayheaded; and, behold, mysons are with you.—1 Sam: xii. 2.

bloudshedynge and especially voluntary Bloudshemurder and prepenfed murder. For in dingandprepen sed mu r]ther Numerye God fayeth it poluteth the whole would not be realme. Polluitur illa terra, etc. et non potest borne with all. expiari fine fanguine.* The lande cannot be purged nor clenfed agayne tyl his bloud be shed that shed it. It is the offyce of kyng to fe fuch murders punished with death. Non frustra gestat gladium. † What wyl ye make of a kynge? He beareth a fwerde before The kynge hym, not a Pecokes fether. I go not a swerd before bout to flyrre you nowe to crudelitye, but him and not a Pecokes fe-I speake agaynste bearynge of bloudshed. ther. Thys bearyng muste be loked vpon. In certayne causes of murther such great circumstaunces may be, that the kynge may pardon a murther. But if I were worthye to be of counfaylle, or if I were asked myne aduife, I wolde not have the kynge to pardon a voluntarye murther, a prepenfed murther.

I can tell where one man flew an other, in a tounflyp, and was attached vpon the fame. xii. men were impaneled, the man hadde frendes, the Shryue laboured the bench, the. xii. men stacke at it and sayed, excepte he woulde disburse. xii crownes they woulde synde hym gyltye.

Meanes were found that the xii. crownes was payed. The quest commes in and sayes not giltye.

Here was a not gyltye for xii. crownes. This is bearyng, And fome of the bench were hanged, thei were wel ferued. This makes men bolde to do murder and flaughter. We shoulde reserve murderynge tyll we come to oure ennemyes, and the Kynge bydde vs fight. He that wolde be sturre him than, were a preti selow in dede. Crownes?

If theyr crownes were shauen to the shoulders they were serued well inoughe. I knew where a womanne was got wyth chylde, and was a shamed at the matter, and wente into a secrete place, where she hadde no

• For blood it defileth the land: the blood of him that shed it.—Numb.

The land cannot be cleansed of xxxv. 33.

† He beareth not the sword in vain.—Rom. xiii. 4.

women at her trauail and was deliuered of thre

chyldren at a byrthe.

She wrounge theyr neckes and caste theym into a water, and so kylde her chyldren. Sodaynelye, she was gaunte agayne, and her neyghboures suspectinge the matter caused her to be examened, and she graunted all. Afterwarde she was rayned at the barre for it, and dyspatched and sounde not giltye, throughe bearynge of friendes and brybynge of the iudge.

Where at the same seffyons, another poore womanne was hanged for stealynge a sewe ragges of a hedg, that were not worthe a crowne.

There was a certayne gentleman a professour of the word of God (he spedde neuer the better for that ye maye be sure) whoo was accused of murtheryng of a manne, where vppon he was cast into pryson. And by chaunce as he was in pryson one of hys frendes came vnto hym for to visite hym, and he declared to hys frende that he was neuer gylty in the murtheringe of the man. So he wente hys wayes, the gentle man was arayned and condempned, and as he wente to hys execution, he sawe hys frendes seruaunte, and said vnto him. Commende me to thy master, and I pray the tel hym, I am the same man styl I was when he was wyth me.

And if thou tary a whyle, thou shalt se me dye. There was sute made for thys mannes pardon, but it

An euyll Shryue may do somewhat for hys frend in a Shyre, he may helpe to hange vp the gylties. coulde not be gotten. Belike the Shriues or some other bare hym no good wyll. But he dyed for it. And afterwarde I beynge in the Tower, hauynge leaue to come to the Lieuetenauntes table, I hearde hym saye that ther was a man hanged that kylled the same manne for whome this afterwarde, that kylled the same manne for whome this Gentylman was put to death. O Lord what bearyng what bolstering of naughtye matters is thys in a Chrystian realme? I defyre youre Maiestye to remedye

An Apostrophe to the kynge for redresse of learnyng and bolredres in this realme in your owne person.

Althoughe my Lord Protector I doubt not and the reste of the counsayle do in the

the matter, and God graunt you to fe meane whyle all that lyeth in them to re- steryng of dresse things. I would such as be rulers, ters. noble men and maisters shold be at thys povnt with theyr feruauntes to certify them uerttsemente on thys fort. If anye man go about to do you wrong I wyl do mi best to helpe you in your right. But if thou breke the law thou shalte haue iustice. If ye wyll be naughty mat

A Godly adfor noble men and masters but I feare me it is to Godly to be manquellers, murderers, and traunsgressours, loke for no bearynge at my handes. A straunge thynge. What nede wee in the vengeaunce to burden our felues wyth other mennes fynnes? Haue we not fynnes inowe of oure owne? What neade haue I to burden my felfe wyth other mennes fynnes? I haue burdens and. ii. heapes of fynnes. One hepe of knowen finnes, an other of vnknowen fynnes. I had nede to fay. Ab occultis meis munda me domine* O Lord deliuer me from mi hidden and my vnknowe[n] fynnes.

Then if I beare with other mennes fynnes, I muste faye Deliuer me frome my other mennes fynnes. straung sayinge, from my other mens sinnes. Who beareth wyth other folkes offences, he communicateth wyth other folkes fynnes. Men haue finnes inough of their owne, althoughe they beare not and bolfter vp other men in their naughtines, thys bearinge, this bolfteryng and lokyng thorowe their fingers: is naught. What the fayr happe should I (or any else) encrease my Myne other mens fynnes forgyue me O Lord.

A straunge language they have hyd fyns of theyr owne inough althoughe they beare not wyth gyltines of other mens fynnes.

Oh father Samuell would not beare hys owne He offered hys owne fonnes to punyfhment. Ecce filii mei vobiscum sunt. † Euen at the And favd. fyrste tyme he sayed. Lo, here they be, I discharge my felfe, take them vnto you, and as for my parte.

Presto sum loqui coram domino et Christo eius. I am

* Cleanse thou me from secret faults.—Psa. xix. 12. z Sam. xii z

Behold, here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and be-† Behold, my sons are with you. - fore his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken?

here ready to answere for my selfe, before the Lord and hys anointed. Behold here I am, record of me Vtrum cuiufquam bouem. etc. before the Lorde. Whether I have taken any mans oxe, ani mans affe, or whether I have done any man wronge, or hurte anye man, or taken any bribes at anye mans hande. canne commende the Englysh translation that doth interprete munera bribes, not gyftes. They answered. naye forfooth. We knowe no fuch thinges in you. Testis est mihi deus,* saieth he, God is witnes, Quod nihil inueneritis in manu mea.* That you have found nought in my handes. Fewe fuche Samuels are in Englande nor in the world.

Why dyd Samuell thys? marye to purge hym felfe, he was enforced to it, for he was wrongfully deposed.

Then bi this ye mai perceive the fault of the lewes. for they offended not God in askynge for a kinge but for asking for a kinge to the wrongyng and deposicion of good father Samuel. If after Samuels death the people had asked of God a kyng they hadde not faulted, but it is no smale faut to put an innocent out of his Kyng Dauid likewyfe commaunded hys people to be numbred, and therewyth offended God greuously Why? might he not know the numbre of hys people? Yes, it was not the numbringe of the people that offended God, for a king may numbre hys people, but he dyd it of a pride of an elation of mynd, not according to Gods ordinaunce, but as havinge a trust in the numbre of hys men, thys offended God.

Lykewise the Iewes asked a kynge, and therewyth they offended not God. But they asked hym with fuche cyrcumstaunces, that God was offended wyth them.

It is no fmale faute to putte a juste man oute of hys office, and to depose hym vnworthely.

or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will retore it you.—I Sam. xii. 3.

* And they said, Thou hast not de-hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

† And he said unto them, the LORD mine eyes therewith? and I will refore it you.—I Sam. xii. 3.

And they said, Thou hast not defauded us, nor oppressed us, neither

And they answered, He is witness. -1 Sam. xii. 4, 5.

To chose a Kynge contraryinge the ordinaunce of God is a castyng away of God and not of a kyng.

Therfore doubt not, but the tytle of a kynge, is a lawefull thynge, is a lawefull tytle, as of other maiestrates. Onelye let ye kings take hede that thei do as it becometh Kynges to do, that thei do their office wel. It is a great thing, a chargeable thynge. Let them beware that they do not. Communicare peccatis alienis.*

That they beare not wyth other mens faultes for they shal geue a strayte accounte for all that perisheth, thorowe theyr necligence. We perceyue nowe what thys texte meaneth.

Ì

It is wrytten in the laste of Iudicum. In aiebus illis non erat rex in Ifrael.† In those dayes there was no kynge in Ifrael euerye manne dyd that whyche femed ryght in hys owne eyes. Men were then allowed to do what they woulde. When men maye be alowed to do what they wyl, then is it as good to have no king at al. Here is a wonderfull mater, that vnpreching prelats shuld be suffered so long. They can alledge for them felues. vii C. [feven hundred] yeares. Thys whyle the Realme had bene as good to have no kyng, likewife these brybing judges hathe bene suffered of a long tyme, and then it was, Quasi non fuiffet rex in anglia. To fuffer this is asmuch to fay, There is no king in England, it is the dutye of a kynge to have al states fet in order to do their office. I have troubled you to I wil make an end brefly. Beati qui audiunt verbum. † Blessed be their yat hear the word of god, but so that thei followe it, and kepe it in credite, in memori, not to depraue it and flaunder it, and bring the preachers out of credite, but that followe it in theyr life, and liue after it. H graunt you al that bleffing that made both you and me. Amen.

* Neither be partaker of other men's sins. -1 Tim. v. 22. + In those days there was no king in Israel.—Judg. xxi. 25. + Luke xi. 25.

The sifte

Sermon of Mayster Hughe

Latimer, whyth he preached before the kynges Maiesty wyth in hys Graees Palaie at CAestminster the
xii. daye of Aprill.

Vacunque fcripta funt ad nostram doctrinam fcripta funt.* Al thinges that are written, they are written, to be our doctrine. What doctrine is written for vs in the. viii, Chapter of the fyrst boke, of the kynges, I dyd partely shewe vnto you (most honorable audience) this day fen-night, of that good man father Samuell, ye good judge howe good a man he was, what helpers and coadiutours, he toke vnto him, to have hys offyce well discharged. I tolde you also of the wyckednes of hys sonnes, howe they toke bribes, and lyued wyckedlye, and by that meanes, brought both theyr father, and them felues to deposition. And howe the people dyd offende Gode in asking a Kynge in father Samuells tyme. And howe father Samuel was put from his offyce, who deserved it not. I opened to you also, howe father Samuel cleares hym felfe, that he know not ye fauts of his fonnes he was no bearer with his fonnes he was forv for it, when he herde it, but he wold not beare with them in their wickednes. Filii mei vobiscum sunt. † my fons are with you faith he. Do wyth theym accordynge to theyr defertes, I wyl not maintayne them, nor beare with them. After that he cleares him felf at the kinges fete, that the people had nothinge to burthen hym with al, neyther money, nor money worth. In treatinge of that part, I chaunced to shewe you, what I heard of a man that was slayne, and I heare saye it was not well taken.

* Rom. zv. 4.

† z Sam. xii. s.

Forfoth I entend not to empayre anye mannes estimation or honestye, and they that enforce it to that, enforce it not to my meanynge. I favd I heard. but of fuche a thynge, and toke occasion by that, that I heard, to speake agaynste the thynge, that I knewe to be noughte, that no man should beare with any man to the mayntenaunce of voluntary and prepenfed murder. And I here faye fyns, the man was otherwise an honest man, and they that spake for hym, are honest men. I am inclinable inoughe to credyte it. I fpoke not by cause I woulde have anye mannes honeftye impayred. Onelye I dyd as Saynct. Paule dyd, who hearynge, of the Corinthyans, that there shoulde be contencions and myfordre among them, dyd wryte vnto theym that he harde, and there vpon by occasion of hearynge he fet furth verve holfome doctryne of the supper of the Lorde. We might not have lacked that doctryne I tel you. Be it so the Corinthians had no fuche contencions among them, as Paule wrote of, Be it so, they had not misordred them felues, it was neyther of nor on, to that that Paule fayed. The matter laye in that, that vpon hearynge he would take occasion to set out the good and true doctrine. So I did not affirme it to be true vat I I spake it to advertise you, to beware of bearinge, wyth wylful and prepenfed murder. I wold haue nothing enforfed against any man. This was myne entent and meanynge. I do not knowe. what ve call chaunce medly in the lawe, it is not for my studye. I am a scholer in scripture in gods boke. I study that I knowe what voluntary murder is before God. If I shall fal out with a man. He is angrye wyth me, and I wyth hym, and lackynge oportunitie and place, we shall put it of for that tyme, in the meane feafon I prepare my wepon, and sharpe it agaynste a nother tyme, I swell and boyle in thys passion towardes hym. I seke hym, we medle together, it is my chaunce by reason my weapon is better then his, and so furth, to kyl him, I geue hym his dethes stroke, in my vengeaunce and anger.

Thys call I voluntarye murder in scripture, what it is in the lawe I can not tell. It is a greate synne, and therefore I call it voluntarye. I remember what a greate Clarke wrytteth of thys.

Omne peccatum adeo est Voluntarium ut nist sit voluntarium non sit peccatum.

Euerye synne (sayeth he) is so voluntarye, that if it be not voluntarye, it can not be called fynne. Synne is no actuall fynne, if it be not voluntarye. I would we woulde all knowe oure faultes and repente, that that is done, is done, it can not be called backe God is mercifull, the Kynge is mercifull, heare we maye repente, thys is the place of repentaunce When we are gone hence, it is to late then to repent. And let vs be content with fuch order as the magystrates shall take. But fuer it is a perillous thing to be are with anye fuche matter. I toulde you what I hard fave, I woulde have no mans honestye empayred by me tellynge. I harde fave fyns of a nother murder, that a Spanyarde shoulde kyll an Englisheman, and ronne hym thorowe wyth hys fwerde: they faye he was a tall man. But I here it not that the Spanyarde was hanged for hys laboure. If I had, I woulde have tould you it to. They fell out, as the tale goeth, about a whore. O Lord what whordom is vsed nowe a dayes. As I here by the relacion of honeste men, whyche tell it not after a worldlye forte, as thoughe they reioyfed at it, but heuely, wyth heuy hertes, howe God is dyshonored by whoredome in thys cytie of London. Yea the bancke, when it stode, was never so commune. If it be true that is toulde, it is maruayle yat it doeth not fincke, and that the earth gapeth not and swalloweth it vp. It is wonderfull that the citye of London doeth fuffer fuch whordom vnpunished. God hath suffered long of hys great lenitie, mercye, and benyngnitye, but he wyl punishe sharply at length, if we do not repente. There is sum place in London, as they saye, immunitie, impunitie. What should I call it? a preueledged place for whoredome. The Lorde Mayer hath nothynge to do there, the Sherisses, thei can not medle wyth it. And the queste, they not enquire of it, and there men do brynge theyr whores, yea other mennes wyues, and there is no reformacion of it.

There is suche dysynge howses also, they saye, as hath not bene wonte to be, where yong Gentlemenne dyse away their thriste, and where dysynge is, there are other folves also.

For the loue of God lette remedye be hadde, lette vs wreftle and stryue agaynste synne?

Menne of Englande in tymes paste, when they woulde exercyse theym selues (for we must nedes have some recreation, oure bodyescanne not endure wythoute some exercyse) they were wonte to goo a brode in the syeldes a shootynge, but nowe is turned in to glossyng, gullyng, and whoring wythin the houffe.

The arte of shutynge hath ben in tymes past much estemed in this realme, it is a gyst of God that he hath geuen vs to excell all other nacions wyth all. It hath bene goddes instrumente, whereby he hath gyuen vs manye victories agaynste oure enemyes. But nowe we have taken vp horynge in tounes, in steede of shutyng in the fyeldes. A wonderous thynge, that so excellente a gift of God shoulde be so lytle estemed. I desyer you my Lordes, euen as ye loue the honoure, and glory of God, and entende to remoue his indignacion, let ther be fente fourth fome proclimacion, some sharpe proclimacion to the instices of peace, for they do not their dutye. Iustices now be no inflices, ther be manye good actes made for thys matter already. Charge them vpon their allegiaunce yat this fingular benefit of God maye be practifed, and that it be not turned into bollyng, gloffyng and whoryng wythin the townes, for they be negligente in executyng these lawes of shuting. my tyme, my poore father, was as diligent to teach me to shote, as to learne anye other thynge, and fo I thynke other menne dyd theyr children. He taughte me how to drawe, how to laye my bodye in my bowe, and not to drawe wyth strength of armes as other nacions do, but with strength of the bodye I had my bowes boughte me according to my age and strength as I encreased in them, so my bowes were made bigger, and bigger, for men shal neuer shot well. excepte they be broughte vp in it. It is a goodly art, a holfome kynde of exercife, and much commended in phisike. Marcilius Sicinus in hys boke de triplici uita (it is a greate while fins I red hym nowe) but I remembre he commendeth this kinde of exercife, and fayth, that it wreftleth agaynst manye kyndes of diseases. In the reverence of God, let it be continued. Let a Proclamation go furth, chargynge the Iustices of Peace, yat they fe fuche Actes and statutes kept, as were made for this purpose. I wyl to my matter. I entend this day to entreate of a pece of scripture, written in the begynynge of the. v. Chapter of Luke. I am occasioned to take thys place by a boke sent, to the Kynges May[e]stye that deade is, by Mayster Poel. It is a texte, that he doeth greatly abuse, for the fupremitye. He rackes it, and vyolentes it, to ferue for the mayntenaunce of the byshop of Rome. And as he did enforce the tother place, that I entreated of last, so dyd he inforce thys also, to serue The storye is thys. hys matter.

Our Sauioure Christe was come nowe to the bancke of the water of Genezareth.

The people were come to hym and flocked aboute hym to here hym preache.

And Iesus toke a boote that was standynge at the poole, it was symonnes bote, and wente into it. And sittyng in the bote he preached to them that were on the bancke. And whan he had preached and taught them, he fpake to Simon and bade hym launch out fourther into the depe, and lose hys nettes, to catche fyshe. And Symon made aunswere, and sayed. Mayster, we haue labored all nyght, but we caught nothing howe be it at thy commaundement because thou byddest vs, we wyll go to it agayne. And so they dyd, and caught a greate draught, a miraculus draught so much that the net bracke, and they called to theyr fellowes that were bye, for they had. ii. botes to come to healpe them, and they came and filled both theyr botes so full, that they were nygh drounynge.* Thys is the story: That I maye declare thys texte so, that it may be to the honoure of God and edificacion of youre soules and myne boeth. I shall desier you to healpe me wyth your prayer in the whiche. etc.

Fallum eft autem. (Sayth the text) cum turba irrueret in eum.* Sayncte Luke telles the storye, and it came to passe, when the people presed vpon him, so that he was in perill to be cast into the pond they rushed so saste vpon hym and made such throng to him. A wonderous thynge, what a desyre the people had in those dayes to heare oure sauioure Christe preache, and the cause may be gathered of the latter end of the Chapter that went before. Oure Sauioure Christ had preached vnto them, and healed the sycke solkes of suche diseases and maladies as they had and therefore the people woulde haue retayned hym styll. But he made them aunswere, and sayed.

• And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their

And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

taught the people out of the ship Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

And Simon answering said unto

And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

— Luke x. 1—7.

Et aliis ciuitatibus oportet me euangelifare regnum dei, nam in hoc missus sum.* I must preache the kyngedome of god to other cyties also, I muste shewe them my fathers wyll: for I came for that purpose. fente to preache the worde of God. Our Sauioure Christ sayed, howe he muste not targe in one place, for he was fent to the worlde to preache euerye where. Is it not a meruaylous thyng, that oure vnpreaching prelates can read thys place, and yet preach no more then they do. I maruayle, that they can go quyetlye to bed, and fe how he allureth them with hys example, to be diligente in theyr, office. Here is a godly leffon also howe oure Saujoure Christe sled from glory. Yf these ambiciouse parsons, that climbe to honoure by bywal[k]es inordinatly, would confider this example of Iefus chrift, they shold come to more honour then they do: for when thei feke honour by fuch bywalkes, thei come to confucion honour followeth them yat fle Our fauiour Christ, gat hym a wave erlye in from it. the mornynge, and went vnto the wildernes. I woulde they woulde followe thys example of Christe, and not feke honoure by fuche by walkes as they do. what dyd the people? when he had hyd hym felfe, they fmelled him out in the Wylldernes, and came vnto him, by flockes, and followed hym a greate nombre. But where reade you that a greate nomber of fcribes and Pharifes, and Byshoppes followed hym. There is a doctour that wryteth of thys place, his name is Doctoure Gorrham, Nycolas Corrham, I knewe hym to be a schoole Doctoure a greate while a go, but I neuer knewe hym to be an enterpreter of fcripture til nowe of late: he fayeth thus, maior deuocio in laicis Vetulis quam in clericis, etc. There is more deuocion fayeth he, in laye folke, and olde Wyues, These symple folke, the vulger people, then in the clarkes, they be better affecte to the worde of God, ' then those, that be of the cleargye. I maruayle not at the fentence, but I maruavle to fund fuch a fentence in fuch a doctor. Yf I shoulde saye so much, it would be faved to me, that it is an euvll byrd that defiles hys owne nest, and Nemo læditur nisi a seipso. There is no man hurte, but of hys owne felfe. There was veryfied the fayinge of oure Sauioure Christe Whiche he spake in an other place. Vbicunque fuerit cadauer, ibicongregabuntur aquila. * Wherefoeuer a deade carion is, thither wil ye e[a]gles gather. Our fauiour christ compares hymselfe to a deade carrion, for where the carrion is, there wyl the Egles be, and though it be an euyl fmel to vs. and stynckes in a mans noose yet it is a fwete finell to the Egles, they wyl feke it out. So the people fought oute Chryst, they smelt hys sauour, he was a fwete smell to them. He is Odor uitæ ad uitam,† Thei flocket about him lyke the fmel of life to life. Christ was the carrion, and the people were Egles. the Egles.

*And he said unto them, I must cities also: for therefore am I sent.—preach the kingdom of God to other Luke iv. 43.

Thei had no pleasure to heare the Scribes and the Pharifes thei stancke in their nose, their doctrine was vnfauery, it was but of Lolions, of decimations of Anets feade, and Cummyn and fuche gere. was no comfort in it for foore consciences, there was no consolation for wounded soules, there was no remedye for fynnes, as was in Christes doctryne. Hys doctryne eased the burden of the soule, it was swete to the common people, and fower to ye Scribes. was fuch comforte and pleasure to them, that thei came flockyng aboute hym. Wherefore came thei? Vt audirent uerbum dei, t it was a good commyng. They came to heare the word of God. It was not to be thought that they came all of one mynde to here the worde of GOD. It is lykely yat in fo grat a multitude, some came of curiofitie, to here some nouelles, and from cam fmelling a fwete fauour, to have confolation and comfort of Gods word for we cannot be faued for wheresoever the carcase is, will the eagles be gathered to-Matt. xxiv. 28. w. I : see text at p. 163.

† The savour of life unto life.— To hear the word of God.-Luke without heringe of the worde. It is a necessarye waye to faluation.

We can not be faued wythout fayeth, and fayth commeth by hearynge of the worde. Fides ex auditu.* And howe shal they heare wythout a preacher? tel vou it is the sotesteppes of the ladder of heauen, of oure faluacion. There must be preachers if we loke to be faued. I toulde you of thys gradacion before in the tenth to the Romaynes. Confider it well. I had rather ve shoulde come of a naughtye mynde, to heare the worde of God, for noueltye, or for curiofite to heare some passime, then to be awaye. I had rather ye shoulde come as the tale is by the Gentelwoman of London one of her neyghbours mette her in the streate, and fayed mestres whether go ye; Mary fayed she, I am goynge to S. Tomas of Acres to the fermon, I coulde not flepe al thys laste nyght, and I am goynge now thether, I neuer fayled of a good nap there, and fo I had rather ye should go a napping to the fermons, than not to go at al. For with what mind fo euer ye come, thoughe ye come for an ill purpose, yet peraduenture ye maye chaunce to be caught or ye go, the preacher maye chaunce to be caught or ye hoke. Rather then we should not carried by would have you come of curiofitie, as Sayncte Augustyne came to heare Sainct Ambrose. When Sayncte Augustyne came to Myllane, (he telles the storve hymselfe in the ende of his boke of confessions) he was very defirous to here S Ambrose, not for anye loue he had to the doctrine yat he taughte, but to here his eloquence, whether it was fo greate, as the speache was, and as the brute went. Wel, before he departed Sayncte ambrose caught hym on hys hoke and conuerted hym so, that he became of a Maniche, and of a platoniste a good christian, a defender of christes religion, and of the fayeth afterwarde. So I woulde have you come to fer-It is declared in many mo places of scripture. howe necessarye preachynge is, as thys. Euangelium est potentia dei, ad salutem omni credenti.* The preachynge of the Gospel, is the power of god to euery man that doth beleue. He meanes gods word opened, It is ve instrument, and the thing wherby we are faued. Beware beware ve diminishe not thus office, for if ve do, ye decaie goddes power to al that do beleue. Christe sayeth consonaunte to the same. Nisi quis renatus fuerit e supernis, non potest uidere regnum dei.

* Faith cometh by hearing.-Rom. x. 17.

Except a man be borne a gavne from a boue, he can not fe the kyngdome of God. He muste have a regeneracion: and what is this regeneracion? It is not to be Christened in water (as these fyre brandes expound it) and nothynge elles. Howe is it to be expounded then? favnct. Peter sheweth. That one place of Scripture declareth another. It is the circumstaunce, and collacion of places that make scripture playne. Regeneramur autem ‡ (sayeth Sayncte Peter) and we be borne a gayne. Howe? Non ex femine mortali, fed immortali. 1 Not by a mortall feade, but by an immortall. What is this immortall feade? per sermonem dei uiuentis.‡ By the word of the liuyng God, by the worde of God preached and opened. Thus commeth in oure newe byrth. Here you maye fe how necessarye thys offyce is to oure faluacion This is the thynge that the deuill wrastleth most agaynste, it hath bene all hys studye to decaye thys office, he worketh agaynste it as muche as he can, he hath prevailed to much to much in it. He hath fetyppe a state of vnpreachynge prelacye in this Realme this. vii. c. [seven hundred] yere, A state of vnpreaching prelacy He hath made vnpreachynge prelates. He hath flyrred vp by heapes to perfecute thys office in ye title of herefy he hath sturred uppe the Magistrates to perfecute it in the title of fedicion. And he hath stirred vp the people to perfecute it with exprobacions and flaun-

John iii. 3.

one that believeth.—Rom. i. 16. word of God, which liveth

+ Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.—

* The gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.—Rom. i. 16.

* Being born again, not of corruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abid-

derous wordes, as by the name of newe learnynge straunge preacheyng and wyth impropriacions he hath turned preachynge in to private Masses. prieste shoulde haue lest Masse vindon On a sonday within these ten yeres, all En[g]lande shoulde haue wondered at it, but they might have left of the fermon. xx. fondayes and neuer haue ben blamed. And thus by these impropriations private Masses were set vp, and preachynge of gods worde troden vnder foote. But what doth he now? what doeth he now? he sterres men vp to outragious rearyng of rentes, that pore men shal not be able to synd their children at the schole to be divines. What an vnreasonable deuill is thys? he prouides a grate while before hand for the time that is to come. He hath broughte vp nowe of late the most monstrouse kynde of couetousnes that euer was hearde of. He hath inuented fee fermyng of benefices, and al to decaye thys office of preachynge, in fo much that when any man heare after shall have a benefice, he maye go where he wyll for any house he shall have to dwell vpon, or any glebe lande to kepe hospitalitie withal, but he must take vp a chamber in an Alehouse and there sit and plaie at ye tables all the day. A goodlye curate. He hath caused also through this monstrous kinde of couetousnes, patrons to fel theyr benefices. Yea what doth he more? He gettes him to the vniuersitie, and causeth great men and squiers to send theyr sonnes thither, and put out pore scholars yat should be diuines: for theyr parentes entend not they shall be preachers, but yat they may have a shewe of lerninge. Tut, it were to long to declare vnto you what desceit and meanes ye divel hath sound to decaie ye office of faluacion, this office of regeneration. to return to my matter. The people came to here ye word of god, thei hard him with filence I remember nowe a faying of Sayncte Chrisostome, and peraduenture it myght come here after in better place, but yet I will take it, whiles it commeth to my mind.

faying is this. Et loquentem eum audierunt in filentio, feriem locutionis non interrumpentes. They harde hym (fayeth he) in filence, not interruptynge the order of his preachinge. He meanes they hard hym quietely, with out any shouelynge of feete, or walkynge vp and downe. Suerly it is an yl myforder, that folke shalbe walkyng vp and downe in the fermon tyme (as I haue fene in this place thys Lente) and there shalbe suche buffynge and buffynge in the preachers eare, that it, maketh hym often tymes to forget hys matter. vs confider the Kynges Maiestyes goodnes, Thys place was prepared for banketynge of the bodye, and hys Maiestye hath made it a place for the comforte of the foule, and to have the worde of God preached in it, shewynge hereby that he would have all hys subjectes at it, if it myghte be possible. Consider what the Kynges Maiestye hathe done for you, he alloweth you all to heare with him. Confider where ye be, fyrst ye oughte to have a reverence to Godds word, and thoughe it be preached by pore men, yet it is the same worde that oure Saujoure spake.

Confider also the presence of the Kynges Maiestie Gods highe vycare in earth, hauyng a respect to his personag, ye ought to have reverence to it, and consider that he is goddes hyghe minister, and yet alloweth you all to be partakers with him of ye hervng of gods word. This benefit of his would be thankefully taken, and it would be highly estemed. It maye Hear in filence, as Chrisostom sayeth. chaunce that fume in the companye may fall ficke, or be difeafed, if therebe any fuche, let them go away, with filence, let them leave their falutacions tyll they come in the courte, let them departe with filence. I toke occasion of Chrisostomes wordes to admonyshe you of thys thynge. What shold be ye cause, that our Saujoure Christe wente into the bote? the scripture calleth it Nauis or nauicula. was no ship, it was a fishers bote, thei were not able to have a fhyp. What shoulde be the cause, why he would not fland on the banke and preach ther, but he desired Peter to drawe ye bote some what from ye shore into ye middes of the water. What shold be ve cause? What shold be the cause? One cause was, for that he might sit their more commodiously, then on ye banke, an other cause was, for yat he was like to be thrust into ye pond of ye peple yat came vnto him. Whi? our fauiour Christ might have with stode them, he was strong inough to have kept hymselfe from thrusting into the water. He was stronger, then they al, and if he had lifted he myght have stode on the water, as wel as he walked on the water, truth it is, fo might he have done in dede. But as it was fome tyme hys pleasure to shewe the poore of hys Godheade, so he declared nowe the infirmitie and imbicilitye of hys manheade. Heare he geueth vs an example what we shall do, we must not tempt God by any miracles, so long as we may walke by ordinary wayes. As oure Saujoure Christ when the diuel hadde hym on the top of the temple, and wold have had hym caste hym felfe doune, he made hym this aunswere. Non tentabis dominum deum tuum.* Thou shalt not tempt thy lord God, as if he shoulde have sayed. We maye not tempte God at all, it is no tyme nowe to shewe any miracles, ther is an other way to go doune, by greffinges. Thus he dyd to shewe vs an example, that we muste not tempte God, except it be in extreme necessitye, and when we cannot other wayes remedy the matter to leaue it all to God, elles we maye not tempt the maiestye of his deyte. Beware temptynge of God? wel, he commes to Simons bote, and why rather to Simons bote then an other. I wyl aunswere, as I finde in experience in my felfe. I came hither to day from Lambeth in a whirry and when I came to take my bote, the water men came about me, as the maner is, and he wold haue me, and he wold haue I toke one of them. Nowe ye wyll aske me why I came in yat bote, rather then in another, because I woulde go into that that I se stande nexte me, it stode more commodiouslye for me. And fo dyd Christe by Simons bote. It flode nerer for him, he sawe a better seate in it. natural reason. Nowe come the papistes, and they wyll make a misterie of it, they wyll pyke out the supremely of the Bishop of Rome in Peters bote. maye make allegories inoughe of euerye place in scripture, but fuerli, it must nedes be a symple matter that flandes on fo weke a grounde. But ye shall se further. He defired Peter to thruste out hys bote from the He defired hym. Heare was a good lesson for fhore. the Bishop of Rome, and all hys colledge of Cardinalles to learne humilitye and gentelnes. Rogabat eum.* He defired hym, it was gently done of hym, with out any austeritie, but wyth al vrbanitie, myldnes, and softnes and humilitye. What an example is thys, that he gives them heare? but they spie it not, they can se nothynge but the supremycye of the Byshop of Rome. derous thynge what fyghte they haue. They fe nothynge but the fupremicye of the Byshop of Rome. abatis ouibus meis, sayeth Ezechiell, cum auaricia, et austeritate, et dispersæ funt absque pastore.

* Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.-Matt. iv. 7.

Ye have ruled my shepe and commaunded them with greate lordlines, austeristlye, and power, and thus ye have dispersed my shepe a brode, and why? was no shephard, they had wanted one a great while. Rome hath bene many hundred yeres without a good shepard. They would not lerne to rule them gently, they had rule ouer them, but it was with curffings excommunicacions, with great austerite, and thunderboltes, and the diuel and al, to mayntaine their vnpreaching prelacye. I befeche God open their eyes, yat they maye fe the trueth, and not be blinded with those thinges, that no man can se but they. It foloweth in the texte. Sedens docebit de naui. † He taught fittyng.

• He prayed him.—Luke v. 3.

• With force and with cruelty have herd.—Ezek. xxxiv. 4. 5.

• With force and with cruelty have herd.—Ezek. xxxiv. 4. 5.

• [He] taught the people out of the ship.—Luke v. 3.

Preachers be lyke, were fitters in those daies, as it is written in a nother place. Sedent in cathedra moifu.

They fette in the chayer of Moses.

I woulde oure preachers woulde preache fittynge, or standynge, one waye, or other. It was a godly pulpit that our Sauiour Christ hadde gotten hym here. An olde rotten bote. And yet he preached hys fathers wyll, hys fathers message out of thys pulpyt. He regarded the people more then ye pulpit. He cared not for the pulpit, so he myght do the people good. In dede it is to be commended for the preacher to stand, or sit, as the place is, but I would not haue it so superficiously estemed, but that a good preacher may declare ye word of god sitting on a horse, or preching in a tre. And yet if this shold be done, ye vnpreaching prelattes would laughe it to skorne.

And though it be good to have the pulpit fet vp in churches, that the people may refort thither, yet I woulde not have it fo supersticiously vsed, but that in a prophane place the worde of God might be preached some times, and I woulde not have the people offended wyth all, no more, then they be with our Sauioure

Christes preaching out of a bote.

And yet to have pulpetes in churches it is very well done to have them, but they woulde be occupied, for it is a vayne thyng to haue them as they stand in many churches. I harde of a Byshop of Englande that wente on visitacion and (as it was the custom) when the Byshop shoulde come and be runge into the toune, the greate belles clapper was fallen doune, the tyall was broken, so that the Byshop coulde not be runge into the toune. Ther was a greate matter made of thys, and the chiefe of the paryshe were muche blamed for it in the visitacion. The Byshop was some what quicke wyth theym, and fignified that he was muche offended. They made theyr aunsweres, and excused them selues, as wel as they coulde, it was a chaunce, fayd they, that ye clapper brake and we coulde not get it amended by and by, we must tarrye til we can haue done it. It shal be amended as shortely eas may be. the other there was one wyfer then the rest, and he commes me to the Bishop. Whi mi Lord, sayth he, doth your lordship mak so grat matter of the bell, that lacketh hys clapper? here is a bell, fayeth he, and poynted to the pulpit, that hath lacked a clapper thys. xx. yeres. We have a parson, that setteth out of thys benefice fiftye poundes euerye yere, but we neuer fe hym. I warrant you ye Byshop was an vnpreachyng He could fynde faute wyth the bel, that prelate. wanted a clapper, to ryng hym into the toune, but he could not fynd any faut wyth the parfon that preached not at his benefice. Euer thys office of preachynge hath bene least regarded, it hath skante hadde the name of goddes seruyce. They must synge. Salue festa dies aboute the churche, that no man was the better for it, but to shewe theyr gaie cotes, and garmentes. came once my felfe to a place, ridyng on a iornay home warde from London, and I fente worde ouer nyghte into the toune that I would preach there in ye morninge because it was holy day, and me thought it was an holye dayes worcke, The church stode in my waye, and I toke my horsse, and my companye, and went thither, I thoughte I shoulde have sounde a greate companye in the churche, and when I came there, the churche dore was faste locked.

The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat, -Matt, xxiii, a.

I tarried there halfe an houer and more, at last the keye was founde, and one of the parishe commes to me and sayes. Syr thys is a busye daye wyth vs, we can not heare you, it is Robyn hoodes daye. The parishe are gone a brode to gather for Robyn hoode, I praye you let them not. I was sayne there to geue place to Robyn hoode, I thought my rochet shoulde haue bene regarded, thoughe I were not, but it woulde not serve, it was saynt ogeue place to Robyn hoodesmen.

It is no laughynge matter my friendes, it is a wepyng matter, a heauy matter, a heauy matter, vnder the pretence for gatherynge for Robyn hoode, a traytoure, and a thefe, to put out a preacher, to have hys office lesse estemed, to prefer Robyn hod before the ministracion of Gods word, and al thys hath come of vnpreachynge prelates. Thys Realme hath ben il prouided for, that it hath had fuche corrupte iudgementes in it, to prefer Robyn hode to goddes worde. Yf the Byshoppes had bene preachers, there shoulde neuer haue bene any fuche thynge, but we haue a good hope of better. We have had a good begynnynge, I befech God to continewe it. But I tell you, it is farre wide, that the people haue suche iudgementes, the Byshoppes they could laughe at it. What was that to them? they woulde have them continewe in their ignoraunce flyll, and them felues in vnpreachvng prelacye. Wel, fyttynge, fyttynge. He fatte doune and taughte. The texte doeth tell vs that he taughte, but it doeth not tell vs what he taughte. I were a papist I coulde tell what he sayed. I woulde in the Popes iudgemente shewe what he taught. For the Byshop of Rome hath in scrinio pectoris sui, the true vnderstandynge of Scriptures. Yf he cal a counfayle of colledge of Cardinalles, he hath authoritye to determine the supper of the Lorde, as he dyd at the counsayle of Florence.

And Pope Nicolas, and Byshoppe Langfrancke shal come and expounde thys place, and saye, that oure Sauioure Christe, sayed thus. Peter I do meane thys by syttynge in thy bote that thou shalte goo to Rome, and be Byshoppe there sine and twentie yeares, after myne ascension. And all thy successours shal be rulers of ye vniuersal church after ye.

Heare woulde I place also holye water, and hollye breade, and all vnwrytten verytes, if I were a Papiste, and that Scripture is not to be expounded by anye private interpretacion, but by oure holye father, and hys colledge of Cardinalles.

Thys is a greate dele a better place then. duc in altum.* But what was Christes sermon? it maye sone be gathered what it was. He is alwayes like him selfe.

* Launch out into the deep.-Luke v, 4.

Hys fyrste Sermon was. pænitentiam agite, do pennaunce, your lyuynge is naught, repente. Agayne at Nazareth, whan he redde in the temple and preached remission of fynnes, and healynge of woundyd consciences, and in the longe fermon in the mount, he was alwayes lyke hymfelfe, he neuer diffented from hymselfe. O there is a writer hath a joile text here, and hys name is, Dionifious. I chaunced to mete wyth hys boke in my Lorde of Caunterberyes librarye: he was a Monke of the charterhousse. I maruavle to find fuch a fentence in that author. What taught Christ in thys fermon? Mary fayeth he, it is not written. And he addeth more vnto it. Euangelistæ tantum scripserunt de sermonibus et miraculis christi quantum cognouerunt inspirante des sufficere ad ædisicacionem ecclesiæ ad confirmacionem sidei, et ad salutem animarum. It is true it is not wrytten. Al hys miracles were not written, fo neyther were al hys fermons wrytten, yet for all that the euangelistes dyd wryte so They wrote fo muche muche as was necessary. of the miracles and fermons of Christ as they knewe by godes inspiracion to be sufficient for the edifiynge of the churche, the confirmacion of oure faveth and the health of our foules. If thys be true as it is in dede, where be written verities? I meruayle not at the fentence but to fynde it in fuche an authour. Iefus what authoriti he gyues to goddes worde. But GOD woulde that fuche men shoulde be wytnesse wyth the authoritye of his boke, wil thei nill they.

Nowe to drawe towardes an ende. It followeth in the text duc in altum. Here comes in the fupremitye of the Byshoppe of Rome. Whan oure Sauioure Christ had made an ende of hys fermon and had fed their soules, he prouided for theyr boddies. Fyrst he began wyth the soule. Christes worde is the sode of it. Nowe he goth to the body, he hath charge of them boeth, he gyueth sode for them boeth: we must commit the fedyng of the body and of the soule to hym.

Well, he fayeth to Peter. duc in altum. Launche in to the depth, put forth thy bote farther into the deepe of the water. Lose youre nettes, nowe fyshe. As who shoulde fave, youre soules are now fedde, I haue taught you my doctrine, nowe I wyll confirme it with a miracle. Lo fyr here is duc in altum, Here Peter was made a greate man fave the Papistes, and all hys fucceffours after hym. And thys is deriued of these fewe words. Launch into the deepe. their argumente is thys: he spake to Peter onelye, and he spake to hym in the singular number, ergo he gaue him such a preeminence aboue the rest. goodly argument, I wene it be a fillogifmus. in quem terra pontus. I will make a lyke argument, Oure Sauioure Christe sayed to Iudas, whan he was about to betraye hym quod facis fac citius.* Nowe whan he spake to Peter ther were none of his disciples by, but Iames and Iohn, but whan he spake to Iudas they were al present. Wel, he sayd vnto him, quod facis fac citius. Spede thy busines, yat thou hast in thy heade, do it. He gaue him here a fecret monicion that he knewe what he intended, if Iudas had had grace to haue taken it and repented. He spake in the singular number to him, ergo he gaue hym fome preeminence. By like he made him a Cardinall, and it mighte ful wel be, for they have followed Iudas euer fyns. Here is as good a grounde for the Coledge of Cardinalles, as the other is for the supremitie of the Bishop of Oure Sauiour Christ (say they) spake onely Rome. to Peter for preeminence, because he was chiefe of the Apostles, and you can shewe none other cause Ergo thys is the cause why he spake to hym in the syngular I dare faye there is neuer a whirriman at Westminster brydge, but he can answere to thys, and gyue a naturall reason for it.

He knoweth that one man is able to shoue the bote, but one man was not able to caste out the nettes, and therefore he sayed in the plural nomber. laxate retia: † Louse youre nettes? and he sayed in the syngular number to Peter, launch out the bote. why? because he was able to do it.

* That thou doest, do quickly.—

† Let down your nets, -Luke v. 4.

John xiii, 27.

But he spake the other in the plural nomber. because he was not able to conuave the bote, and cast out the nettes to. One man coulde not do it. woulde the whirry man faye, and that wyth better reason, then to make such a misterie of it, as no man can fpye but they. And the cause why he spake to all, was to shewe that he will have all Christen men to worcke for theyr lyuynge. It is he that fendes foode both for the body, and foule, but he wyll not fend it, wythout laboure, He wyll haue all Christen people to laboure for it, he wyll vse oure laboure as a meane whereby he fendeth oure foode. This was a wounderous myracle of our Saujoure Christe, and dvd it not onely to allure them to hys discipleshippe, but also for our commoditie. It was a seale, a seale to feale hys doctrine wythall. Nowe ye knowe that fuche as be kepars of feales, as my Lorde Chauncelour and fuche other, what fo euer they be, they do not all waves feale, they have a fealynge tyme. (For I have harde poore men complaine, that thei haue bene put of from tyme to tyme of fealynge to another, tyll all theyr money were spent). And as they have tymes to feale in, so oure Saujoure Christ had hys tyme of When he was here in earth, wyth his Apostles, and in the tyme of the primitive churche, Christes doctrine was sufficientely efealed already wyth feales of hys owne makynge, what shoulde oure seales do? What nede we to feale his feale? it is a confirmed doctrine alredi. O Luther, when he came into that worlde furft, and disputed against the decretales. the Clementines, Alexandrines, Estrauagantines, what a do had he. But ye wyll faye peraduenture he was deceyued in some thynges I wil not take vpon me to defend him in al pointes, I wil not stand to it, yat al. that he wrot was true, I thinke he woulde not so hym For there is no man, but he maye erre. came to further and further knowledge, (but fuerly he was a goodli instrument). Wel I say, when he preached fyrste they called vpon him to do myracles, thei were wrought before. And fo we nede to do no miraclels. In dede when the popish prelates preached fyrst, thei had nede of miracles, and the deuil wroughte fome in the preachynge of purgatorye. But what kynde of miracles these were, all Englande doeth knowe. but it wil not knowe. A wounderfull thinge, that the people wyl contynewe in theyr blyndnes and ignoraunce stil. We have greate vtilitie of the miracles of oure fauiour Iesus Christe. fignifye vnto vs, by this wonderful worcke, yat he is Lord as wel of ve water as of the land. A good comfort for those yat be on ye water, when thei be in ani tempest, or daunger to call upon him. The fishe here came at his commaundement. Here we maye learne that all thynges in the water are fubiecte to Christe. Peter fayed. Syr, wee haue laboured all nighte, and haue not caught one fynne, howe be it at youre word we wyll to it a freshe. By this it appereth that ye gaine, the lucre, the reuenewes that we get, must not be imputed to oure labour, we maye not say, gramercy labour: it is not oure labour, it is our fauiour Christ that sendeth vs liuvnge, yet muste we laboure, for he that faved to Peter labour, and he that bad the fyshers laboure, biddes all menne to laboure in theyr busines. There be some people that ascribe their gaynes, theyr encrease, gotten by anye facultye, to the deuil. Is ther any trowe ye in England would fay fo? Nowe if any man shoulde come to an other, and fay he gat hys lyuynge by the dyuell, he would fall out wyth hym. There is not a man in Englande that fo fayeth, yet is there some that thyncke it. For al yat get it with false biyng and fellyng, wyth circumuention, wyth vsury, impostures, mixte wares, false waightes, deceyuynge theyr Lordes and maisters, all those, that get they goodes on thy fashion, what do they thyncke, but that the deuil fendes them gaynes and ryches. For they be hys (beyng vnlawefully gotten.) What is thys to fay, but that the dyuell is authour of they gaynes when they be so gotten? For God. inhabites them. deus non uolens iniquitatem tu es.* God wylno iniquitie. These folke are greatly deceived. Ther be fome againe impute al to their laboures and workes.

Yea, on the hollye day, they can not fynde in their hertes to come to the Temple, to the bleffed communion, they must be working at home. These are wid againe on the other fide. And fome there be yat thinke, if they worke nothinge at al, they shal haue inough, they wil haue no good exercise, but gape and thinke that god wil fend meat into their mouthes, and these are as far wide: they muste worke, he bad the fishers worcke. Our Saujour Christ bad Peter worke, and he that fayed so to them, fayes the same to vs, euerye man in his arte. benedictio dei facit diuitem.†

The bleffynge of God maketh a man ryche. lettes hys fonne shyne vpon the wycked, aswell as vpon the good, he fendes ryches boeth to good and bad.

But thys bleffynge turnes to them into a malediction and a curfe, it encrefeth their damnacion. Sayncte Paulle wrytynge to the Thessalonians, dyd put an order howe euerye man shoulde worke in hys vocation. Cum effenius apud uos, hoc præcipiebamus uobis, ut si quis nollei operari, is nec edat.

When I was amonge you (fayeth he) I made thys ordinaunce, that whofoeuer wold not do the worke of hys vocation, shoulde have no meate. It were a good ordinaunce in a common weale, that euerye man sholde be set on worke, every man in hys vocation. Lette hym haue no mete. Nowe he fayeth further-Audiuimus quofdam inter uos uerfantes inordinate, nihil operis facientes. \ I here faye, there is fome amongest you, that lyues inordinatelye. that word inordinatelye? ydelye, gyuynge them felues to no occupacion for theyr lyuynge. Curiofe agentes. Curiose men, gyuen to curiositye, to searchynge what other men do. Saynct Paule sayeth, he harde saye, he could not tell whether it were fo or no. But he toke occasion of hearynge saye, to sette out a good and holsome doctrine. his autem qui funt eiusmodi præ-

* And caust not look on iniquity. would not work, neither should he eat.—2 Thess. iii. 10.

-Hab. i. 13.

+ The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich. - Prov. x. 22. § For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busy-For even when we were with you, working not at all, but this we commanded you, that if any bodies.—2 Thess. iii. 11.

cipimus, et obsecramus.*

We commaund and defier you for the reverence of God, if ther be any fuche, that they wyll do the worckes of their vocacion, and go quietly to their occupation, and so eate theyr owne bread, ells it is not theyr owne, it is other mens meate. Oure Sauiour Christ before he began hys preachynge, lyued of hys occupacion, he was a carpenter, and gat hys liuynge wyth greate laboure.

Therefore let no manne difdayne, or thincke skorne to followe hym in a meane liuvinge, a meane vocation. or a common callynge and occupacion. For as he bleffed oure nature with takinge voon hym the shape of man, so in hys doyng he blessed al occupacions and artes. This is a notable example to fignify yat he abhorres al idlenes. When he was a Carpentar, then he went, and dyd the worke of hys callynge, and when he was a preacher he dyd the workes of that calling. He was no vnpreachyng prelate. Byshoppe of Rome shoulde have learned that at him. And these gayners with salse artes what be they? They are neuer contente with that they have, thoughe it be neuer so muche. And they yat are true dealers, are fatified with that god fendes, thoughe it be neuer fo litle quastus magnus pietas, cum animo sua sorte contento.† Godlines is great gayne.

It is lucre inoughe, it is vantage inoughe to be content with that, that God sendes. The favethfull can not lacke, the vnfaythfull is euer lackynge, though he haue neuer fo much I wil nowe make an ende. labores manuum tuarum.† Let vs al labour. teacheth vs to labour, yea the Byshop of Rome hym felfe, he teacheth him to labour rather then to be

EXXVIII. 2.

* Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.—2 Thess.

**Ei. 12.*

**Godliness with contentment is great gain.—1 Tim. vi. 6.

**For thou shalt eat the labour of and it shall be well with thee.—Pao.

hedde of the church. Let vs put our trust in God. Labores manuum tuarum. Caste thy care vpon the Lord and he wyll norishe the and sede the. Agayne the Prophet sayeth. Numquam uidi iustum derelictum nec semen eius quærens panem.*

I neuer fawe the ryghtuouse man forsaken, nor hys seede to seke his bread. It is insidelytye, infidelitye, that marres all together.

Well to my texte. labores manuum tuarum quia manducabis, beatus es et bene tibi erit etc. thou eatest the labors of thy handes, that, yat God fendes the of thy laboure. Euery man must labour, yea though he be a Kynge yet he muste labour, for I knowe no man hath a greater laboure then a Kynge. What is his labour? To studye goddes boke, to fee yat there be no vnpreachynge prelates in his realme, nor bribing Iudges, to fe to all estates, to prouyde for the poore, to fee vittailes good chepe. this a labour trowe ye? thus if thou duste laboure, exercifynge the worckes of thy vocatyon, thou eatest the meate that god fendes the, and then it followeth. Thou art a bleffed manne in Goddes fauour. Et bene tibi erit. And it shall go well wyth the in this world, both in bodye and foule, for God prouides for both. Howe shalte thou prouyde for thy foule? go here Sermons. Howe for the boddy? labour in thy vocation, and then shall it be well with the, bothe here and in the worlde to come through the fayth and merites of our fauiour Iefus Chryft, To whom with the father and the holy goft, be prayfe for euer and euer, world with oute ende.

Amen.

The ende of the. vi.
Sermon.

I have been young, and now am forsaken, nor his seed begging bread, eld, yet have I not seen the righteous —Psa, xxxvii. 25.

The seventh

Bermon of Maister Bughe

Latimer, whyche he preached before the Kinges Maiestye wythin hys Graces Palaice at Westminster the xix. daye of Aprill.

Vacunquescriptasunt, adnostram doctrinam scripta sunt.* Al thynges yat be written, thei be written to be our doctrine. By occasion of thys texte (most honorable audience) I haue walked thys Lente in the brode filde of scripture and vsed my libertie, and intreated of such matters as I thought, mete for this auditory. I have had a do with many estates, even with the highest of all, I haue entreated of the dutye of Kynges, of the dutye of maiestrates, and Iudges, of the dutye of prelates, allowing that yat is good, and disalowing the contrary. I have taught that we ar all fynners, I thinke there is none of vs al, neither precher, nor hearer but we maye be amended, and redresse oure lyues. maye all faye, yea all the packe of vs, peccauimus cum patribus nostris.† We have offended and synned with our foresathers. In multis offendimus omnes! There is none of vs al, but we have in fondry thinges greuously offended almyghtie God. I here intreated of many fautes and rebuked manye kyndes of fynnes. intende to daye by Goddes grace, to shew you the remedy of fynne. We be in the place of repentaunce. nowe is the tyme to cal for mercy, whyles we be in this worlde. We be all fynners, euen the best of vs all. Therefore it is good to here the remedy of fynne. This day is commonly called good Fryday, although eueri day ought to be with vs good fryday, Yet this day we ar accustomed specially to have a commemoration and remembraunce of the passion of our fauiour Iefu Chrift. This daye we have in memory hys bytter Passion and death, which is the remedy of our syn. Therefore I intende to intreat of a pece of the story of hys passion. I am notable to intreate of all. That I may do that the better, and that it maye bee to the honour of God and edification of youre foules and myne both, I shal defyre you to praye etc. In thys prayer, I wyll defyre you to remember the foules departed, wyth laudes and prayse to almyghtie God, that he woulde vouchsafe to affyste them at the hour of their death. In fo dooynge, you shalbe put in remembraunce to praye for your felues, that it may pleafe GOD to affyfte and comforte you in the agonies and paines of death.

* Rom. xv. 4. † We have In many things we offend all.—sinned with our fathers. - Psa. cvi 6. Jam. iii. 2.

The place that I will intreat of is in the. xxvi. Chapiter, of faynte Matthewe, Howebeit, as I intreate of it I wyll borrowe parte of Saynte Marke and faynt Luke, for they have fomwhat, that faynt Mathew hath not, and especially Luke.* The texte is. cum uenisset Iesus in uillam quæ dicitur gethsemani.† Then when Iefus came, fome haue in uillam fome in agrum. some in prædium. But it is all one, when Christ came into a Graunge, into a peace of land, into a fielde, it makes no matter, cal it what ye wyl, at what tyme he had come into an honest mans house. and ther eaten hys pascquall lambe, and instituted and celebrate the lordes supper, and sette furth the bleffed communion, then when this was done, he toke his way to the place, where he knewe Iudas would come. It was a folitarye place and thither he wente with hys leauen Apostles. For Iudas the twelfte was a boute his busines, he was occupied aboute his marchaundife, and was proughing among the byshoppes and preistes, to come with an imbushment of lewes to take our fauiour Iesus Christ.

* Matt. xxvi. 36-44; Mark xiv. + Then cometh Jesus with them 32 35; Luke xxii. 39-44: John unto a place called Gethsemane.— xvii. 1. Mar xxvi. 36.

And when he was come into this felde, or grandge, this village, or ferme place, which was called Gethfemani, there was a Garden fayth Luke, into the whych he goeth, and leues. viii. of hys disciples without, howbeit he appoynted them what they shold do. He fayth Sedete hic, donec uadam illuc, et orem.* you here whiles I go yonder and prai. them that he went to pray, to monish them what they should do, to fall to praier as he dyd. them there, and toke no more with him but. iii. Peter, Iames, and Ihon to teach vs that a folitari place is mete for prayer. Then when he was come into this garden, Capiet expansfere. + He began to trimble, in so much he sayed. Tristis est anima mea usque My foule is heavye and pencyue, even ad mortem. vnto death. Thys is a notable place, and one of the most especiall and chefeste of all that be in the storye of the passion of Christe. Here is our remedye. Here we must have in consideracion, all hys doynges and fayeinges for oure learnynge, for oure edification, for oure comforth, and confolacion.

Firste of all he fet hys thre Disciples that he toke wyth hym in an order, and toulde theym what they shoulde do, sayinge. Sedete hic et uigilate mecum et orate.

Sytte here, and praye that ye enter not into temptacion, but of that I wyll entreate afterwarde. Nowe when he was in the Garden, capit expanefore.† He beganne to be heavye, pencyue, heavye harted. I lyke not Oregens playeinge wyth this word capit, it was a perfect heavynes, it was suche a one as was never sent th grater, it was not onely the begyning of a sorow. These doctours, we have greate cause to thanke God for them, but yet I would not have them alwayes to be allowed. They have handled many poyntes of our fayth verye godly, and we may have a greate staie in them in mani thinges, we might not wel lake them, but yet I woulde not have men to be fworne to them. and fo adicte as to take hand ouer hed whatfoeuer they fay, it were a great inconvenience so to do. Wel, let vs go forward. He toke Peter, Iames and Ihon into thys garden. And why dyd he take them wyth hym, rather then other? mary those that he had taken before, to whom he had reueled in the hyl, the transfiguracion and declaracion of his deitye, to fe ye reuelacion of ye maiestie of his godhead: now in the garden he reueled to the fame ye infirmity of his manhood, because they had tasted of the swete, he would thei should tast also of the sower. He toke thefe wyth hym at boeth tymes, for two or thre is inoughe to beare witnes. And he began to be heuy in hys He was greatly evexed wythin hym felfe, he was fore afficted, it was a gret heauines, he had bene heavye many times before, and he had fuffered greate afflictions in hys foule, as for the blyndenes of the Iewes, and he was like to fuffer mo panges of paine in hys body. But thys pange was greater then any he euer fuffred yea, it was a greater torment vnto hym I thynke, a greater payne then when he was hanged on the crosse, then when the stower nayles were knocked and driven throughe hys handes and fete, then when the sharpe crowne of thornes was thrust on hys head. Thys was the heavines and pensivenes of hys hearte, the agony of the spirit. And as the soule is more precious then the bodye: euen so is the paine of the soule more greuous then the paynes of the body. Therfore ther is another which writteth. horror mortis grauioripfa The horrour and vgfomnes of death is forer then death it felfe. This is the moste greuous paine, that euer christ suffered, euen this pang, that he fuffered in the garden. It is the most notable place one of them in the whole storie of ye passion, when he sayed. Anima mea tristis est usque ad mortem.

* Sit here, while I go and pray yonder.—Matt. xxvi. 36.

† Began to be sorrowful and very began to be sorrowful and very watch w th ne.—Matt. xxvi. 38.

Matt. xxvi. 37, 38 : see previous page.

foule is heavy to death. And cum capiffer expanescere and when he began to quiuer, to shake. The greuousnes of it is declared by hys prayer yat he made. pater si possibile est etc.* Father if it be possible, a way with this cup, rid me of it. He vnderstod by this cup his paines of death. For he knewe well inoughe that hys passion was at hand, that Iudas was come vpon hym with the Iewes to take him. was offered vnto hym nowe the Image of death, the Image, the fence, the felynge of hell, for death and hell go both together. I wyll entreate of thys Image of hell, whyche is death. Truelye no manne can shewe it perfectlye, yet I wyl do the best I can to make you vnderstand ye greuouse panges that oure Saujoure Christe was in when he was in the garden, as mans power is not able to beare it, fo no mans tong is able to expresse it. Paynters painte death lyke a man without skin, and a body hauyng nothing but And hel they paint it, horible flames of brenning fier, they bungell some what at it, thei come no thing nere it But thys is no true payntynge. paynter can paynte hel vnlesse he coulde paynte the torment and condemnation both of body and foule, ye possession and hauyng of all in felicitie. hel, this is ye Image of death this is hell, fuch an euyl fauoured face, fuch an vgfome countenaunce, fuch an horrible vyfage our fauiour Christ sawe of death and hell in the gardayn. There is no pleafure in beholdynge of it, but more payne then anye tounge Death and hell toke vnto them thys euyll fauoured face of fine, and thorough fynne. This fynne is fo hyghly hated of God, that he doth pronounce it worthy to be punished wyth lacke of all felicitie, with the fealyng of infelicitie. Death and hell be not only the wages, the reward, ye stipend of fin, but they are brought into ye world by finne, per peccatum morst fayth S Paule, throughe fynne deathe

* O my Father, if it be possible, xxvi. 39. kt this cup pass from me,—Matt. + Death by sin.—Rom v. 22.

entered into the world. Mofes sheweth the first comming in of it into the world Where as our fyrst father Adam was fet at libertie to lyue for euer, yet God inhibytynge hym from eatyng of the Aple, tould hym, If thou meddle with this fruite, thou and all thy posteritie shall fal into necessitie of death from euer lyuynge, morte morieris, thou and all thy posteritie shalbe subject to deathe, here came in death and hell. Synne was their mother. Therefore they must have fuche an Image as their mother finne would geue An vgfome thing and an horrible Image must it nedes be that is brought in by fuch a thyng fo hated of God, yea this face of death and hell is fo terrible, that fuche as hath bene wycked men had rather be hanged than a byde it. As Achitophell that traytoure to Dauid lyke an ambyciouse wretche thought to haue come to higher promocion, and therefore conspired with Abfolom against hys maiester Dauid. He when he fawe hys counfayle toke no place, goes and hanges hym felfe, in contemplacion of thys eurl fauored face of death. Iudas also when he came wyth bushementes to take his maister Christe in beholding this horrible face hanged himselfe.

Yea the electe people of God, the faythful havinge the beholdynge of thys face, (though God hath alwayes preserved them, suche a good God he is to them that beleue in hym, that he wyll not suffer them to be tempted aboue that, that they have bene able to beare) yet for all that, there is nothynge that they complaine more fore then of thys horrour of death.

Go to Iob. What fayeth he? Pereat dies in quo natus fum, fuspendium elegit anima day of hys mea.* Wo worth ye day that I was borne did inwardly in, my foule wolde be hanged, faying in behold ye horhis panges almooste he wyste not what.

Thys was when wyth the eye of hys conscience, and the inwarde man he behelde the horrour of death and hel, not for any bodylye payne that he suffered

* Let the day perish wherein I was born. - Job iii. 3.

foule is heavy to death. And cum capiffer expansionere and when he began to quiuer, to shake. uousnes of it is declared by hys prayer yat he made. pater si possibile est etc.* Father if it be possible, a way with this cup, rid me of it. He vnderstod by this cup his paines of death. For he knewe well inoughe that hys passion was at hand, that Iudas was come voon hym with the Iewes to take him. was offered vnto hym nowe the Image of death, the Image, the fence, the felvinge of hell, for death and hell go both together. I wyll entreate of thys Image of hell, whyche is death. Truelye no manne can shewe it perfectlye, yet I wyl do the best I can to make you vnderstand ye greuouse panges that oure Saujoure Christe was in when he was in the garden. as mans power is not able to beare it, fo no mans tong is able to expresse it. Paynters painte death lyke a man without ikin, and a body hauyng nothing but And hel they paint it, horible flames of bones. brenning fier, they bungell some what at it, thei come no thing nere it But thys is no true payntynge. paynter can paynte hel vnleffe he coulde paynte the torment and condemnation both of body and foule. ye possession and hauyng of all in felicitie. Thys is hel, this is ye Image of death this is hell, fuch an euyl fauoured face, fuch an vgfome countenaunce, fuch an horrible vyfage our fauiour Christ sawe of death and hell in the gardayn. There is no pleasure in beholdynge of it, but more payne then anye tounge can tell. Death and hell toke vnto them thys euvll fauoured face of fine, and thorough fynne. This fynne is fo hyghly hated of God, that he doth pronounce it worthy to be punished wyth lacke of all felicitie, with the fealyng of infelicitie. Death and hell be not only the wages, the reward, ye stipend of fin, but they are brought into ye world by finne, per peccatum morst fayth S Paule, throughe fynne deathe entered into the world. Moses sheweth the first comming in of it into the world Where as our fyrst father Adam was fet at libertie to lyue for euer, yet God inhibytynge hym from eatyng of the Aple, tould hym, If thou meddle with this fruite, thou and all thy posteritie shall fal into necessitie of death from euer lyuynge, morte morieris, thou and all thy posteritie shalbe subject to deathe, here came in death and hell. Synne was their mother. Therefore they must have fuche an Image as their mother finne would geue them. An vgfome thing and an horrible Image must it nedes be that is brought in by fuch a thyng fo hated of God, yea this face of death and hell is fo terrible, that fuche as hath bene wycked men had rather be hanged than a byde it. As Achitophell that traytoure to Dauid lyke an ambyciouse wretche thought to haue come to higher promocion, and therefore conspired with Absolom against hys maiester Dauid. He when he fawe hys counfayle toke no place, goes and hanges hym felfe, in contemplacion of thys euyl fauored face of death. Iudas also when he came with bushementes to take his maister Christe in beholding this horrible face hanged himfelfe.

* O my Father, if it be possible, xxvi. 39. let this cup pass from me.—Matt. + Death by sin.—Ross v. 22.

Yea the electe people of God, the faythful hauinge the beholdynge of thys face, (though God hath alwayes preserved them, suche a good God he is to them that beleue in hym, that he wyll not suffer them to be tempted about that, that they have bene able to beare) yet for all that, there is nothynge that they complaine more fore then of thys horrour of death.

Go to Iob. What fayeth he? Pereat dies in quo natus fum, fufpendium elegit anima day of hys mea.* Wo worth ye day that I was borne did inwardly in, my foule wolde be hanged, faying in behold ye horhour of death.

Thys was when with the eye of his conscience, and the inwarde man he behelde the horrour of death and hel, not for any bodylye payne that he suffered fayth, my foule is heavye to death, he was in so fore an Agony, that there issued out of hym Chryst was in Agonye. as I shal entreate anone, droppes of bloud, an vgfome thing fuerly, whiche his fact and dede sheweth vs, what horrible paynes he was in for oure fakes.

* Let the day perish wherein I was born.-Job iii, 3,

But you will faye, howe can this be? It were An answer to possible that I and suche other, as be an objectyon greate synners shoulde suffer suche afflicconcernyng Chrystes af-The fonne of God, what ours fliction and tor-Sauioure Christe? neuer synned, howe can thys stande that he shoulde be thys handeled? he neuer deserued it. Mary I wyl tell how we must confider oure Sauiour Christe two wayes, one way in hys manhode, another in his Godhed. Some places of scripture must be referred to hys deitie, and some

Christ suffred nothyng in hys godhed.

to his humanitie. In hys godhed he fuffered nothynge, but nowe he made hym felfe voide of hys deity, as scripture fayth. Cum effet in forma dei exinaniuit feipfum.*

Where as he was in the forme of God, he emptyed hym felfe of it, he dyd hyde it, and vfed him felfe as though he had not had it, he woulde not helpe hym le wyth hys godhede, he humbled him felfe with al edience vnto death, euen to the death of the crosse thys

w Chryst e vpon him r synnes.

was in yat he was man, he toke vpon hym our fynnes, our fynnes, not the worcke of fynnes. I meane not fo, not to do it, not to commyt it, but to purge it, to cleanse it, to beare the flypende of it, and that waye he was the Whych way great fynner of the worlde, he bare all the

Chryst was ye greate synner of the whole

fynne of the worlde on hys backe, he woulde become detter for it. Nowe to fustayne and fusser the doloures of death, is not to fynne, but he came into thys worlde, wyth hys passyon to purge our synnes. Nowe thys Chrystes sufferyng in the that he suffered in the Gardaine is on [e], of one of the byt. the bittrest peces of all hys passyon, theys

Who, being in the form of God obedient unto death, even the death he humbled himself, and became of the cross.—Phil. ii. 8.

terest peces of feare of death was the byttereste payne that euer he abode, dewe to fyn which he neuer did, but became detter for vs. Al this he fuffer for vs, thys he dyd to fatissefve for our synnes. It is much like as if I oughte another man. xx. M. He declares [thousand] poundes, and shulde paye it out what Chryst of hande, or elles go to the dungen of a similitude. ludgate, and when I am goynge to pryson, one of my friendes should come, and aske, whether goeth thys man? And after he had harde the matter, shulde faye, let me aunswere for hym, I wylbe come suertye for hym. Yea, I wyll paye all for hym. Suche a parte played our fauiour Christe wyth vs. If he had not fuffered thys, I for my part shoulde have suffered, accordynge to the grauitie and qualititie of my fynnes. damnacion. For the greater the synne is, the greater is the punyshement in hell. He suffered for you and me in suche a the greater degre, as is dewe to all ye finnes of the whole world. It was as if you woulde immagin that one man had commytted al the fynnes fince Adam, you maye be fure he shoulde be punished wyth the fame horrour of death in fuche a forte as al men in the worlde shoulde have suffered. Fevne and put case our sauyour Christe, had committed al the sinnes of the world, al that I for my parte haue done, al that you for youre parte have done, and that anye manne elles hath done, if he hade done all thys him felf, his ' agony that he fuffered shoulde haue bene no greater nor greuouser, then it was. This that he His suffering fuffered in the garden was a portion I fay in the garden of hys passion and one of the bitterest paysfull. partes of it. And this he fuffered for oure fynnes and not for anye fynnes that he had commytted hym felfe, for al we should have suffered every man accordynge to his owne defertes.

This he dydde of his goodnes, partelye Why Christ to purge and cleanse our synnes, partlye, because he would tast, and sele our myse-ries, Ouo poffet succurrere nobis.* that he should the rather helpe and relieue vs, and partly he suffered to geue vs example, to behaue our felues as he dyd. He dyd not fuffer, to discharge vs clene from death, to kepe vs cleane, from it, not to tast of it. All men shall behold the vg-some face of Nay nay, you muste not take it so. shall have the beholding of this vgsome death. face euery one of vs, we shal fele it our selues. Yet oure fauiour Christ dyd fuffer, to the entente, to fygnifye to vs. that death is ouercomable. We shal How we shall in dede ouercome it, yf we repente, and ouercome death. acknowledge that our fauiour Tefu Christe pacifyed with his panges and paynes the wrath of the father, hauynge a loue to walke in the wayes of God. yf we beleue in Iesus Christ, we shal ouercome death, I fay, it shal not preuaile agaynst vs. Wherfor whensoeuer it chaunseth the my frende, to have the tastynge of thys death, that thou shalte be temted wyth thys horror of deathe, what is to be done then? whenfoeuer thou felest death comes. thy foule heavy to death, make haste, and resorte to this gardaine, and with thys faith thou shalt ouercome thys terrour when it commeth. Oh it was a greuous Why Chryst suffred suche thynge, that Chryste suffered here. the greatnes of his dolour that he fuffered payn in the in the garden, partlye to make amendes for our finnes, and partly to delyuer vs from deathe, not fo, that we shoulde not dye bodylye, but that thys death should be away to a better lyfe, and to destroye Oure Sauyoure Chryst had a garand ouercome hell. dayne, but he had littel pleasure in it. You have many goodly gardaynes, I wold you would in the myddes of theym confyder what agonye our fauyoure Chryst suffred in hys gardayne. A goodly A meditation meditacion to haue in youre gardaines. It for vs in oure gardaynes. shal occasion you to delight no farther in vanities, but to remembre what he fuffred for you.

* For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to Heb. ii. 18.

maye drawe you from fynne? It is a good mcnumente, a good fygne, a good monycyon to confyder howe he behaued him felfe in this garden.

Well he fayeth to hys Discyples. Sytte here and praye with me. He wente a lytle way of, as it were a stones cast from them, and falles to hys prayer, and faieth: Pater si possible est transeat a me calix iste.*

Father if it be possyble. Awaye wyth thys bytter cuppe thys outragious payne. Yet after he correctes him felfe, and fayes: Veruntamen non ficut ego volo fed sicut tu vis.

Not my wyll but thy wyll be done O Father. Here is a good medytacyon for Chrysten menne, at all tymes, and not onelye vpon good fryday, lette good fryday be euerye day to a Chrif- should be tian manne to knowe, to vie hys passyon good fryday to a Chrysten to that ende and purpose, not to reade man. the storye, but to take the fruyte of it.

Some menne if they hadde bene in thys agonye, woulde haue runne them felues through i. Samu. xxxi. with theyr fweardes as Saule dyd, fome ii. Samu. xvij. woulde haue hangged theym felues, as Achitophell dyd.

Lette vs not followe these menne, they be no examples for vs, but lette vs folowe Christe, whyche in hys agonye reforted to hys father wyth hys praier. This must be our patrone to worke by. Here I might dilate the matter as touchynge prayinge to Saynctes, here we maye learne not to praye to We muste Sayntes. Christe byddes vs. Ora patrem pray to God and not to sayne. qui est in cælis.

Praye to thy father that is in heauen, to the creator, and not to any creature. And therfore awaye with these anowryes. Let god alone be oure anowry, what have we to do to runne hither or thither, but onlye to the father of heaven. I wyl not tarye to speake of thys matter.

O my Father, if it be possible, t this cup pass from me. Matt. 2. 2. 39. as thou will.—Matt. xxvi. 39. 2. 4. Pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven.—Matt. vi. 9. let this cup pass from me. - Matt. xxvi. 39. † Nevertheless not as I will, but

Our Sauiour Christe set hys disciples in an ordre and commaunded theym to watch, and praye, sayinge:

Vigilate et orate.*

Watch and praye. Wherto shoulde they watche why the discipples were and pray? he sayeth by and by: Ne intretis in tentationem.* That ye enter not into temptacion. He byddes them not, praye that they be not tempted, for that is as muche to say, as to prai that we should be out of thys world. Ther is no man in thys worlde wythout temptacion. It the tyme of prosperyte we are tempted to wantonnes, pleasures, and all lyghtnes, in tyme of aduersyte to dispayre in goddes goodnes. Temptacion neuer ceasses.

A dyfference betwene being tempted & entryng into temptacion.

Ther is a difference betwene beynge tempted and entrynge into temptacion. He byddes therfore not to praye that they be not tempted but that they enter not into tempto be tempted is no euyll thynge.

For what is it? no more then when the fleshe, the diuell and the worlde doeth solveyte and moue vs agavnst God.

To geue place to these suggestions, and to yelde oure To entre into selves, and suffer vs to be ouer comme of theym, thys is to enter into temptacyon. Our sayoure Christe knewe that they shoulde be greuously tempted and therfore he gaue them warn-ynge, that they shoulde not geue place to temptacyon, nordyspayreathys death. And yf they chaunched to sorsake hym, or to runne awaye, in case they tripped or swarued, yet to come agayne.

But oure Sauiour Chryste dyd not onely commaunde hys dyscyples to praye, but sell downe vpon hys knees that vppon the grounde and prayed hym selfe, sayinge: Pater si sieri potest transeat a me calix isle.† Father, delyuer me of this pange and payne that I am in, thys outragious payne.

Watch and pray that ye enter let this cup pass from me.—Matt. not into temptation.—Matt. xxvi. 41. xxvi. 39.
† O my Father if it be possible.

This word, father, came even from the bowels of hys harte, when he made hys mone, as who shoulde fave, father ryd me, I am in suche payne that I can be in no greater? Thou art my father, I am thy fonne. Can the father forfake his fonne in fuche anguishe. Thus he made hys mone. Father take awaye this horrour of deathe from me, ryd me of thys payne, fuffer me not to be taken whan Iudas comes, fuffer me not to be hanged on the croffe, fuffer not my handes to be perced with nayles nor my harte with the sharpe A wonderfull thynge, that he shoulde so oft tel his disciples of it before, and nowe when he commeth to the poynte, to defyre to be rydde of it, as thoughe he woulde haue bene disobedient to the wyl of his father. Afore he fayed, he came to fuffer, and now he fayes, a waye with this cuppe. Who woulde haue thoughte that ever thys geare should have come oute of Christes mouthe? What a case is this? What shuld a man fay? You muste vnderstand, that Christe tooke vpon hym our infyrmities, Chryst toke of the whych thys was one to be forye at vpon hym all deathe. Amonge the styppendes of synne ties, except this was on[e] to trimble at the croffe, this syn. is a punyshement for oure synne.

It goeth otherwayes wyth vs, then wyth Christe, yf we were in lyke case, and in like agony, almost we woulde curse God, or rather wyshe that there were no God. Thys that he sayed, was not of that sorte, it was referrynge the matter to the wyll of hys sather, but we seke by al meanes be it righte, be it wrong of oure owne nature to be ryd out of payne, he desyred it condicionally, as it myghte sande, wyth hys sathers wyll, addyng a Veruntamen* to it.

So his request was to shewe the infyrmytye of man, here is now an example what we shal do, when we are in lyke case.

He neuer deserved it, we have. He An example had a Veruntamen.* a not wythstandynge, wear when were tempted.

* Nevertheless.—Matt. xxvi 39.

let vs haue fo to, we muste haue a neuertheles, thy wyll be done and not myne.

Geue me grace to be contente to submitte my wyl vnto thyne. Hys sacte teacheth vs what to do. Thys is oure surgerye, oure physyke, when we be in Agonye, And reken vpon it frendes, we shuld vse. tyme or an other.

What does he nowe? what came to passe nowe, when he had harde no voyce? hys father was domme.

He refortes to hys frendes, feking fome comfort at theyr handes feynge he hade none at hys fathers hande, he comes to hys disciples, and fyndes them a flepe, he spake vnto Peter, and saied. Ah Peter arte thou a flepe, Peter before had bragged stoutly, as thoughe he woulde have kylled, God have mercye vpon hys foule. And nowe when he shoulde have comforted Christ, he was a slepe, not once buffe, nor baffe to him, not a word, he was fayne to faye to hys dyfcyples: Vigilate et orate,* Watche and pray, the spirit is ready, but the fleshe is weake, he had neuer a worde of them They myght at the lefte haue fayed. agayne. Syr remember your selse, are not you Christe came not you into thys world, to redeme fynne, be a good cheare, be a good comforth, this forrow wil not healpe you, comforte youre selfe by your owne preachynge, you have fayed: Oportet filium hominis pati,† You haue not deferued any thing, it is not your faulte. In dede if they had done thys wyth hym, they had played a frendlye parte wyth hym, but they gaue hym not fo muche as one comfortable worde. We ronne to our frendes in our dystresses and Agonyes, as though we had all oure truste and confydence in theym, he dyd not fo, he reforted to theim, but trusted not in theym, we wyll ronne to our frendes and come no more to God, he returned agayn.

What shall we not resorte to oure frendes in tyme

* Watch and pray.—Matt. xxvi. 41. † The Son of man must suffer.— Thus it behoved Christ to suffer. Luke ix. 22.

of nede? and trowe ye we shal not fynde them a slepe? yes I warrante you, and when we nede theyr helpe most, we shal not haue it. But what shal we do, when we shall fynde lacke in theym? we wyll crye out vpon theym, vpbrayde them, chyde, braule, sume, chause and backbite them. But Chryst dyd not fo, he excused hys fryendes, sayinge:

Vigilate et orate spiritus quidem promptus est, caro autem insirma.* Oh (quouth he) watch and pray, I se wel the spirite is ready, but the slesse is weake. What meaneth this? suerelye it is a comfortable place. For as longe as we lyue in thys worlde, when we be at the best, we have no more but. Promptitudinem spiritus cum insirmitate carnis, The redynesse of the spirite with the infirmite of the sless. The verye Saynctes of God sayed: Velle adest mihi,† My wyl is good, but I am not able to performe it, I have bene with some, and sayne they woulde, sayne they woulde, there was redines of spirite, but it woulde not be. It greued them that they coulde not take thynges, as they should do.

The fleshe resysteth the worcke of the How ye fleshe holy Gost in oure herte, and lettes it, resistis. M. L. wisheth lettes it. We have to praye euer to God prayer to be O prayer, praier, that it myght be yied in thys Realme as it oughte to be of all menne, and specyallye of Magystrates, of Counsaylers, of greate Rulers, to praye, to praye, that it woulde please God to putte Godly policies in their hertes. Call for afyst-I have heard fay, when that good quene that is gon had ordeined in her house, dayly prayer both before none, and after none, the admyral The admiral gettes hym oute of the waye, lyke a moule was a contempnar of diggynge in the earth. He shalbe Lottes commun praier wyfe to me as long as I lyue. He was a couetous manne, an horrible couetous manne, I wolde there were no mo in England. He was an ambicious man.

*Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed how to perform that which is good I is willing, but the flesh is weak.— find not.—Rom. vii. 18.

I woulde there were no mo in Englande. He was a fedicious man, a contemnar of commune prayer, I would there were no mo in England, he is gone, I wold he had left none behind him: Remember you my lordes, that you pray in your houses to the better mortification of your fleshe. Remember He wylleth them to pray. god must be honored, I wyl you to praye that God wyl continew his spirit in you. I do not put you in comfort, that yf ye have once the spirit, ye cannot lose it, Ther be new spirits start New spirites vp now of late, that faye, after we have lately start receyued the spiryt, we cannot synne. wyll make but one argument. Saynt Paule had broughte the Galathyans to the possession of the fayth, and left theym in that state, they had received the fpirit once, but they fynned agayne, as he testifyed of theym him felfe. He fayeth: Currebatis bene.* Ye were once in a ryght state, and agayne. spirituum ex operibus legis, an ex iusticia sidei ?† Once they had the spirit by faith, but salse Prophetes came (when he was gone from them), and they plucked them cleane away from al that had planted them in, and then faied Paul vnto them: O stulti Galathi quis vos facinauit? † yf this be true, we may lose ye sp[i]ryte, yat we have once pos-It is a fond thyng, I wyll not tarry in it. now to the passyon again. Christ had ben with hys father, and felt no healpe, he had bene with hys frendes, and had no comfort, he had prayed twyfe, and was not herd, what dyd he now? dyd he nued in praier. geue prayer ouer? no, he goeth agayne to hys father, and fayeth the fame agayne, father if it be possyble awaye with this cup, here is an example for vs although we be not herd at the first time, shal we geue ouer our praier? nay we must to it agayne, we must be importune vpon god, we must be instant in prayer. prayed thryse and was not herd, let vs finners praye

* Ye did run well. Gal. v. 7. of faith?—Gal. iii. 2.
† Received ye the Spirit by the $\foatin O \text{ foolish Galatians, who hath} \text{ works of the law, or by the hearing bewitched you?—Gal. iii. 1.}

thre score tymes, folkes are very dul now adaies in praier, to come to fermons, to reforte to House kepers common praier. You houskepers, and and great men especially great men geue example of must geue example of ample of prayer in your houses. Well dyd hys prayer. father looke vpon him thys fecond tyme? no, he went to hys frendes agayne thynkyng to finde fome comfort ther, but he findes them a flepe, again more deper a slepe then euer they were. Their eyes were heavy with flepe Ther was no comfort at all, they wyst not what to say to hym. A wonderfull thing, how he was toft from post to piller, one whyle to hys father, and was deflytute at hys hand, anothe whyle, to hys frendes, and founde no comfort at them, hys father gaue him loking on, and fuffred him to bite vpon the brydle a whyle. Almyghtye God behelde thys battayle that he myghte enione that honoure and glory, that in hys name al knees shuld bow, Cælestium. Terrestrium, et infernorum.* in heauen, earth and hel. Thys that the father wolde not here hys owne fonne. was an other punyshemente due to our God punyfynne. When we crye vnto hym, he wyll shes syn in not hearvnge not here vs. The Prophet Ieremy fayeth. of our praiers. Clamabunt ad me, et ego non exaudium eos.† These be. Ieremyes wordes, here he threateneth to punyshe syn wyth not hearyng theyr prayers. The prophet faythe. They have not had the feare of God before theyr eyes, nor haue not regarded disciplyne and correction. I neuer fawe furely fo lyttel discipline as is nowe a daies. Men wilbe maysters, they wyl be maysters, and no Disciples. Alas where is thys disciplyne nowe in England. The people regarde no discipline, they be without al order. Wher thei shuld geue place, they wyll not flur one inch, yea, wher magistrates shold determine matters, they wil breake into the place, before they come, and at theyr commynge not moue a whitte for them. Is this discipline? Is thys good order? Yf a man fay any thyng vnto them, they • Of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

— Phil. ii. 10. regarde it not. They that be called to aunswere wyll not aunswere directlye, but skoffe the matter out. Men the more thei knowe, the worsse they be, it is truely fayed.

Sciencia inflat,* knoweledge maketh vs proude and caufeth vs to forget all, and fet a waye discipline. Suerlye, in Poperye they had a reuerence, but now we have none at all, I never sawe the lyke. Thys same lacke of the seare of God, and discipline in vs, was one of the causes that the sather woulde not heare hys sonne. Thys payne suffered our savioure Christ for vs, who never deserved it. Oh what it was, that he suffered in thys gardeyn, til Iudas came. The doloures, the terroures, the sorrowes that he suffered, be vnspeakeble, He suffered it, partelye, to make amendes for oure synnes, and partelye, to geue vs example, what wee shoulde do in lyke case.

What comes of thys gere in the ende? Wel, nowe he prayeth agayne, he reforteth to his father agayne. Angore correptus, prolixius orabat.† He was in forer paines, in more anguishe, then euer he was, and therefore he prayeth longer, more ardentlye, more faruentelye, more vehementelie, then euer he did before.

Oh Lorde, what a wonderfull thynge is thys, thys horroure of death is worse then death it selfe, more vgsome, more bytter then anye bodylye death. He prayeth nowe the thyrde tyme. He dyd it so instauntlye, so feruently, that it brought out a bloudy sweate, and suche plentye that it dropped downe euen to the grounde. Ther issued out of hys precious bodye droppes of bloude. What a paine was he in, when these bloudy droppes sell so abundantlye from hym. Yet for all that, how vnthankefull do we shewe oureselues toward hym that dyed only for oure sakes, and for the remedy of oure synnes. Oh what blasphemye do we commit daye by daye, what litle regard haue we to his blessed passion thus to sweare by goddes bloude, by Christes passion. We have nothynge in no passime, but gods bloude, gods woundes. We continually blaspheme his passion in haukyng, hunting, dising, and cardinge. Who would thynke he shoulde have suche enemyes a monge those that pro-fesse hvs name.

* Knowledge puffeth up.—z Cor. + And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly.—Luke xxii. 44.

What became of hys blud that fell downe trowe ye? was the bloude of Hales of it (wo worthe it). What a do was it to brynge thys out of the kynges heade, thys greate abhominacion of the blould of hales could not be taken a great whyle out of his mynde. You that be of the court, and especially ve fworne chapleynes be ware of a leffon that a greate man taught me at my fyrst comming to the courte he tolde me for good wyll, he thoughte it well. He fave vnto me. You must beware howe soeuer ve do that ve contrari not the Kynge, let hym haue hys favinges, follow hym, go wyth hym. Mary out vpon thys counfavle, shall I fave, as he faves. Save youre conscience. or eles what a worme shal ve fele gnawynge, what a remorfe of conscience shall ve haue, when ve remembre howe ye have flacked your dutye. It is a good Gutta cauat lapidem, non ui fed supe cawvfe verfe. The droppe of raine maketh a hole in the stone, not by violence, but by ofte fallynge. wyse a Prvnce muste be turned not violentlye, but he must be wonne by a lytle and a lytle. He muste have hys dutye tolde hym, but it muste be done with humblenes, with request of pardon, or els it were a daungerous thynge.

Vnpreacheynge Prelates haue bene the cause, that the bloud of Hales did so long blynd the Kynge. Wo worthe that suche an abhomynable thyng, shuld be in a Christen realme, but thankes be to God it was partly redressed in the Kynges dayes that dead is, and much more nowe. God graunte good wil, and power to go forwarde, yf ther be any suche abhomynacion behinde, that it may vtterly be rooted vp.

O how happy are we, that it hath pleased almyghty God to vouche safe, that his sonne shuld sweate bloud for the redeming of oure fynnes, and agayne howe vnhappye are we vf we wyll not take it thankefullye. but that was redemed fo paynfullye. Alas what harde heartes haue we. Oure Sauiour Christ neuer synned. and yet fweat he bloud for our fynnes, we wyll not once watter oure eyes wyth a fewe teares. What an horrible thing is finne? that no other thynge wold remedy and paye the ranfom for it, but only the bloud of our Sauioure Christe. There was nothinge to pacify the fathers wrath agaynst man, but suche an Agonye as he fuffered. All the passyon of all the martyrs that euer were, al the facryfyces of Patryarkes that euer were, al the good workes that euer were done, were not able to remedy oure fynne, to make fatisfaction for oure synnes, nor anye thynge besydes; but thys extreme passion and blud sheddynge of our most merciful Sauioure Christ.

But to drawe towarde an ende, what became of thys thre fold prayer at ye length, it pleased God to here his fonnes prayer, and fent hym an angell to corroborate, to strengthen, to comforth hym.

Christ nede no angels helpe, if he had lysted to ease him selse with his deitye. He was the sonne of God, what then? for so much as he was man he received comforthe at the Aungels hande, as it accordes to our infirmitie. Hys obedience, his contynuance, and sufferinge, so pleased the father of heauen, that for his sonnes sake, be he neuer so greate a synner, leauynge hys synne, and repenteynge for the same, he will owe hym suche sauoure, as though he had neuer commyted anye synne.

The father of heauen wyll not fuffer him to be tempted with thys greate horrour of deathe and hel to the vttermoste, and aboue that he is able to beare. Looke for it my frendes, by him and through him ye shalbe able to ouercome it, let vs do as our Sauioure Christe dyd, and we shal haue helpe from aboue, we shal haue aungels helpe, yf we trust in hym, heauen an i earth shall geue vp, rather then we shal lacke helpe, He faith he is. Adiutor in necessitatibus.* an helper in tyme of nede. When the aungell had comforted hym, and when thys horroure of deathe was gone, he was so strong, that he offered himselse to Iudas, and sayed. I am he. To make an ende, I praye you take paines: it is a daye of penaunce (as we vie to sai) geue me leue to make you werye thys daye. The Iewes had hym to Cayphas and Annas, and there they whypt hym, and bet hym, they sette a crowne of sharpe thorne vpon hys head, and nayled hym to a tree, yet al thys was not so bytter, as thys horroure of death, and thys Agony, that he suffered in the gardayne, in such a degree as is dewe to al the synnes of the worlde, and not to one mannes synne.

Well, thys passion is our remedye, it is the satisfactyon for oure synnes. Hys soule descended to hell for a tyme. Here is muche a do, these newe vpstartynge spirites, say Christ neuer descended into hel, neyther body nor soule. In scorne they wil aske, was he ther, what did he there? what if we cannot tell what he dyd there? The Crede goeth no surther, but sayeth, he descended thyther, what is that to vs if we cannot tell seynge we were taughte no further. Paulle was taken vp into the third heauen, aske lykewyse what he sawe when he was caried thyther, you shall not synde in scripture what he sawe or what he dyd there, shal we not therfore beleue that he was there.

These arrogant spirites, spirites of vayne glorye: because they knowe not by any expresses scripture, the order of his doynges in hell, they wil not beleue that euer he descended into hell. In dede thys article hathe not so full scripture, so many places and testimonyes of scriptures as other haue, yet it hathe ynough, it hath. ii. or. iii. textes, and if it had but one, one texte of scripture, is of as good and lawfull authorytye as a. M. [thousand] and of as certayne truth. It is not to be wayed by the multitude of textes. I beleue as certaynely and verely that thys Realme of Englande hath as good authoritye to here Goddes word as any nation in al the worlde, it maye be gathered by. ii. textes, one of theym is thys.

• Grace to help in time of need .- Heb. iv. 16.

Ite in universum mundum, et predicate euangelium omni creatura.*

Go into the whole world, and preache the Gospell to all creatures. And agayne. deus uult omnes homines faluos fieri.† God wyll haue al men to be saued, he exceptes not the Englishemen here, nor yet expresselye nameth theym, and yet I am as sure, that thys Realme of Englande, by this gatherynge, is allowed to here Goddes word, as though Christe hadde sayed a thousande tymes, Go preache to Englishmen, I wyl that Englishemen be saued. Because thys article of hys descendyng into hell, cannot be gathered so directlye, no necessarylye, so formallye they do vtterlye denye it. Thys article hath Scriptures two or three. Inoughe for quiet myndes, as for curiouse braynes nothynge can contente them.

This is the dyuels sterryng vp of suche spirites of sedicion, is an euidente argumente, that the light is come forth, for his word is a brode, when the dyuel rusself, when he roreth, when he styrreth vp suche busie spirites, to sclaunder it. My entent is not to entreate of thys matter at thys tyme. I trust the people wyll not be caryed awaye wyth these newe arrogant spirites. I dout not, but good preachers wyl labour agaynst them. But now I wyl saye a worde, and herein I protest syrste of al, not arrogantly to determyne, and desyne it, I wyll contende wyth no man for it, I wyll not haue it be prejudice to any body, but I offer it vnto you to consydre and waye it.

There be some greate clarkes that take my parte, and I perceyue not what euill can come of it, in faying, yat our Sauiour Christe dyd not onely, in soule descende into hell, but also that he suffered in hel suche paynes as the damned spirites dyd suffer there. Suerli, I beleue verelie for my parte, that he suffered the paynes of hell proporcionably, as it correspondes and aunsweres to the whole synne of the worlde. He would not suffer onelye bodelye in the gardayne and vpon the crosse, but also in hys soule, when it was from the bodye, whyche was a payne dewe for oure synne.

• Go. ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. all men to be saved,—z Tiru. ii. 3, 4.

—Mark xvi. 15.

Some wrytte so, and I can beleue it that he suffered in the very place, I can not tell what it is, call it what ye wil, euen in the skaldinge house, in the vgsomnes of the place, in the presence of the place, suche payne as our capacitie cannot attayne vnto, it is some what declared vnto vs, when we vtter it by these effectes, by fyre, by gnashynge of teth, by the worme that gnaweth on the conscience What so euer the payne is, it is a greate payne that he suffered for vs. I se no inconvenience to saye, that Christe suffered in soule in hell.

I fingularly commende the exceadynge greate charitie of Christ that for our fakes wold suffer in hell in his foule. It ferches oute the vnfpeakable hatred that God hathe to fynne. I perceyue not that it doth derogate any thing from ye dignitye of Christes death, as in ye gardayne, when fuffered, it derogates nothing from yat he fuffred on the crosse. Scripture speaketh on this fassion. qui credit in me, habet uitam æternam.* He that beleueth in me, hath lyfe euerlastynge. Here he settes furth fayth, as the cause of our instificacion, in other places as high commendacion is geuen to workes, and yet are the worckes anye derogacion from that dignitye, No. And agayne scripture fayeth. Tradifavth? tus est propter peccata nostra et exuscitatus propter iuslificationem etc.+

It attributeth here oure inflification, to his refurection, and doeth thys derogate anye thynge from hys death? not a whit. It is whole Christ. What wyth his natiuitye, what with his circumcision, what wyth hys incarnacion, and the whole processe of hys lyse, wyth hys preachyng, what wyth hys ascendynge, descend-

• He that believeth on me hath offences, and was ra sed again for out everlasting life.—John vi. 47.

† Who was delivered for our

ynge, what wyth his death, it is all Christe that worketh oure faluacion.

He fitteth on the ryght hande of the father, and all for vs. All this is the worke of oure faluation. I woulde be as loeth, to derogate any thing from Christes death as the best of you al. How vnestimably are we bound to hym? what thankes oughte we to geue hym for it? We muste have thys continuallye in remembraunce. propter te morti morti tradimur tota die.* For the, we are in divinge continuallye.

The life of a Christen man is nothynge but a readines to dye, and a remembraunce of death, If thys that I have spoken of Christes sufferinge in the gardayne, and in hell, derogate any thinge from Christes death and passion, awaye wyth it, beleue me not in this, if it do not, it commendes and fettes furth very wel vnto vs, the perfection of the fatiffacion that Christ made for vs, and the woorke of a redemption, not onely before wytnes in thys worlde, but in hel in that vgfome place, wherto whether he fuffered, or wrastled with the spirites, or comforted Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob. I wyl not desier to knowe, if ye lvke not that which I have spoken of hys sufferynge, let it go. I wyl not striue in it. I wil be prejudice to nobody, weye it as ye lift. I do but offer it you to confider. It is like his foule did fomwhat, the thre dayes that hys body lay in the graue. To faye he fuffered in hell for vs derogats nothing from his death, for al thinges that Christ did before his suffering on the crosse, and after do worke oure saluacion, if he had not bene incarnat, he had not dyed, he was beneficial to vs with al thinges he did. Christen people should have his sufferinge for them in remembraunce, let your gardains monishe you, your pleasaunt gardaynes what Christ suffred for you in the Gardayne, and what commoditie you have by hys fufferynge.

It is hys wyl ye shoulde so do, he woulde be hadde in remembraunce. Myxt youre pleasurs with the remembraunce of his bitter passion. The whole passion is satisfaction for oure synnes, and not the bare death, consideryng it so nakedly by it selfe. The maner of spekyng of scripture is to be considered. It attributeth oure saluacion, nowe to one thynge, nowe to a nother that Christe dyd, where indede it pertayned to all. Oure Sauioure Christe hath leste behynd hym, a remembraunce of hys passion, the blessed communion, the celebration of the Lordes supper, a lacke it hath bene longe abused, as the sacrifices were before, in the oulde law. The Patriarkes vsed sacrifice, in the fayeth of the seade of the woman, whyche shoulde breake the serpentes hed. The Patriarkes sacrifised on hope, and afterwarde the worcke was estemed.

* For thy sake are we killed all the day long .- Psa. xliv. 28.

There comes other after, and they consider not the fayth of Abraham, and the Patriarkes, but do theyr facrifice accordynge to theyr owne imaginacion, euen fo came it to passe with oure blessed communion.

In the primatyue churche, in plages, when theyr fryendes were deade, they vsed to come together to the holy communion. What? to remedye them that were deade? No, not a strawe. It was not instituted for no suche purpose.

But then they would call to remembraunce goddes goodnes, and his passion that he suffered for vs. wherein they comforted much theyr fayth. came after warde and fettes vp all these kyndes of massynge, all these kyndes of iniquite. What an abhominacion is it? the foulest that euer was to attribute to mans worke oure faluacion. thanked that we have thys bleffed communion fet forth fo nowe, that we maye comfort, encrease, and fortify our fayth at that bleffed celebration. Yf he be gyltye of the bodye of Christ, that takes it vnworthely, he fetcheth greate comforte at it, that eate it worthely. He doothe eate it worthelye, that doeth it in fayeth. In fayeth? in what fayeth? Not long ago a great man, fayed in an audience, they bable much of faith, I wyll go lye wyth my whore al nyghte, and haue as good a fayth, as the best of them al. thynke he neuer knewe other, but the whore mongers

It is no fuche fayth that wyll ferue. It is no favth. brybynge Iudges, or iustices faith, no rentreasers fayeth, no hore mongers fayth, no leafe mongers fayth, no feller of benefices faith, but the fayth in the passion of oure Saujoure Christ, we must beleue that our Sauioure Christ hath taken vs agayne to hys fa[u]oure, that he hath deliuered vs hys owne bodye and bloude to plead with the dyuel, and by merite of hys owne This is the passion, of his owne mere liberalitie. fayth I tel you, that we must come to the communion with, and not the horemongers faith? Loke where remission of sin is, ther is acknowledging of sin also. Fayth is a noble duches, she hath euer her gentleman viher going before her, the confessing of finnes, she hath a trayne after her, the frutes of good workes, the walking in the commaundementes of god. He yat beleueth, wyll no[t] beidle, he wyl walke, he wil do his busines, haue euer the gentelman vsher with you. ye wil trye fayth, remember this rule, confider whether the trayne be waytinge vpon her. Yf you have another fayth then thys, a whoremonkers fayth, you are lyke to go [to] ye Scalding house, and ther you shal haue two dishes, wepynge and gnashinge of teeth, muche good doityou, you fe your fare. If ye wil beleue and acknoweledge your fynnes, you shall come to ye blessed communion of the bitter passion of Christ, worthily, and so attayne to euer-lastynge lyfe, to the whiche the father of heauen bringe you and me

A. M. E. N.

J. H. A. H. S.

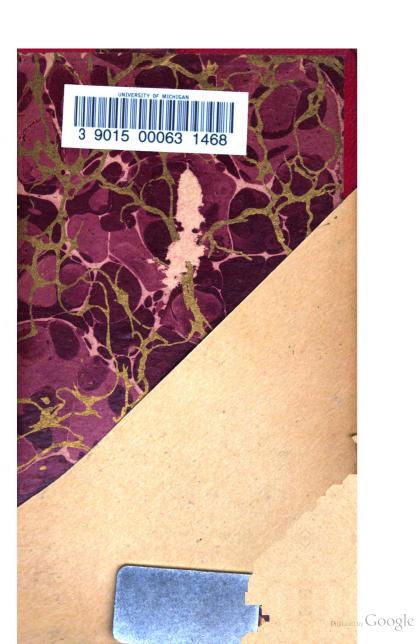

J. & W. Rider, Printers, London.

To renew the charge, book must be brought to the desk.

TWO WEEK BOOK

DO NOT RETURN BOOKS ON SUNDAY

DATE DUE

I woulde there were no mo in Englande. He was a fedicious man, a contemnar of commune prayer, I would there were no mo in England, he is gone, I wold he had left none behind him: Remember you my lordes, that you pray in your houses to the better mortification of your fleshe. Remember He wylleth them to pray. god must be honored, I wyl you to praye that God wyl continew his spirit in you. I do not put you in comfort, that yf ye have once the spirit, ye cannot lose it, Ther be new spirits start New spirites lately start vp now of late, that faye, after we have receyued the spiryt, we cannot synne. wyll make but one argument. Saynt Paule had broughte the Galathyans to the possession of the fayth, and left theym in that state, they had received the spirit once, but they synned agayne, as he testifyed of theym him felfe. He fayeth: Currebatis bene.* Ye were once in a ryght state, and agayne. Recepistis spirituum ex operibus legis, an ex iusticia sidei ?† Once they had the spirit by faith, but salse Prophetes came (when he was gone from them), and they plucked them cleane away from al that Paul had planted them in, and then faied Paul vnto them: O stulti Galathi quis vos facinauit? † yf this be true, we may lose ye sp[i]ryte, yat we have once posfessed. It is a fond thyng, I wyll not tarry in it. now to the passyon again. Christ had ben with hys father, and felt no healpe, he had bene with hys frendes, and had no comfort, he had prayed twyfe, and Chryst conty. was not herd, what dyd he now? dyd he nued in praier. geue prayer ouer? no, he goeth agayne to hys father, and fayeth the same agayne, father if it be possyble awaye with this cup, here is an example for vs although we be not herd at the first time, shal we geue ouer our praier? nay we must to it agayne, we must be importune vpon god, we must be instant in prayer. prayed thryse and was not herd, let vs finners praye thre fcore tymes, folkes are very dul now adaies in praier, to come to fermons, to reforte to House kepers common praier. You houskepers, and and great men especially great men geue example of must geue example of ample of prayer in your houses. Well dyd hys prayer. father looke vpon him thys fecond tyme? no, he went to hys frendes agavne thynkyng to finde fome comfort ther, but he findes them a flepe, again more deper a flepe then euer they were. Their eyes were heavy with flepe Ther was no comfort at all, they wyst not what to say to hym. A wonderfull thing. how he was toft from post to piller, one whyle to hys father, and was destytute at hys hand, anothe whyle, to hys frendes, and founde no comfort at them, hys father gaue him loking on, and fuffred him to bite vpon the brydle a whyle. Almyghtye God behelde thys battayle that he myghte enjoye that honoure and glory, that in hys name al knees shuld bow, Cælestium, Terrestrium, et infernorum.* in heauen, earth and hel. Thys that the father wolde not here hys owne fonne, was an other punyshemente due to our God punyfynne. When we crye vnto hym, he wyll shes syn in not hearynge not here vs. The Prophet Ieremy fayeth. of our praiers. Thefe be. Clamabunt ad me, et ego non exaudium eos. + Ieremyes wordes, here he threateneth to punyshe syn wyth not hearyng theyr prayers. The prophet faythe. They have not had the feare of God before theyr eyes, nor haue not regarded disciplyne and correction. I neuer fawe furely fo lyttel discipline as is nowe a Men wilbe maysters, they wyl be maysters, and no Disciples. Alas where is thys disciplyne nowe in England. The people regarde no discipline, they be without al order. Wher thei shuld geue place, they wyll not stur one inch, yea, wher magistrates shold determine matters, they will breake into the place, before they come, and at theyr commynge not moue a whitte for them. Is this discipline? Is thys good order? Yf a man fay any thyng vnto them, they † I will not hear them in the time * Of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

* Ye did run well. Gal. v. 7. of faith?—Gal. iii. 2.
† Received ye the Spirit by the Download Galatians, who hath works of the law, or by the hearing bewitched you?—Gal. iii. 1.

— Phil. ii. 10.

that they cry unto me for their trouble,—Jer. xi. 14.

regarde it not. They that be called to aunswere wyll not aunswere directlye, but skoffe the matter out. Men the more thei knowe, the worsse they be, it is truely fayed.

Sciencia inflat,* knoweledge maketh vs proude and causeth vs to forget all, and set a waye discipline. Suerlye, in Poperye they had a reuerence, but now we haue none at all, I neuer sawe the lyke. Thys same lacke of the seare of God, and discipline in vs, was one of the causes that the father woulde not heare hys sonne. Thys payne suffered our sauioure Christ for vs, who neuer deserved it. Oh what it was, that he suffered in thys gardeyn, til Iudas came. The doloures, the terroures, the forrowes that he suffered, be vnspeakeble, He suffered it, partelye, to make amendes for oure synnes, and partelye, to geue vs example, what wee shoulde do in lyke case.

What comes of thys gere in the ende? Wel, nowe he prayeth agayne, he resorteth to his father agayne. Angore correptus, prolixius orabat.† He was in sorer paines, in more anguishe, then euer he was, and theresore he prayeth longer, more ardentlye, more faruentelye, more vehementelie, then euer he did before.

Oh Lorde, what a wonderfull thynge is thys, thys horroure of death is worse then death it selfe, more vgsome, more bytter then anye bodylye death. He prayeth nowe the thyrde tyme. He dyd it so instauntlye, so feruently, that it brought out a bloudy sweate, and suche plentye that it dropped downe euen to the grounde. Ther issued out of hys precious bodye droppes of bloude. What a paine was he in, when these bloudy droppes fell so abundantlye from hym. Yet for all that, how vnthankefull do we shewe oureselues toward hym that dyed only for oure sakes, and for the remedy of oure synnes. Oh what blasphemye do we commit daye by daye, what litle regard haue we to his blessed passion thus to sweare by goddes bloude, by Christes passion. We have nothynge in no pastime, but gods bloude, gods woundes. We continually blaspheme his passion in haukyng, hunting, dising, and cardinge. Who would thynke he shoulde have suche enemyes a monge those that professe hys name.

* Knowledge puffeth up.—z Cor. + And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly.—Luke xxii. 44.

What became of hys blud that fell downe trowe ye? was the bloude of Hales of it (wo worthe it). What a do was it to brynge thys out of the kynges heade, thys greate abhominacion of the blould of hales could not be taken a great whyle out of his mynde. You that be of the court, and especially ye fworne chapleynes be ware of a lesson that a greate man taught me at my fyrst comming to the courte he tolde me for good wyll, he thoughte it well. He fave vnto You must beware howe soeuer ye do that ye contrari not the Kynge, let hym haue hys favinges, follow hym, go wyth hym. Mary out vpon thys counfayle, shall I faye, as he fayes. Saye youre conscience, or eles what a worme shal ye fele gnawynge, what a remorfe of confcience shall ye haue, when ye remembre howe ye have flacked your dutye. It is a good wyse verse. Gutta cauat lapidem, non ui sed sæpe cadendo. The droppe of raine maketh a hole in the flone, not by violence, but by ofte fallynge. Lykwyse a Prynce muste be turned not violentlye, but he must be wonne by a lytle and a lytle. He muste haue hys dutye tolde hym, but it muste be done wyth humblenes, with request of pardon, or els it were a daungerous thynge.

Vnpreacheynge Prelates haue bene the cause, that the bloud of Hales did so long blynd the Kynge. Wo worthe that suche an abhomynable thyng, shuld be in a Christen realme, but thankes be to God it was partly redressed in the Kynges dayes that dead is, and much more nowe. God graunte good wil, and power to go forwarde, yf ther be any suche abhomynacion behinde, that it may vtterly be rooted vp.

O how happy are we, that it hath pleased almyghty God to vouche safe, that his sonne shuld sweate bloud for the redeming of oure fynnes, and agayne howe vnhappye are we yf we wyll not take it thanckefullye, but that was redemed fo paynfullye. Alas what harde heartes haue we. Oure Saujour Christ neuer synned. and yet fweat he bloud for our fynnes, we wyll not once watter oure eyes with a fewe teares. What an horrible thing is finne? that no other thynge wold remedy and paye the ranfom for it, but only the bloud of our Sauioure Christe. There was nothinge to pacify the fathers wrath agaynst man, but suche an Agonye as he fuffered. All the passyon of all the martyrs that euer were, al the facryfyces of Patryarkes that euer were, al the good workes that euer were done, were not able to remedy oure fynne, to make fatisfaction for oure fynnes, nor anye thynge besydes; but thys extreme passion and blud sheddynge of our most merciful Saujoure Christ.

But to drawe towarde an ende, what became of thys thre fold prayer at ye length, it pleased God to here his sonnes prayer, and sent hym an angell to corroborate, to strengthen, to comforth hym.

Christ nede no angels helpe, if he had lysted to ease him selse wyth hys deitye. He was the sonne of God, what then? for so much as he was man he receyued comforthe at the Aungels hande, as it accordes to our infirmitie. Hys obedience, his contynuance, and sufferynge, so pleased the father of heauen, that for his sonnes sake, be he neuer so greate a synner, leauynge hys synne, and repenteynge for the same, he wyll owe hym suche sauoure, as though he had neuer commyted anye synne.

The father of heauen wyll not fuffer him to be tempted with thys greate horrour of deathe and hel to the vttermoste, and aboue that he is able to beare. Looke for it my frendes, by him and through him ye shalbe able to ouercome it, let vs do as our Sauioure Christe dyd, and we shal haue helpe from aboue, we shal haue aungels helpe, yf we trust in hym, heauen an 1 earth shall geue vp, rather then we shal

lacke helpe, He faith he is. Adiutor in necessitatibus.* an helper in tyme of nede. When the aungell had comforted hym, and when thys horroure of deathe was gone, he was so strong, that he offered himselse to Iudas, and sayed. I am he. To make an ende, I praye you take paines: it is a daye of penaunce (as we vie to sai) geue me leue to make you werye thys daye. The Iewes had hym to Cayphas and Annas, and there they whypt hym, and bet hym, they sette a crowne of sharpe thorne vpon hys head, and nayled hym to a tree, yet al thys was not so bytter, as thys horroure of death, and thys Agony, that he suffered in the gardayne, in such a degree as is dewe to al the synnes of the worlde, and not to one mannes synne.

Well, thys passion is our remedye, it is the satisfactyon for oure synnes. Hys soule descended to hell for a tyme. Here is muche a do, these newe vpstartynge spirites, say Christ neuer descended into hel, neyther body nor soule. In scorne they wil aske, was he ther, what did he there? what if we cannot tell what he dyd there? The Crede goeth no surther, but sayeth, he descended thyther, what is that to vs if we cannot tell seynge we were taughte no further. Paule was taken vp into the third heauen, aske lykewyse what he sawe when he was caried thyther, you shall not synde in scripture what he sawe or what he dyd there, shal we not therfore beleue that he was there.

These arrogant spirites, spirites of vayne glorye: because they knowe not by any expression for spiriture, the order of his doynges in hell, they wil not belieue that euer he descended into hell. In dede thys article hathe not so full scripture, so many places and testimonyes of scriptures as other haue, yet it hathe ynough, it hath. ii. or. iii. textes, and if it had but one, one texte of scripture, is of as good and lawfull authorytye as a. M. [thousand] and of as certayne truth. It is not to be wayed by the multitude of textes. I belieue as certaynely and verely that thys Realme of Englande hath as good authoritye to here Goddes word as any nation in al the worlde, it maye be gathered by. ii. textes, one of theym is thys.

• Grace to help in time of need .- Heb. iv. 16.

Ite in universum mundum, et predicate euangelium omni creatura.*

Go into the whole world, and preache the Gospell to all creatures. And agayne. deus uult omnes homines faluos sieri.† God wyll haue al men to be saued, he exceptes not the Englishemen here, nor yet expresselye nameth theym, and yet I am as sure, that thys Realme of Englande, by this gatherynge, is allowed to here Goddes word, as though Christe hadde sayed a thousande tymes, Go preache to Englishmen, I wyl that Englishemen be saued. Because thys article of hys descendyng into hell, cannot be gathered so directlye, no necessarylye, so formally they do vtterlye denye it. Thys article hath Scriptures two or three. Inoughe for quiet myndes, as for curiouse braynes nothynge can contente them.

This is the dyuels sterryng vp of suche spirites of sedicion, is an euidente argumente, that the light is come forth, for his word is a brode, when the dyuel rusself, when he roreth, when he styrreth vp suche busse spirites, to sclaunder it. My entent is not to entreate of thys matter at thys tyme. I trust the people wyll not be caryed awaye wyth these newe arrogant spirites. I dout not, but good preachers wyl labour agaynst them. But now I wyl saye a worde, and herein I protest syrste of al, not arrogantly to determyne, and desyne it, I wyll contende wyth no man for it, I wyll not haue it be preiudice to any body, but I offer it vnto you to consydre and waye it.

There be fome greate clarkes that take my parte, and I perceyue not what euill can come of it, in faying, yat our Sauiour Christe dyd not onely, in soule descende into hell, but also that he suffered in hel such paynes as the damned spirites dyd suffer there. Suerli, I beleue verelie for my parte, that he suffered the paynes of hell proporcionably, as it correspondes and aunsweres to the whole synne of the worlde. He would not suffer onelye bodelye in the gardayne and vpon the crosse, but also in hys soule, when it was from the bodye, whyche was a payne dewe for oure synne.

* Go. ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. all men to be saved,—r Tiiu. ii. 3, 4.

-Mark xvi. 15.

Some wrytte fo, and I can beleue it that he fuffered in the very place, I can not tell what it is, call it what ye wil, euen in the skaldinge house, in the vgsomnes of the place, in the presence of the place, such payne as our capacitic cannot attayne vnto, it is some what declared vnto vs, when we vtter it by these effectes, by fyre, by gnashynge of teth, by the worme that gnaweth on the conscience What so euer the payne is, it is a greate payne that he suffered for vs. I se no inconuenience to saye, that Christe suffered in soule in hell.

I fingularly commende the exceadynge greate charitie of Christ that for our sakes wold suffer in hell in his foule. It ferches oute the vnfpeakable hatred that God hathe to fynne. I perceyue not that it doth derogate any thing from ye dignitve of Christes death, as in ye gardayne, fuffered, it derogates nothing from yat he fuffred on the croffe. Scripture speaketh on this fassion. qui credit in me, habet uitam æternam.* He that beleueth in me, hath lyfe euerlastynge. Here he settes furth fayth, as the cause of our instificacion, in other places as high commendacion is geuen to workes, and yet are the worckes anye derogacion from that dignitye, fayth? No. And agayne scripture sayeth. Traditus est propter peccata nostra et exuscitatus propter iustificationem etc.+

It attributeth here oure inftification, to his refurection, and doeth thys derogate anye thynge from hys death? not a whit. It is whole Christ. What wyth his natiuitye, what with his circumcision, what wyth hys incarnacion, and the whole processe of hys lyse, wyth hys preachyng, what wyth hys ascendynge, descend-

He that believeth on me hath offences, and was ro sed again for out everlasting life.—John vi. 47.
 Who was delivered for our

ynge, what wyth his death, it is all Christe that worketh oure saluacion.

He fitteth on the ryght hande of the father, and all for vs. All this is the worke of oure faluation. I woulde be as loeth, to derogate any thing from Christes death as the best of you al. How vnestimably are we bound to hym? what thankes oughte we to geue hym for it? We muste have thys continuallye in remembraunce. propter te morti morti tradimur tota die.* For the, we are in diynge continuallye.

The life of a Christen man is nothynge but a readines to dye, and a remembraunce of death, If thys that I have spoken of Christes sufferinge in the gardayne, and in hell, derogate any thinge from Christes death and passion, awaye wyth it, beleue me not in this, if it do not, it commendes and fettes furth very wel vnto vs, the perfection of the fatiffacion that Christ made for vs, and the woorke of a redemption, not onely before wytnes in thys worlde, but in hel in that vgfome place, wherto whether he fuffered, or wrastled with the spirites, or comforted Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob. I wyl not desier to knowe, if ye lyke not that which I have spoken of hys sufferynge, let it go. I wyl not striue in it. I wil be prejudice to nobody, we've it as ye lift. I do but offer it you to consider. It is like his soule did somwhat, the thre dayes that hys body lay in the graue. To faye he fuffered in hell for vs derogats nothing from his death, for al thinges that Christ did before his suffering on the crosse, and after do worke oure saluacion, if he had not bene incarnat, he had not dyed, he was beneficial to vs with al thinges he did. Christen people should have his sufferinge for them in remembraunce, let your gardains monishe you, your pleasaunt gardaynes what Christ suffred for you in the Gardayne, and what commoditie you have by hys fufferynge.

It is hys wyl ye shoulde so do, he woulde be hadde in remembraunce. Myxt youre pleasurs with the remembraunce of his bitter passion. The whole passion is fatisfaction for oure fynnes, and not the bare death, consideryng it so nakedly by it selse. The maner of spekyng of scripture is to be considered. It attributeth oure saluacion, nowe to one thynge, nowe to a nother that Christe dyd, where indede it pertayned to all. Oure Sauioure Christe hath leste behynd hym, a remembraunce of hys passion, the blessed communion, the celebration of the Lordes supper, a lacke it hath bene longe abused, as the sacrifices were before, in the oulde law. The Patriarkes vsed sacrifice, in the sayeth of the seade of the woman, whyche shoulde breake the serpentes hed. The Patriarkes sacrifised on hope, and afterwarde the worcke was estemed.

* For thy sake are we killed all the day long .- Psa. xliv. 28.

There comes other after, and they confider not the fayth of Abraham, and the Patriarkes, but do theyr facrifice accordynge to theyr owne imaginacion, euen fo came it to paffe wyth oure bleffed communion.

In the primatyue churche, in plages, when theyr fryendes were deade, they vsed to come together to the holy communion. What? to remedye them that were deade? No, not a strawe. It was not instituted for no suche purpose.

But then they would call to remembraunce goddes goodnes, and his passion that he suffered for vs, wherein they comforted much theyr fayth. Other came after warde and fettes vp all these kyndes of maffynge, all these kyndes of iniquite. What an abhominacion is it? the foulest that ever was to attribute to mans worke oure faluacion. God be thanked that we have thys bleffed communion fet forth fo nowe, that we maye comfort, encrease, and fortify our fayth at that bleffed celebration. be gyltye of the bodye of Christ, that takes it vnworthely, he fetcheth greate comforte at it, that eate it worthely, He doothe eate it worthelye, that doeth it in fayeth. In fayeth? in what fayeth? Not long ago a great man, fayed in an audience, they bable much of faith, I wyll go lye wyth my whore al nyghte, and haue as good a fayth, as the best of them al. thynke he neuer knewe other, but the whore mongers

It is no fuche favth that well ferue. brybynge Iudges, or iustices faith, no rentreasers fayeth, no hore mongers fayth, no leafe mongers fayth, no feller of benefices faith, but the fayth in the passion of oure Saujoure Christ, we must believe that our Saujoure Christ hath taken vs agayne to hys fasuloure. that he hath deliuered vs hys owne bodye and bloude to plead with the dyuel, and by merite of hys owne passion, of his owne mere liberalitie. favth I tel you, that we must come to the communion with, and not the horemongers faith? Loke where remission of fin is, ther is acknowledging of fin also. Fayth is a noble duches, she hath euer her gentleman viher going before her, the confessing of finnes, she hath a trayne after her, the frutes of good workes, the walking in the commaundementes of god. He yat beleueth, wyll no[t] beidle, he wyl walke, he wil do his busines, have ever the gentelman vsher with you. ye wil trye fayth, remember this rule, consider whether the trayne be waytinge vpon her. Yf you haue another fayth then thys, a whoremonkers fayth, you are lyke to go [to] ye Scalding house, and ther you shal have two dishes, wepynge and gnashinge of teeth, muche good doityou, you se your fare. If ye wil beleue and acknoweledge your fynnes, you shall come to ye blessed communion of the bitter passion of Christ, worthily, and so attayne to euer-lastynge lyfe, to the whiche the father of heauen bringe you and

me

A. M. E. N.

J. H. A. H. S.

J. & W. Rider, Printers, London.

